

Seminar for Schoolchildren in St. Petersburg

Yuriy Gavrilin - January 4-6, 2019

From January 4 to 6, a seminar for younger students was held in St. Petersburg. Fifteen children attended the seminar, the theme of which was "Friendship."

In addition to lectures given by Nikolay Sokurov, the seminar included a visit to a cinema and a trip to an amusement park!

During these same days, six older students from St. Petersburg attended a seminar in Moscow given by Matthew Huish, an elder Second Generation who is the national leader of our movement in the United Kingdom as well as being the father of seven children!
