food for thought

Give Love Every Day

On Valentine's Day, it is estimated that 250 million stems of flowers and thirty-six million boxes of heart-shaped chocolates are given globally. It is the official day to declare our love and it comes with a lot of expectations. While I appreciate flowers and chocolates, my husband, Michael, and I have been practicing giving when it is unexpected. This relates to the understanding of unconditional love that we are learning as we study the many books on Real Love by Dr. Greg Baer. He has said, "When your desire is to love others with all your soul, instead of looking for what they can do for you, you're becoming a holy person."
