

Universal Peace Federation hosts Autumn Mountain Climb

Jeong Soon Jo
October 31, 2014

[Newsis] “Let’s enhance the peace movements” Sansuwon Aeguk-hwe Autumn Mountain Climbing

Hosted by Sansuwon Aeguk-hwe and the Universal Peace Federation (UPF) and sponsored by the Ambassador for Peace Council, “2014 Sansuwon Aeguk-hwe Autumn Mountain Climbing” will be held from October 28th -31st in three regions of Korea under the slogan “Let’s enhance the peace movements,” and 12,000 members are expected to participate.

On October 28th, 4,000 members from Seoul, the capital region and Gangwon Province will climb Balwangsan in Pyeongchan, Gangwon Province, and on October 29th, 2,500 members from the Chungcheong area will climb Gangcheonsan in Sunchang, Jeonbuk. Then, on October 31st, 5,500 members from Yeonghonam will climb the stretch of Jirisan after gathering at Hadong SongRim Park for the “2014 Yeonghonam Harmony Festival.”

At the Yeonghonam Harmony Festival on October 31st, representatives from eight cities and 113 wards and counties will combine the water from each region at the water ceremony and stamp their handprints in the “Hanaro (Unite) Performance.” They will pray for harmony in Younghonam, which has left deeply rooted conflict in Korea.

Furthermore, participants will send their hope for the reunification of North and South Korea to the sky through the Paper Plane of Hope Performance, where they will fold and fly paper planes.

Rev. Jeong-Ro Yoon, Chairman of UPF-Korea is expected to call on the participants to realize a world of peace by practicing the heart of loving nature and peace through Sansuwon activities....