

WFWP Rome, Italy: The Role of the Women in the World with Dr. Maria Turiello

Elisabetta Nistri
September 17, 2020

Elisabetta Nistri President WFWP Italy was invited by Dr. Maria Pia Turiello, criminologist and psychotherapist to cooperate on the research on the topic The Role of Women in the World, with Embassies and some other Women Associations leaders.

The conference to start the activities was held in the University for Peace in Rome with 40 people representing, several Embassies, the representative of the Minister of Education and the rector of University.

Elisabetta Nistri in her message expressed deep appreciation for the commitment of the research and explained the work WFWP is doing to help women to rediscover their value and the contribution they can give to solve world issue working side by side with men.

The rector of University of Peace was inspired and offer his contribution to write an article for the VOICE OF PEACE (UPF and WFWP magazine.)