In Memory

Yasushi Philip Sakai (堺安司) was born in Sougawa, Miyama Village in Wakayama Prefecture, Japan in 1948. While attending College near his hometown, in the backdrop of an immense wave of Communist influence spreading across Japan and the world, he recognized the danger of the Communist ideology and began searching for answers, eventually leading him to the Movement in 1969. He came to the United States in 1972 as a missionary to support the success of a series of speaking tours by our True Father, the Rev. Sun Myung Moon.

The last 30 years of his life was spent in Hawaii with the majority of his public service devoted to witnessing and the education of members and youth. He did extensive research about Jesus Christ in the Bible and the Spirit World. He had a passionate love for Jesus and said that understanding Jesus' life and heart was the key to correctly understanding the second coming and True Parents. He taught that Jesus' personal life can be summarized by the words, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." [mt 8:20] And that although Jesus' physical life was 33 years, in actuality, Jesus' victorious life on Earth spanned only the final few minutes at the cross, where Jesus said, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" [mt 27:46] and forgave His persecutors with the words, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." [lk 23:34] There He won his sole faithful disciple, the thief on the right who gave his heart to Jesus saying, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom." [lk 23:42] And Jesus replied, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise." [lk 23:34] This was Jesus' victory.

Yasushi Philip Sakai always talked about the importance of studying page 175 (page 271 in the Japanese version) of the Divine Principle, "Introduction to Restoration", and stressed that this single page contained the essence to understanding

God's entire Providence of Restoration. He also emphasized the importance of experiencing and proving to ourselves that our original sin is eradicated through the Blessing of True Parents by receiving Christ's Holy Spirit in fullness at the top of the growth stage.

Through these teachings, he educated and witnessed to the people around him and his son, nurturing them to love Jesus more deeply, receive the Holy Spirit and eventually receive True Parents' Blessing. Yasushi Sakai is survived by his spouse Kyoko Sakai, his son's couple Michinari and Chiharu Sakai, and his grandchildren Kariana and Liberty Sakai.

Thank you, Mrs. Sakai, for many days of prayers and teaching us about Jesus. (As John W. Bratton said) "Goodbyes are not forever, goodbyes .. only mean we'll miss you, until we meet again!"
