

WFWP Sweden - Recap of the 2023 Cyprus WFWP Europe Leadership Conference

Britta Houston
January 19, 2024

On the 14th of Jan 2024, Vigdis Parkins and Britta Houston, Directors of the WFWP north region, could in person give a report in Stockholm about the 2023 leadership conference in Cyprus.

Britta gave a short introduction and also expressed thanks that Sweden was able to sponsor participation at the conference of Nargis Mommand Hassanzai, a women's rights activist from Afghanistan.

Vigdis gave an inspiring PowerPoint presentation that showed the content of the leadership conference as well as the sisterhood spirit and fun that was generated by the diverse group of women coming together in Cyprus.

The audience in Stockholm consisting of both women and men, listened attentively. In the evening, a few core members of WFWP Sweden were invited out for dinner to discuss plans for the new year as well as ways to improve communication channels. A decision was made to start up a WhatsApp group for the Swedish members.

On the 19th of Jan, the Malmö team could meet up for information about the conference as well as discussing grassroots level work in the local area of Malmö.
