

Cote d'Ivoire's National Caravan of Proclamation of True Parents in Public Places

Marius Bouguhe
September 29, 2019

Since September 29, 2019 we have organized national caravan of Proclamation of True Parents in public places and official buildings in several localities which will continue till until November 05, 2019. The theme for these events is "Peace and Family Renewal".

Here in pictures, the stages of Yopougon (municipality of Abidjan) and Bonoua, with the participation of more than 100 people, including administrative and political authorities, religious leaders, village chiefs and couples. Participants are very happy to take part in these events.

Reflections

Rev. Donatien (Representative of the Mayor of the commune of Bonoua): "I congratulate the FFWPU Côte d'Ivoire for this important campaign. I invite all populations to listen very closely to this message ...

Binjamin Dossou (Cabinet Director of the Prefect of Bonoua): "The Prefect sent me to tell you that he is proud of your initiative. Our city really needs people like you. I hope all the other cities around us will welcome this great campaign that works for peace and well-being in our own families ...

Deli Patrick (Stage 1 Organizer): "I am very happy to be working to proclaim True Parents in this Yopougon community. We will continue in the villages around so that this word will be heard in all the families. "

Imam Togola (A Muslim leader): "Frankly, what the Federation of Families does is exceptional. On behalf of the Muslims of my mosque, I pray that this caravan will reach many more families, so that peace becomes a reality..."