

The 145th 21-Day Divine Principle Seminar held at Nepal's national training center

Santosh Paudel
May 17, 2017

The 145th batch of 21 Day Divine Principle Seminar began on May 17th 2017 in our national training center under the theme "Find Your Purpose and Change your Life". The opening ceremony lead by Mr. Rupsingh Bhandari, president of CARP Nepal and the director of the training center. We have 34 participants which included High School graduates and college students.

This time, all the participants are the result of joint venture of CARP and Pure Love Education tour in every school district. And they are graduated from a 5-Day Divine Principle seminar in their perspective area which was organized by district CARP leaders and coordinators.

Within 21 Day workshop and seminar they will undergo special formula course such as fundraising, witnessing and practice lecture of Pure Love education (Divine Principle content).

During their workshop, they practice Tong-Il Moo-Do martial arts as well.

