

YSP Central African Republic's Character Education Seminar in Bangui District

Steve Mokalo
August 24, 2019

On August 24, 2019, YSP Central African Republic carried out a Character Education Seminar in Bangui district. Forty participants, including two youth leaders managed to take part in the seminar which was carried out under the theme; The Role of Young People and Students in Creating a Sustainable Culture of Peace.

After a presentation about the history of YSP by the chapter's secretary general, the keynote speaker, Mr. Jean Paul G followed with his address. He spoke about the four realms of the heart (Children's Love, Siblings' Love, Conjugal Love and Fraternal Love), and also expounded on the need for a filial heart.

The seminar took place in a atmosphere of learning and sharing, and it ended with youth dance presentations.

