WFWP Italy promoted a conference on the theme 'In Defense of every Woman', in cooperation with writer Roberta d'Amore, in defence of women's rights, and also to promote her book "Without you I would not exist".

This event took place in the church of Valdese, and in partnership with the Municipality and the Association of The Value of Feminine, on 14 Nov 2018.

Gemma Guerrini, President of the Committee on Equal Opportunity, represented City Mayor Virginia Raggi. She thanked WFWP for its activities and reported about the activities that the Municipality is promoting to combat Violence against Women. Cinzia Guido, Councilor for Culture and Equal Opportunities, reported about best practices and activities in her district. Virginia Vandini, President of The value of Feminine explained about the stereotypes we often face in society without even recognising it.

Elisabetta Nistri introduced WFWP and then presented about Roberta's book in more detail as well as about the project to support WFWP activities in Giordania in a refugee camp to support and educate children and women. 30% of the proceeds of the book sales will support these activities.
