Dear brothers and sisters first and second generations no passage in the Divine Principle and even in the Words of True Parents show you to masturbate when you are single or married, prostitute when the family is poor or to make money , to make you beautiful, to become a star, to fall because you burn, because you are luxurious, accept anal penetration to keep your genital path intact, make cunnilingus, blowjobs to men and women who don't know not the Divine Principle and even with those who know the Principle but with whom you are not officially spouses, go tongue tongue and cuddles, go to nightclubs, celebrate birthdays by dressing up sexy where everyone else see your butt, your legs, your boobs... That's not the Word of True Parents.

Where you allow yourself to have boyfriends and girlfriends you do a lot of weird things with. You smoke, you do drugs, you drink drinks and liquor. And then when they blame you, you replicate that you have your share of responsibility and that's your life. This is not the Divine Principle.

Let's keep the principle pure and without defilement because it is time we can sanctify ourselves in order to attain high spirituality.

You dress badly everywhere and you think you're a star, right! You have a demon of impudence.

God by True Parents called us to a life of purity not impurity.

You really have to meet the True Parents to change or else it's hell waiting for you, as you begin to die spiritually soon physical death will knock on your door.
