

Dong Moon Joo and Peter (Hyo Yul) Kim found not guilty of violating the Act on the Aggravated Punishment, etc. of Specific Economic Crimes (breach of trust) against Hyun Jin Moon's WTA

August 30, 2012

Despite the fact that the prosecution had already dismissed this case twice, Hyun Jin Moon's UCI tenaciously filed for adjudication by the court. Once again, defendants were acquitted.

On March 27, 2012, court adjudication is filed by complainant (appears to be UCI related people) charging Dong Moon Joo and Peter (Hyo Yul) Kim with breach of trust (A violation of the Act on the Aggravated Punishment, etc. of Specific Economic Crimes) in relation to Washington Times Aviation (WTA) (remittance of public funds totaling 16 billion Won and US$7 million to the Mission Foundation), in an attempt to keep the funds from falling into the hands of Hyun Jin Moon's UCI takeover of WTA, which leads to court proceedings.

Complainant filed complaint with the prosecution and police but both times the complaints were dismissed.

Douglas (Dong Moon) Joo was charged with having caused damages to WTA as a person who was carrying out his duties at WTA while Peter (Hyo Yul) Kim was charged with having conspired and colluded with Joo.

Douglas (Dong Moon) Joo was deemed to have had a position of carrying out duties and operations at WTA and was also found to have not violated his duties. He was deemed not guilty.

As Joo Dong-moon was found not guilty, accordingly, Kim Hyo-yul was acquitted.
