

IAPD Brazil's Blessing event at Sunday Service in the United Nations Church

Koichi Sasaki
August 11, 2019

The IAPD Brazil organized an event where 27 couples were Blessed in front of an assembly of 200 members of the United Nations Church on August 11, 2019. Apostle Boubacar Diallo, the President of IAPD and his wife Pastor Linda, Director of Unification Blessing Department gave the Sunday service.

The content was about the meaning of the 3 blessings where they emphasized the importance of those blessing in the middle of God's plane given by our Heavenly Parents.

After the lecture, 23 couples stood in front of the congregation and were blessed.

During the ceremony, everyone with an attitude of total attention understood the responsibility we have before God. After we heard from the founder of that church, the participants were touched and agreed with True Parent's teachings.

