WFWP Portugal in partnership with Novembro Educa Association, and FFWPU Portugal, jointly held two significant and events, allusive to the Inauguration of the Children's Library "Blili Family School of Love Room", a partnership between Novembro Educa Association and WFWP Portugal, with the support of FFWPU Portugal and Novembro Editor, whose aim is to promote the reading culture and disseminate contents in the context of family relationships, as well as to promote family interaction between parents and children, through joint readings, games, videos, among other materials, as the way of gradually introducing the four Realms of Love and Character Education contributing to raising good citizens.

After the Inauguration, the launch of the book "The Mother of Peace" Memoir by Hak Ja Han Moon took place, followed by a deep explanation of the thoughts of the noble author given by the editor, Avelina Ferraz. She felt honored in editing this amazing work, followed by the profound and enlightening comments from the translator of the book "Mother of Peace" Prof. Liberto Silva, the first National President of the Peace Movement in Portugal. He is a great connoisseur of the Unification Thought which was brought to light by the author, who together with her late husband, Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon has founded the Unification Movement.
