Dear Family,

Our dear brother Ted Agres suffered a massive heart attack last week. Yesterday at about 5 pm Ted succumbed to complications from this event after a week-long battle in Johns Hopkins University Hospital.

He and Maria are known to many as he was a longtime employee at TWT , a senior editor there and lived in Laurel, MD. Maria was active in local ministry for many years. Here is wife Maria's note from yesterday. We will keep everyone updated as we learn more.

Certainly Ted and Maria and sons Jason and Michael would welcome your kind prayers right now.

Thank you,

Jim Boothby, pastor
