

Brazil's Grow Group Actively Support the Ministries of the Santo Amaro's Church

Koichi Sasaki
January 30, 2018

Following True Mothers guidance about preparing the youth to become future leaders of Cheon Il Guk, the Grow Group was founded in 2017 as a development academy for the youth focused on developing behavioral and leadership skills with the purpose of strengthen the pipeline of future leaders.

The Grow Group is led by Iongju Almeida – a second generation and a Human Resources regional leader in a multinational company rated as AAA – and Inowan Almeida also a second generation and regional leader of Santo Amaro's church.

For 2018 the Grow Group participants were challenged to take one step further: they will be on the front line actively supporting 6 departments of Santo Amaro's church (Home Groups, Blessed Couples under 40 years old, Holy Day events and attendance to blessed families, community & social work, entertainment, social media and improvement projects).

Through this initiative, we expect the provide to these new leaders in training the practice of developing a heart of service and alignment to True Parent's tradition while adding value to the church and community through the way of becoming filial sons and daughters by bringing victory to our beloved Heavenly Parents and True Parents.

