

WFWP Brazil's Annual Convention with members, State and Home Group Leaders

Koichi Sasaki
December 15, 2018

On December 15, 2018, members of WFWP Brazil gathered at the Convention Center Hotel in Sorocaba for its annual Convention.

The meeting was attended by women leaders, among WFWP state leaders, missionaries, Home Group leaders and members.

Mrs. Onnan, president of the organization, began the meeting with words of greeting and thanks for the presence of all and offered gifts to the women participants. In Following she talks about the importance of WFWP's activities to create an environment for witnessing, the importance of various social activities, contacts with women leaders in society, and activities in partnerships with various NGOs.

She gave also internal guidance on strategies to achieve victory in witnessing activities, Home Group and Heavenly Tribal Messiah, with an emphasis on fulfilling the responsibility of maintaining the tradition of Hoon Dok Hae every day.

At this meeting the women leaders had the opportunity to present their reports on the activities developed in 2018, and many activities have been reported with respect to various women's policy area and outreach in society as well as organizations have come close and worked together with the WFWP's activities. Thus, there were many from various regions: Mrs. Yolanda Almeida, WFWP leader of the city of Brumado-BA, Mrs. Célia Zaduski, leader of the state of Paraná, Mrs. Ilda Zampiva of Rio Grande do Sul, Mrs. Lúcia Souza of Rio de Janeiro and Vice-President of WFWP, Mrs. Sheila Santos, presented the reports of the activities.

On this occasion each leader can share their experiences and feel motivated and determined for the work of the coming year of 2019.