

Family Blessing Festival Held in Ulyanovsk, Russia

Yuriy Gavrilin - July 6, 2019

The first Family Blessing Festival was held in the Russian city of Ulyanovsk on July 6. The date was chosen to connect with the Russian holiday known as Day of Family, Love and Fidelity.

In total, three families and five unmarried guests attended the event, which was conducted by blessed families together with CARP members and guests. This was the best idea, to organize together with CARP, because families could see young people and receive much inspiration and a lively spirit.
