

Columbia Family Church of South Carolina held a ceremony for 58 participants

Randall Reeves
August 7, 2016

On August 7, the Columbia Family Church of South Carolina held a ceremony for 58 participants. Included among the participants was a bishop and his wife, a ministers of 20 years and his wife, one brother who recently returned from a seven-day workshop in Las Vegas, and one sister who recently attended a one-day Divine Principle workshop.

