Parents & Adult Children

A young man asked his mentor, "What will it take to become wise, and responsible, and satisfied in life?" The man, (who was older, wise, and responsible, and satisfied) smiled and said, "Two words: good decisions." "But how do I learn to make good decisions?" the young man asked. The older man said, "One word: experience." The young man pressed for details. "But how do I gain experience?" The older man replied, "Two words: bad decisions."
