

World AIDS Day Program Held in Estonia

Olga Martinson - December 1, 2018

In Tallinn, Estonia, FFWPU held a program on December 1, 2018, to commemorate World AIDS Day.

Nelli Kalikova, an AIDS specialist for many years, spoke about her experience with HIV and AIDS patients. She was the first person who met with the first man in Estonia infected with HIV.

Avo Martinson, the assistant national leader of FFWPU, gave a talk promoting strong family values. This was followed by a Marriage Blessing Ceremony, in which everyone present drank the Holy Juice, including two married couples.

The Korean-Estonian Cultural Group performed songs in different languages as well as a Korean dance.

There were 25 participants, four of whom were Ambassadors for Peace. One member from Finland came to help.

