

1,100 attend Marriage Rededication and Peace Blessing in eastern Nepal

Santosh Paudel
November 12, 2016

Under the leadership of Special Envoy to Nepal, Hon. Ek Nath Dhakal and FFWPU-Nepal president Rev. Santosh Kumar Paudel, on November 12, 2016 we held a Marriage Rededication and Peace Blessing Ceremony in State 5, eastern part of Nepal. We had 1100 participants which included single married, guest, Ambassador for Peace and VIP's from government workers and social sector. In this event, 470 couples received blessing of marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashok Kumar Chaudhary, State leader organized the event under the theme "Mutual Relationship Between husband and wife and children can build a peaceful and prosperous Family, where they can practice living for the sake of others and in the end for Nation Building." Mr. Chaudhary officiated the blessing ceremony and in his speech gave an explanation about the meaning and the value of the blessing.

Among the participants we had teacher, government officers, NGO and INGO Officers, journalist, as well as religious leaders from Hindu, Muslim, Buddhist, Christian, and OM Shanti.

Participants were very happy and very interested to know about True Parents' teaching. They were inspired by the content of the event. Most of the couples participated at the holy stick ceremony and after that they filled up the 40-day separation form.

This is the 3rd phase of Heavenly Tribal Messiah's Blessing in Nepal, which is part of a simultaneous activities, which we will continue until the restoration of 10% population of our nation is achieved.

