

I never imagined on my birthday, 29 September 2000, I would sing for the Messiah

I don't know you, but when I was young I was always wondering what I would be doing in year 2000 (the one with flying saucers) but I would have never imagine that for my birthday 29 September 2000 I would be singing for the Messiah.

I got a check from true Father, I thought $100,000 and got excited to have money to build a training center in Tanzania where I was living with my family as Abel National Messiah.

But it was "only" 100,000 Korean Won [about $85.00], so I bought a new blessing ring as a new commitment. Dan was there too ...

I remember singing "Oh Happy Days" I did not know the text so I improvised in Korean with "Kamsa Hamnida Chan Bu Mo Nim".

I remember looking at True Father, his head was surrounded with a bright yellow aura, like the church medieval paintings, it was a bit too much and I turned my head and when I looked at True Father again it was gone, and he had a big smile.
