

Three big Heavenly Tribal Messiah Blessing events in Nepal

Santosh Paudel
May 21, 2016

FFWPU Nepal: We had three big Heavenly Tribal Messiah Blessing event which took place in 3 different state of Nepal on May 21, 2016.

670 previously married couple participated at the blessing. This was a celebration of the UN International Day of Families as well.

Among participants we had some government officials and social leaders and social service activist. Mr. Ashok Kumar Chaudhary and Mrs. Namphueng Chaiyapa , state leader at the FFWPU Nepalgunj center, was the officiators, representing True Parents.

Mr. Kashi Nath Khanal, national lecturer gave one-hour lecture on family values, blessing and True Parents' life. He said, "... this great blessing which is from True Parents, who has come on the foundation of sacrifice and devotions by all religions of the world. And now we have the opportunity to receive this blessing on the foundation of all religions. Centering True Parents, all religions have to unite to complete the family mission."

Mr. Shree Krishna Shrestha, president of Nepal Chamber of Commerce and Industry was a special guest at the event, who also spoke. “He said, as family breakdowns, social disputes and family violence is increasing in Nepalese societies, such as higher level family values, scientific moral educations are appropriate and should be given to different levels of societies.”

More than 400 couples decided to undergo the 40-day separation.

