At 2 pm on July 9, the Collegiate Association for the Research of Principles (hereafter referred to as World CARP) revealed that they had held an inauguration ceremony for the World CARP president In-Seong Kwun in the main hall of the Tongil Building in Cheon-pa Dong, Seoul. The ceremony was attended by Women's Federation for World Peace International President Yeon-Ah Moon, World Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (Family Federation) International Vice President Jun-Seok Ahn, Family Federation Korea President Kyeong-Seuk Ryu, Family Federation North America Continental Director Ki-Hoon Kim, Japan Blessed Families Association President Yong-Cheon Song, World Professors' Association President Dae-Oh Son, Heaven and Earth Training Center Director Ki-Sung Lee, Tongil Group General Secretary Sun-Pyo Hong and 200 other participants.

CARP is an organization that was established by Rev. Sun Myung Moon and Dr. Hak Ja Han on January 10, 1966. It is a movement to promote moral values, as well as the spirit of loving God, loving one's people and loving one's nation, to young intellectuals.

The inauguration ceremony included opening remarks, a representative prayer by Korea CARP President Sang-Pil Moon, a video message by Dr. Hak Ja Han, a speech read by Family Federation International President Sun Jin Moon on behalf of Dr. Hak Ja Han, congratulatory remarks by Family Federation Korea President Kyeong-Seuk Ryu, a congratulatory performance by the cadets of the Universal Peace Academy, an inauguration speech by World CARP President In-Seong Kwun and three cheers of Eok Mansei led by Japan CARP President Katsumichi Motoyama.

President In-Seong Kwun said, "From now on, we will manage the Collegiate Association of the Research for Principles effectively, focus on the capabilities of the youth groups in the Unification church and make efforts to nurture, educate and train leaders of the future generation."...
