

Peru's Youth and Students for Peace inaugurated in Lima with 200 participants

Alberto Florido
December 1, 2018

On December 1, 2018, Youth and student for Peace (YSP) – Perú was held in Lima, Casa Museo "Mariscal Ramón Castilla". This place is historical place in Perú. Ramón Castilla was a national president in Perú. He liberated many African slave who came here to work. This place is where Ramón Castilla lived.

There were almost 200 participants in YSP Perú inauguration ceremony including directors, generals, professors and many members.

First, Brigada Herrmann Hamann Carrilo, President of Ramón Castilla Liberation Institute, did a opening address. Then, CARP and Sunghwa members showed the dance 'Mujogon' to participants.

In this ceremony, Mr. Jaime Llontop Carpio was appointed a YSP-Perú president. There were many good speech for celebrating this ceremony. Mr. Jaime Llontop Carpio, YSP- Perú president explained True Parent's life. He told that they invested their life to Humankind and loved many people like their children with parents' heart.

Rev. In Soung Kwun, special youth emissary, explained the importance of Youth and Students for Peace in providence and Mr. Samuel Ota Linhares, Latin-America YSP president, told that True Mother would expect many things for youth members.

Participants had a big happy and expectations with big motive to see that youth members would do great roles in society.

