There were four distinguished speakers. Each speaker focused on their own perspectives on the theme, creating interesting discussion, based on the same line of values and principles, in regard to the balance between men and women at various levels in order to achieve a harmonious and peaceful society.

The Moderator of the event – Ms. Ana Paula Berto, WFWP Portugal Vice-President - created a welcoming environment. Around 72 participants joined, and some others followed on Facebook.

At the end, all three national Presidents came together to greet all the panelists including previous ones as well as participants. The online event ended with the song by Michael Jackson "Heal the World" creating a nice and warm atmosphere.

In the name of all 3 WFWP South Europe national Presidents and all staff, I thank all those who supported us
