

WFWP Arricia, Italy Works to Prevent and Combat Violence Against Women

Elisabetta Nistri
December 8, 2018

WFWP Italy contributed to a conference to highlight 'Pink month, to prevent and combat violence against women'. It was under the title "If you turn around" and organised by the municipality of Arricia, Italy. Arricia Town Hall - 27 Nov 2018
200 local High school students were also in attendance.

Advocate and writer Roberta d'Amore introduced her book on the value of women and maternity, psychotherapist Lorella Esposito explained some practical ways to recognize and stop violence, and magistrate Dott.ssa Cristina Macchiusi made an introduction to a law that can protect women.

Elisabetta Nistri, WFWP Italy President, emphasized the importance for youth to build a mature and good character in order to be able to love yourself and with an altruistic intent.

She also introduced an educative program 'Discover your talent, develop solidarity' which is being promoted by WFWP and the Association 'Feminine Value', that can be used for students at school.

Reported by Elisabetta Nistri
WFWP Italy President

