

UPF Fier, Albania's Honors 2018 UN Year of European Cultural Inheritance

Zsuzsanna Sulejmani
March 23, 2018

On March 23, 2018 local Peace Council of UPF in Fier city, organized an event with 100 participants align with the 2018 UN year of European Cultural Inheritance moto. The moderator, Mr. Gani Rroshi, President of FFWPU Albania gave a celebrating atmosphere to the activity through his words.

One of the precious cultural representatives of Albania, Mr. Neritan Ceka (Archaeologist, historian) accepted the invitation to take a part and address a speech on this occasion. He called back the time of origin of Albanians and presented some of the most important places of antic times of Albania. The host leader, Mr. Myzajlen Hoxha mentioned, during his welcoming speech, the Divine Principle as a tool to learn the values of Peace.

During the event 6 persons were proposed to receive the title of Peace Ambassador from Fier community. Among them were piano teacher, TV and radio moderator, artist, writer, business women.

The event was concluded with a dance performance by CARP Albania members.

