WFWP Ukraine held their 12th Annual International Conference of the Global Women's Peace Network (GWPN) under the theme 'Woman as a repository of harmony in the family and society'. It took place on 13 May 2019 in Borys Grinchenko Kyiv University with about 550 people attending from different parts of the Ukraine as well as international guests from Japan, Spain and Lithuania.

This event was organised in cooperation with "People help people" and was attended by high VIPs, such as the Chairman of the Verkhovna Rada (Parliament) of the Ukraine Committee on Health Care, Romny City Mayor, and others.

Main speakers were Mrs. Marcia de Abreu, WFWP-Spain president; Mrs. Tetiana Kotseba, WFWP-Ukraine head of the board and Mrs. Omori Nobuko - overseas volunteer for Ukraine from WFWP Japan, who read the welcoming address the WFWPI International President.

As every year, the conference included an award ceremony 'Woman of the Year', whereby 9 outstanding women of the Ukraine received the award in different categories: 'Woman-State figure', 'Woman-artist', 'Woman-public figure', 'Woman-educator', "Woman-scientist" and others.

Another award ceremony was for the winners of a children's creativity competition, which took place on Mother's Day.

There were musical performances and a lottery with prizes in the end.

Parallel to the main event, a roundtable took place in the Parliament.

The event was highlighted by several Online Outlets and social media.
