On April 24, 2017, Chairman Seok Byung Kim visited the CARP House to share about the vision of Hyojeong (HJ) Cheonwon, meaning "heart of filial piety" and "heavenly garden." He shared the concrete plan and vision of this establishment, and expressed that this is the place True Mother said will create to show how the world could look like.

The participants were excited to know that Cheon Il Guk is being built in this time, today.

Chairman Kim urged the young Unificationists to become inventors, people who are not bounded by old concepts so that can be a part of creating this kingdom by 2020.
