On April 12, 2025, the Women's Federation for World Peace International (WFWPI) held a remarkable 33rd anniversary celebration at the Lotte Hotel in Seoul, South Korea. This historic event brought together 150 international leaders, including First Ladies, religious figures, and NGO leaders, all united in a shared vision of peace and empowerment.

The program featured inspiring speeches by our outstanding women leaders and showcased the signature "Bridge of Peace" initiative, emphasizing the critical role women play as peacebuilders in their families and communities. We also enjoyed some wonderful musical performances that added to the festive atmosphere. Distinguished awards were presented to key women leaders, celebrating their contributions to society.

The excitement in the room was palpable as we reflected on our collective achievements and looked forward to many more years of impactful work. Special appreciation goes to all the staff who brought this beautiful event together, including President Moriko Hori, Dr. Paris Moon, Mrs. Choi, Hwa Jin Song, and many dedicated individuals behind the scenes.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, for her profound vision to uplift women as vital agents of peace in the world. Together, we continue to inspire and empower future generations!
