A colorful and sunny environment as well as very good music brought joy to the heart of Paraguayan families last Sunday, December 11 in the last week of spring in the South American country with the successful realization of the Third Home Group Festival for the Victory of Vision 2020.

The event, which began at 10:00 am and went on until noon, at the headquarters of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification in Asunción, is an initiative work of the National Coordination of Home Groups in charge of Felix Coronel Fariña, with the support of the special envoy of Cheon Il Guk, Rev. Sung Jeong Seo, the FFWPU Paraguay and the 16 home groups who put all their efforts to lift up the spirit of the event. The leaders of the different areas of the church also demonstrated a strong commitment for our Home Group activities.

At the Home Group Festival this time, we shared exciting testimonies about One by One Divine Principle study, music of praise, theater, sports and many awards for the participants; With this initiative work, it was possible to observe a strong desire among participants to strengthen the witnessing activities and to involve the new guests in the providence centered on the True Parents.
