

UPF Venezuela's walk for peace was in the Francisco de Miranda Park, Caracas

Mirleisy Izaguirre
October 7, 2017

A walk for peace was held in the Francisco de Miranda Park, Caracas on October 7, 2017. The walk for peace last 2 hours, about 3 Km. We had 18 participants and latter around 50 people joined the walk. The purpose was promoting peace with True Parents teachings and accomplishments.

Participants began a collection of more than 50 signatures, agreeing the realization of a world of peace centered in God. Participants came from different religions and beliefs. They were united and motivated by the message of peace.

Among participants were: the Islamic Community of Caracas, the Anaisha Foundation that promotes the ideal woman through true values, FUNCRA Foundation (Skinheads, children with cancer), and the Gustavo Team Foundation.

