September 21, 2019

On the occasion of International Day of Peace on September 21, 2019 we held an event to celebrate the celebrated first year public mission of young missionaries. We also had nomination of new ambassadors for peace.

Rev. Jean Pierre Kadima set a goal of creating a new state of mind in the Congolese youth to actively involved in the providence of the true parents. These young missionaries had been deployed in different cities and provinces of the country, where they brought better results.

During the event, we also nominated some of the VIP participants as the Ambassadors for Peace for their efforts and endeavors in their life. At the same time our youth missionaries were awarded for the hard work during one year.
