

2018.01.14 ~ Kingdom of the Rod of Iron III ~ Rev. Hyung Jin Moon ~Newfoundland, PA 18445

Let's go with the Kingdom Rod of Iron series, and is it Chapter 3, I don't know? Let's do Number 3. We'll get like distinct Chapters, once we get the book down, and things like that. Okay, we'll just work it through, together.

Now, it's important to look through these Scriptures again, because, it's amazing. Who's been through "Love and Respect," Dr. Eggerichs' work on love and respect between husband and wife? Isn't that beautiful? A beautiful work, isn't it. He bases that entire work on one Scripture from Ephesians 5, which is really a key Scripture, where the husband must unconditionally love his wife, and the wife must unconditionally respect the husband, okay; and, this is a Commandment by God, so it's not a choice you have. It's not a choice. If you believe in God, and are faithful too, we really don't have a choice. We have to unconditionally love our wife, even though she may be unlovable. At times, she may be unlovable. We change her through love, being patient as a husband; and, on the flipside, for the Queens, we have to unconditionally respect the King in the house, and change him by respect, not by disrespect, you know. It's very important. The nagging and this kind of stuff, and so, that would be disrespectful, right, to the man, to the husband; so, things like that we should be aware of, for those are the Commands given to us by God; so, we have to really practice them. I know we're not perfect with this all the time. Nobody's perfect all the time; but, we have to try, okay. It is a Commandment by God. It's not something we have a choice about, okay.

Now, this whole Scripture is based on, like, that one passage in Ephesians 5, and then his whole book, his whole series of books, comes out of that one passage. It's really a key, unlocking passage between husband and wife relationship, okay. Now, when we deal with the Kingdom Scriptures and the Rod of Iron Scriptures, we are using way more than one Scripture, okay. You can see very clearly how Jesus himself defines the Gospel as the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom of God as being the Gospel; but, also you can see how the Kingdom that Jesus was talking about, especially when he returns, will be ruled with a Rod of Iron, okay. It will still be Christ who is the God of love, who's center is love, but at the same time it will be ruled by the Rod of Iron.

So, remember that. For the normal people in the Body of Christ, that's hard to understand. How does that happen? How does that happen, especially when you look at Scriptures that deal with the Rod of Iron, which we will get to right away. Let's get over these Kingdom Gospel Scriptures really quick. In Matthew 6:9, we covered this last week, this is the Lord's Prayer. The Lord's Prayer.

Matthew 6:9 "Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. 10 Thy KINGDOM come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. 11 Give us this day our daily bread 12 And forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. 13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

So, on Earth as it is in Heaven is absolutely critical. The Kingdom will not be a celestial Kingdom. It will not only be a spiritual Kingdom, it will not only be a Kingdom that we look forward to, especially when we die, it is also physical Kingdom; and, of course, this what is normal regular orthodox Christian theology, when they talk about the bodily Resurrection, when the Lord Jesus returns. Many brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ will believe, that the people who died will actually rise from the grave, okay. Everybody knows that, right? Okay. So, they will live in a bodily form with Jesus on Earth, and participate in the millennial rule, okay. So, we have to understand that. So, the Kingdom's coming to Earth, this is a critical thing. Critical thing, okay. It's not going to be a celestial Kingdom, a Heavenly Kingdom, where we are going post-death. This is a Kingdom, where Christ will bring to this Earth, okay. It will be a Kingdom of Justice. It will be a Kingdom of goodness. It will be a Kingdom of love and righteousness, etc; but, also a key factor of the rule of the Kingdom is a Rod of Iron, okay; and, of course, the Body of Christ doesn't know how that will happen, but of course, God has very clearly given it to us through the Principle, and through the Constitution, and through the Three Kingdoms of the King of Kings, etc. It's very clear how that is all consistent with the God of love, justice, and mercy, and righteousness.

Matthew 6:33 Seek ye first the KINGDOM of God and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Matthew 7:21 No everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the KINGDOM of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Matthew 10:7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The KINGDOM of heaven is at hand.

Luke 4:43 And he said unto them, I must preach the KINGDOM of God to other the cities also: for there am I sent.

There it is, right there, right, Matthew 6:33. Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness. Let's jump down. This is the one who enters, not all who say Lord, Lord will enter the Kingdom. That is in Matthew 7. In Matthew 10, here it is. It's saying, the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. Luke 4:43 And he said unto them, I must preach the Kingdom of God to other cities, also: for therefore am I sent. Jesus himself said, I am sent for the purpose of preaching the Kingdom, okay. He didn't say, I'm here to die for everybody; I'm here to go to the Cross; I'm here to be Crucified. We know he offered spiritual salvation; but, Jesus had to return, and he said, he will return, because his physical Kingdom has to come, alright; but, he says very clearly in Luke 4:43, and this is from the Scripture, two thousand years of Scripture, and nobody wants to see the Words of Christ. Nobody wants to look at that Scripture, because it doesn't fit Roman Catholic standard theology, or Greek Orthodox theology, etc. It doesn't fit the apologetics of those traditions. It says it right there, from Jesus' on mouth in Luke 4:43; so, you can't really get around that. You really can't ignore that, okay. Jesus in the Bible has more authority than any of those Churches. They're all subordinate, okay.

So, it doesn't matter whether the Christian tradition, whatever the Bible preeminence. When it comes to especially what Jesus says about himself, my goodness, and about his own Gospel that he's preaching, okay, he absolutely has preeminence. It doesn't matter what denomination. You're a subordinate, okay; and, so when Christ says, I must preach the Kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent. I am sent to preach the Kingdom of God, which of course he defines as the Gospel.

Matthew 4:23 Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the KINGDOM, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

Mark 1:14 Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the KINGDOM of God 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

See, the Gospel is the Kingdom of Heaven, the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom with Basilica comes from Basileus. It means the King. The Kingdom of the King. That's what it means. It didn't say democracy, it didn't say Socialism, it didn't say Communism, it didn't say Marxism, it didn't say any of that. It said, Kingdom. It said Kingdom, and it said, this is the Gospel. Look at Matthew 4:23, look at Mark 1:14. The Gospel of the Kingdom of God. Believe this Gospel.

Matthew 9:35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the KINGDOM, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the KINGDOM shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

You can see very clearly, then, how Christ defined the Gospel. It was the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. Again, it was not the Resurrection Gospel. It wasn't the Crucifixion Gospel. It wasn't those things. I know that sounds blasphemous in terms of normal Christian theology, because tradition has told us that, because that has been a way for God to use for salvation until he comes back; but, how God Himself defines the Gospel is of course the Kingdom of God. That's what he came to build. That's what he came to preach. That's what he came to establish, and of course the faithlessness of the people led God to have to take a second route; but, God still uses that in the end, or course, to establish His Kingdom. This Gospel will never pass away and will never expire. The Gospel is the Gospel. That is the good news. Euaggelion, okay; and, it is the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. The Gospel of the Kingdom of God, where the lion lays down with the Lamb. Woo!

Notice, it doesn't say the lion will lay down with the wolves. It doesn't say that. Did you notice that? It doesn't say the lion will lay down with the wolves. That's what the Commies believe. That's what the Catholic Church teaches, basically. They are teaching that the lion is going to lay down with the wolves. They become those centralized powers that collude with the corrupt structures of the world. The Bilderberg Group, Davos Group, the international bankers, big Mafia cartels. This is what they're colluding with, pretending to be religious churches, or things like that. Radical Islam, the same thing. They collude together. They work together. That is not what God said. He didn't say the lion will lay down with the wolves. He said the lion will lay down with the Lamb, okay. The Lamb represents those who know the voice of the Shepherd, alright. He who knows the voice of the Shepherd. They know his call, okay. So, you can see very clearly that Jesus himself, in the Word of God, very clearly identifies the Gospel as the Gospel of the Kingdom, Basilica of God, the Kingdom of God, okay.

Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the KINGDOM shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

Matthew 25:34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the KINGDOM prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

Boom! Right there. That's a very powerful one. That's a really, Matthew 24:14, right; so, when the Kingdom Gospel is preached again, the end is here. The end times are here. They're here. There's going to be a separation of the wheat from the chaff, a separation of the goats and the sheep, etc. Separation time is here. Good and evil will be separated, and split apart from one another; and, you can see that in the world. You can see, the people that are good are becoming more good, more Christ-loving people; and, the people who are actually wicked are coming out, they're actually coming out as being more wicked. They're more radical in their wickedness, you know. You can see it. It's almost like a balkanization that is happening. No one can take a middle ground anymore. You can't really hide in the middle anymore. You're either for sovereignty, or you're for totalitarianism. You cannot hide in the middle anymore with pleasantries and niceties; so, it is a sign of the times, and when this Gospel of the Kingdom is preached, and all the world is a witness unto all nations, then shall the end come. Then shall the end come, okay.

Now, when Jesus is talking about the Kingdom, he's teaching about the Kingdom, and he's teaching when he comes back he will rule with the Kingdom; but, then of course, what will be the way in which he will rule the Kingdom, how will he rule. How will the believer become a Coheir with Christ, and rule with God in His Kingdom? But remember, it still must be a Kingdom based on God's love, and His gifts toward humanity. His nature doesn't change when He establishes His Kingdom, the God of the Garden of Eden, of Creation, the God in the person of Jesus. He doesn't change all of a sudden when he establishes His Kingdom, right? He doesn't become Fidel Castro or Kim Jung Un. You know, Asian Porky Pig with an Asian Afro. Do you know what I mean? He's having Korean barbeque, while his people are eating tree bark. You know, they got parasites with 24-inch tapeworms in their bodies, do you know what I'm saying?

So, the nature of God doesn't change, all of a sudden, that now He's established His Kingdom. That would be crazy, because the Bible says that God is eternal. He's unchanging. He doesn't change. He is forever. He's not going to change His fundamental nature. He is not going to change. He's not going to be a God of love in the Old and New Testaments; and then when His Kingdom comes, He's not going to be a God of tyranny, right. Does that make sense?

The problem is in the Body of Christ. Nobody is talking about how God will rule, what is the rule of the Rod of Iron? How is the God of love able to rule with a Rod of Iron? How are His believers, who are Coheirs with Christ, Kings and Queens, also, in the Kingdom given Crowns, in the Kingdom, let no man take that Crown in Revelation 3:11, etc. That's so, very clearly, the faithful will stand with God to inherit the Earth. Psalm 2:8, right there. Ask of me, I will give you the nations for your inheritance, right? Ask of me and I will give you the nations for your inheritance, and the ends of Earth for your possession. The ends of the Earth for your possession, not because we're on some power trip, we're on whatever it is. Arrogance trips, hubris trips, etc. It is because God said so, right?

So, there's one thing good people got to do. There is one thing I had to get over too, is that, when God gives you an inheritance, you have to take it. You have to claim it, not because you're selfish, because he chose you to take it. If you don't take it, Satan will take it. Does that make sense? Okay, so it's not supposed to be a power trip. It's not supposed to be like, "oh, but, if you don't take that responsibility, God gave to you of inheritance, then Satan will take it. Somebody will sit on the Throne. You know, you guys have been with me through the whole journey. I mean, I even had a hard time sitting up on the Thrones, and this kind of stuff. I mean, I had a hard time. I'm the youngest, and I don't like doing that. All the younger people, they know. I have skills in different martial arts, and I don't want to show off like that, okay; but, I had to do it, because if I don't sit in as Father's Heir and Successor, whom he had appointed, I didn't choose myself, then Satan will, right? So, I really had no choice about it; and, that's the hardest thing about inheritance, is good people are humbled. You see, good people are humbled. Since they're humbled, they don't think they always put in a framework like, I don't deserve this blessing; but, God is not talking about whether you deserve it or not. It's not the criteria for which He's choosing you. You know what I mean? He's choosing you with other criteria, not based on what we're thinking about, not whether we deserve it or not, because there's plenty of other Satans who think they deserve it. It's probably the fact that you don't believe you deserve it, is the fact that you're attracted to you, saying, "Hey, maybe I can trust you a little more." Okay, okay! So again:

Psalm 2:8 Ask of Me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for your possession. 9 You shall break them with a rod of iron; you shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.

Revelation 2:27 AND HE SHALL RULE THEM WITH A ROD OF IRON, AS THE VESSELS OF THE POTTER ARE BROKEN TO PIECES, as I also have received authority from My Father;

So, I say again, that God will rule the nations with a Rod of Iron. You can't get around this. There's no way you can get around this. You can't liberalize this. You can't make this into a nicer package. You know, how the fake Christians will try and make Jesus into a very feminized version Jesus, or Father into a very feminized version. Come on, do you understand? Father has been through two world wars, concentrate death camp gulags, imprisoned by four different countries. I mean, he's not going to put a polka dot dress and say, "Yeah!" You know. I mean, give me a break! He is a strong man. He had to flee from North Korea with its biting temperature. I mean, we get minus 20-degree temperatures. That's like North Korea, his Homeland. Flee from that like Chief had to go through that in Vietnam. They couldn't make fire. You're dead. They're going to shoot you. The fire will attract your enemies. The enemies will see the fire. and they will come and hunt you; so, they're traveling down in the middle of Winter in the minus twenty degrees. They don't have military modular sleep systems like the modern synthetic bags. They had like cotton and wool; and, like cotton will kill you. Have you been in minus degrees with cotton on? It will freeze as hard as a rock, and get as cold as sheet metal; and, all your body heat trying to go and warm that up, all that can do is melt cold water on to you; so, you're really in trouble. I mean, you're in big trouble. The best alternative after that is wool; but, not everybody in North Korea has wool. That is a lot more expensive than cotton. You had linen. Linen is like a Summer fabric. My gosh! Linen in minus twenties, could you believe it? That is insane.

They don't have these down jackets with the new modern, you know, nylon layers. They don't have that. You know, they're wrapped up in like linen. It's crazy. It's insane. If you ever done outside survival arctic training, boy it is unimaginable how Father made it down during the Winter like that. It's incredible; while, people were hunting trying to kill him. Oh my gosh. I can't even imagine this. It's so. I mean, I got minor frostbite in negative seven degrees Fahrenheit with a wool blanket; and, that's probably warmer than they had, because I had a fire; and, I got minor frostbite on my backside. I couldn't sit down for a year, do you know what I mean, while doing my training? So, I mean, it's like talk about enduring tremendous harsh conditions. The point is, we can't get around the fact that Christ will rule with a Rod of Iron. Can't get around it. That's how Christ Kingdom will be ruled. It will be ruled with a Rod of Iron. It is a central accoutrement, a central factor of Christ's Kingship, whether you like it or not, cause it's not your choice. It's not my choice, it's God's choice, right?

So, His Kingship and His Kingdom is ruled by the Rod of Iron. The Rod of Iron is a prominent, it is central, not only like a secondary truth, it is a central description of how he will rule; so, it becomes a religious accoutrement. It becomes an actual symbol of his rule, and the actual power of his rule.

Now, how that will formulate, Christians, up until this time, he had no idea; and, they were scared of these verse, cause it seemed to seem like Jesus was to come back, and to become like a tyrant. He was to be King Jesus. He's going to kick some ashtray, and he's going to take over Rome, and he's going to rule like a tyrant; so, you had some Christians that are like, "Okay, let's do that;" but, then afterwards it's like, "Oh, yeah, you know it going to be quite oppressive. America's a lot better." They had like this inner conflict inside. Okay. But, it's very clear how that will play out.

Revelation 12:5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.

Revelation 19:15 From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

There you go. You can't get around it; so, we always want to go back to our default. We always want to go back to where our comfort zone, our little safety zone, and this really makes Christians uncomfortable; because, it's like two thousand years of safe space Christianity, where we don't want to talk about the rule with the Rod of Iron; and, we only want to talk about with Scriptures of love and mercy; but, it's very clear in the Last Days, Christ doesn't come back in only merciful ways to establish his Kingdom, to establish his Kingdom, and how he will rule it with a Rod of Iron, okay.

So, I have also been on a little bit of a journey as you know as well, because I've been in combat martial arts, in reality, based martial arts, since I was a young person; and also knife training as well, Filipino martial arts – Kali, Eskrima, and Silat, things like that; but, I never sort of got into the gun thing, because my brothers were so heavy into it; and, you know, I just wanted to learn like technique stuff; and, I guess I kinda got brainwashed a little bit by, you know, the movies. Jet Li and Bruce Lee, you know what I mean? They were beating up guys. They looked so bad ashtray, you know. They looked so cool. They're beating up guys with knives, you know. Beating up guys with guns. It's kind of fake, okay; but, young people get into that, okay. Young people get into that, okay. You want to believe you have special powers when you are you, you know what I mean? I guess I fell prey to that when I was younger; but, I always knew, of course, the firearm was going to be an important tool; and, I wouldn't say, obviously, I was negative about it. I didn't want to harm people or anything; but, I really didn't focus on it, and really in the last five years, I moved from the BJJ community, the MMA community, or knife community, or more into the gun community. It's the first time for me, too; so, you've been walking with me on this journey, as well, and understanding this community. Really, what's so amazing is the gun community I feel is the most Abel type of them all.

The more dangerous the martial art, the more conservative they become, cause the consequences of messing up is huge. It's huge. You know, when you're dealing with empty hands, it's not as big; but, when you are dealing with a gun, oh my goodness, you make one mistake, you can blow off your leg. You can blow off your pelvic bone. You can blow off half of your booty. If you're appendix carrying, you can blow off half of your groin. You know what I mean? You can blow off your jewels, if you appendix-carry. Some guys like to carry it right in front. One mistake, not two mistakes. You don't get a second chance. You don't get a redo. No reset button. Once it's blown off, it's blown off, okay.

So, it's like the level of future thinking, the constant vigilance over mind and body has to be very high, especially when you are carrying that incredible explosive power, which is a super fire Ninja power, okay. Can you imagine in the past in the medieval world, these Ninjas or whatever Asian world these Ninjas, they would dream like in their wildest imaginations they could shoot things from their fingers, they could get their opponent. The wizards of the past, right, the wizards of medieval world. They could only imagine and dream about having that kind of power, right; but, in the modern day, through the Rod of Iron, we have that power. We have literally the power from twenty, thirty, forty, fifty yards from stopping a bad guy, without him ever getting close to us, which is amazing. That's better than a shuriken. A shuriken you can go as far as you can throw. You know the Rod of Iron goes way past your physical power limits; so, think about all these past martial artists, or past wizards, or past Ninjas, or past Samurai, they only dreamed of having this kind of technology. They literally dreamed of it, okay; but, we're literally able to carry it. It's become compact, safer to carry. It doesn't take away training. You need good training, etc; but, it's an incredible time to be alive. Incredible time; and, John the Revelator saw that Christ will rule with a Rod of Iron. Isn't that interesting?

How that also lines with the statistical survey studies that have been done on, in the US in particular, on cities that do a lot of gun control and crime rates, very high crime rates, right. A lot, way higher in homicide rates than places that have lots of citizens armed, lots of Rod of Iron hands of the sheep, or the lambs instead of the wolves; then, the wolves lay down. They back off, right. That's now proven by Science, okay, even though it's politically whipped up into a frenzy by the left and the Communists, okay. Science has shown very clearly that the power of the Rod of Iron in the right hands, that means the hands of the law-abiding citizen, is the Homeland Security. Did you see that? It says, "the Second Amendment, the Original Homeland Security." It's the armed citizens that were the original Homeland Security. It's you and I on the ground that's gonna meet the bad guy face to face. If the bad guy comes in, you don't have time to call 911, if he's throwing you on the floor, or breaking into your office or door, you know. If your shooting a radian into a mob of people, you don't have time to do that, or whatever the situation may be; and, even though you do call 911, you know, just because the Police are not God, they cannot teleport, they're not Harry Potter, or something like that. Does Harry Potter teleport? Harry Potter is a total beta male. Don't look up to Harry Potter, okay. (Star Trek) I never been into Star Trek, Star Wars, none of that. I've been into Bruce Lee, you know. The point is, the Rod of Iron in the hands of the right people, is what keeps the bad guys at bay, and that's the problem. The problem is not the normal people who want to get along with their life. You know, they want to be prosperous, they want to be happy, they want to search for God, they want to start a new business, whatever it is, okay. They normally don't want to feed on and screw up people's lives, okay. Normal people don't want to do that usually, okay.

You'd be more psychopathic, if you want to do that. You'd get your jollies off from doing that kind of thing. The psychopaths want to do that. They want to violate and intrude into people's lives, and violently want to disrupt their lives, and violently want to take over their lives, and violently want to take what people had built, and take what they had made, etc. as their own. This is a psychopathic tendency, okay. Psychologist say it's about 10% of the population, so it's not everybody. You have the problem with the sociopathic class who follow psychopaths to gain power and money, okay; so, that's the sociopathic class up to 35-40% to follow psychopaths for the establishment of power, to gain power, okay; and, about 50%, the good people who'll say, "No, I'm not interested in that, you know."

But, it's interesting, the more dangerous the tool, the more conservative you have to be, because the consequence becomes so much bigger, okay. If you're practicing with your knife, and you cut yourself, okay, as long as you didn't cut yourself in a really bad area, you're probably going to survive it; but, if you shoot your hip off, and now you can't get to somewhere, you can't call in, you're going to bleed out. You know, you hit atrial bleeding, in three to five minutes, you're going to bleed out bad, okay.

Revelation 19:15 From His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron; and He treads the wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

So, Christ in his rule, as well in his Kingdom, in Revelation 19:15 we see here as well, from his mouth comes a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike down the nations, and he will rule them, again, with a Rod of Iron. Rod of Iron; so, the defining characteristic of Christ rule in his Kingdom is the Rod of Iron. Isn't that interesting? It is the Rod of Iron. You really can't get around that.

We were just at a gun show. Who went to the Matamoras Gun Show? Did everybody enjoy that? That was pretty interesting, right? Interesting. I should have taken my older kids with me, cause it's good for them to see that. They would have enjoyed it. Also, I go around, when I was in that room, right, looking at the guns and all, and looking at all these folks, and they're interesting things. There're some survival gear stuff, they're some fishing stuff, they're some gun show stuff, related stuff. Hunting, rifles, all this kind of thing. You know, that culture reminds me so much of Father. That's Father's culture. People don't realize. Father's culture's not the big Cheon Jeong Goong Palace and shopping malls. That's the Han Mother's culture. That's not Father's culture. Father's culture is in the jungles. It's hanging out with blue collar workers, right? Boat riders, you know, fishermen, hunters, when he's hunting down there in Cheju Island, or hog hunting. I mean, this is the people he's around, do you understand? These are the folks, and of course, these are the folks that Jesus first witnessed to – the fishermen.

So, we really have to break through culture, because a lot of us in this culture still are a little elitist, and it's not a bad thing, you know. We have to work out that. You have to realize that you may have been conditioned by the satanic Kingdom to be elitists, like to not appreciate those kind of people, and that's bad; especially our Asian people, we have that, because in Asia, I know I'm Asian too, very stratified. In Asia, if somebody's like a fisherman, or a darker skinned, you know, whatever, Asians are very racist. Very, very racist. I mean, they're super racist. Asian can be extremely racist. Even Black folks, saying, Black folks can be racist to other Blacks, right? It's the same kind of thing. Asians can be very racist to other Asians; and, when they see people with manual labor jobs, they really look down on them. They have a very elitist mentality. You know, it's built into them, because they've been under Chinese rule. China's like that, you know, that kind of satanic culture; but, Asia is very guilty of this too; so, I have to warn our Asian brothers and sisters, you got to be careful of this, because we have to love the culture Father loves. That's the culture we have to pass down; and, the folks that Father was with are the people that love the outdoors, they love the outdoors.

Hunting, fishing, yeah sometimes they smell and have body odor. Sometimes they walk around in bluejeans and camo. Sometimes they got open carry. They got their pistol hanging out their belt, driving a boat. Sometimes they got their big fishing chaps on, you know, rubber legs walking in Church. "Oh, I got me some salmon." But, that's the culture. That's the cultural world that was part of the King of Kings life. That was his lifestyle. You know, occasionally we had to do some conference, you know, some hotel, go to this or that. That's not his lifestyle, you understand? He's a total outdoorsman.

So, again, you cannot, you cannot. If you do this, it's a sin. You cannot paint him in your own image. You cannot paint him into a version of a reality that Father is not. He is a true outdoorsman. I'm talking about alligators in the Amazon Jungle, okay. How would some teenagers be able to go to the Amazon Jungle and be able to go fishing and see like alligators and piranhas. It's because Father was down there doing it. We were made to go down there and join him in his training. We had to do it, whether we liked it or not. You know, we did stupid things like swim down the river with alligators in it. Such idiots. We said, "Hey, it's a waterfall, swinging off the waterfall." Very smart. Very smart. Then we see the Anaconda, you know, swimming through the water, okay. Then we're swimming down the river, because we think that's a good idea to do in the middle of the Amazon Jungle, you know; and, we're told by the inhabitants there, "You could have stepped on a stingray." There's stingrays on the bottom of the floor; and, we're walking down where we could. Walking on the floor, just walking. How stupid were we? Oh, my gosh! God had His hand over us, I swear; and, there were alligators everywhere. Everywhere you go, there's alligators. There's piranhas swimming around, you know. How incredibly stupid we were; but, anyways, what a tremendous experience if you think about it. Now, when we look back, it's like, "Oh, my gosh!"

Those are things that Father instilled in us when we were like thirteen, eleven years old, cause we had to go fishing in Alaska, salmon fishing. We were always complaining, because it's cold and wet there. So cold and so wet. There's bears around. We don't know what to do. We are from New York. I almost skateboarded from New York, and I'm ready to go salmon fishing. Put on rubber pants for the first time in my life. I mean, there's no place to skateboard up here. No skateboard parks here. Oh, my Lord have mercy! So, for like middle school, elementary school mostly, we had to go to these, you know, wild areas. Really wilderness areas. Where's that Chiniak? Chiniak? You had to ride a boat out. We had to fly a small little plane out there. There's nothing other than underbrush out there, and salmon and bear, okay; so, we had to go to places in elementary school and middle school. When I think about it, "Wow, Father really trained us to be wilderness, and we hated it, but we had to do it. We hated it. Absolutely hated it. Oh my gosh, we had an iPhone, iPad there, we would be just all day. They don't work there? Okay. They're in on it, okay. But, we hated going to these places when we were young. We would bitch and complain. We hated it. But now, when I think about it, it was the biggest blessing. Wow! It put seeds in me, which then, as I grew and matured, it just started boraging, and then I just kept falling in love with nature and wilderness so easy again. So easily, you know. But Father made us do that. He trained us that way; and, whether we like it or not, we went what? Once a year, or something like that? Father would go all the time. You had to be fanatic. He's not in the shopping malls, okay. He's loves being in the outback wilderness.

So, this has been a very interesting journey for myself as well, as you all know. I mean, you guys have been with us through the ups and downs in tribulation times, and all that; but, it's been an incredible thing, because we've been so blessed with Father's presence, and rediscovering falling in love with him and his culture, not trying to make our culture his culture. Following up with his culture, you know. Doing the fishing tournaments that's going to come up. Doing the hunting tournaments that's going to come up, you know. Being engaged in these things; and, of course, we're not all perfect, but increasing day by day in loving what he loves. This is very important. That's very important.

I'm very inspired with some of our young people like Marshall. This guy, he loves fishing. He's out there like chasing trout all the time, ice fishing. He's going to different lakes. That reminds me of Father's passion for fishing and some of that; so, he actually inspires me. I said, "Son, you go out there, and you go scout us some good place, and I'm going to take all the kids to go trout fishing," you know, because he's got such a passion for it; but, this kind of outdoors life is so important, you know, to love the outdoors, to love being in God's Creation, okay. That's why God, I think, is calling us. After we go to Switzerland, God is calling us to the wilderness. Cain and Abel will be going to the wilderness, folks. We're going to go into the deep wilderness for like four days after Shot Show; so, I will meet with Kook Jin Nim at Shot Show, and after Shot Show, we will disappear into the wilderness. You may never see us again. I'm just joking.

Okay, so this is a very interesting picture. The reason why I think this is an interesting picture is how you emotionally react to this. It shows you whether or not, you're in Father's culture or not. It is very clear. If you emotionally react to this, "Oh my gosh! This is very scary." You're not in Father's culture. You still have a long way to go, okay, because the Rod of Iron is of course, it's a tool. It's a tool that helps keep people safe. It also represents a lot of things, you know. Almost everybody that's into firearms, okay, is into some form of recreational outdoors hunting. High probability. High, high probability. They're highly likely to also to be involved in outdoor activities like fishing, hunting, okay. They're highly thinking about their safety. Many times, of course, they'll also be engaged in martial arts, which Father said, "All young people have to train in martial arts from when they're young;" and then of course, he wanted me to train them, because the Tong-Il Moo-Do is fake martial arts. It's not real fighting stuff; so, I was going to train them, all the kids worldwide, with Francisco; and, I'd bring my UFC guys and all those. You remember. I mean, already I was creating a Do-Jo in the main sanctuary in Korea, training the young people.

Anyways, the point is, if you have, I'm going to say, I was like most of you; especially ladies, you know, you ladies, when you see this, you're going to be scared, right? Especially if you are an Asian lady, you know. If you grew up around this in America, it may be different; but, if you grew up in Asia, you're going to be scared of this, because this is a completely different society than you can ever imagine. You've been told and taught that it is the guns that will create the danger, and the homicide, and the violence, and the killing, okay. That's what you've been taught. You've been taught that by your elementary school teachers, middle school teachers, high school teachers. You taught that by your media, your government, your school, your everything. Everything around you had taught you that; but, the reason its taught you that, because they don't allow you, the people, as sovereign Kings and Queens.

For example, and we had a wonderful, we were just talking with True Mother talking about her record sale of guns and all that; and, we were talking about, for example, the Royals around the world. Whether it's the British Royals, the European Royals, or the Thailand Royals, whatever. All of them have access to firearms. Every single one, right? All of them, when they go through the airport, they don't have to go through Customs and get sexually molested. They don't have to go through checkpoints when they're going through a town. Does that make sense? So, think about it. You been trained, if you came from Asia especially, you been trained to believe that there is the super class, and there's you; and, really, you can never be part of the super class. You just have to worship that super class; and, they will have control of the government. They will have control of the military, they will have control of the arms, they will have control of transportation, they will have control of education, all of that, and just have to conform and obey; and, you'll be a good citizen, right? Japan is highly into conformity, and so is Korea. Highly into conformity, okay, even though some of the young people have tried to, you know, express as a nonconformist by painting their hair purple; but, then they take on Communist ideologies, which just lets them conform right in. It's so ridiculous. Okay.

So, you been trained by Satan. You been trained by the Archangel; so, that's why, when you see this picture, you have an emotional reaction. I'm not blaming you. I was like that, too, because I grew up in New York; and, New York you're brainwashed, "Guns are bad. Guns are bad. Guns are bad." We thought, "Why are the elder brothers so much into guns? It's so crazy. We in New York. This ain't Texas." You see what I mean? "Chewing tobacco, and hip shooting from your hip. Bam! Bam, Bam!" You know, why are they so into guns, cause we're in New York, right? And so, we're pretty close to the city in Westchester County. People say we grew up in Tarrytown. I didn't grow up in Tarrytown. I grew up on a compound, that's where I grew up. You were not able to go out of the compound. I didn't know the streets of Tarrytown, you understand? We were not able to go into the different streets, okay. We were to stay on a certain property. We could not leave, okay; and, it was a lot of nature there. I played a lot in those forests, etc. but, honestly, in New York, the public schools, the schools and all that stuff, it's just so anti-gun; so, even without me knowing it, I received it as well.

So, I'm not saying that your mindset is because you did it yourself. No. You have to realize, people will have put it into you; and, who are those people. Are they people who actually want people to be free, to be Kings and Queens, and have their sovereignty, and have their private property that was defended from intrusion, and violent interruption? No, they're not. They're not those kinds of people. They want to control, they want to centrally plan. They believe, because they come from one of the elite institutions, that they can rule the world. They're complete narcissists; and, when you realize you been brainwashed and lied to by these narcissists, you can be free from them, you know.

But, this picture, you see, if you take the Father's perspective, think about the protective father's perspective, okay, not your normal emotion, but think from a very protective father, that wants to protect his kids and his grandchildren. A protective father will see that and say, "That's good. That's good." I want good men and women to have that many and more. The US has hundreds of million more than that, right; but, I want good men to have hundreds of millions of those, so that any wolf will be absolutely terrified to do evil.

See, if you look at it from a Father's perspective, the perspective changes completely, right; so, this is why Satan will attack the women, will attack women, because you have emotions that he can manipulate and pull, make you feel scared; but, you're scared, because you didn't train with these tools yet. You're not scared of a kitchen knife. You use that very well. I see you guys cooking. A man can't do that so well. We're not trained. Will cut our fingers off. "Oh, Lord!" Right? Once you get trained with these tools, which are just tools like a blender, okay, it's like a Vita-Mix green juice make machine, okay. It's a tool. Once you learn how to use that tool, and you have discipline, and you're very good at using that tool, women can immediately have the same amount of power as man.

Who saw the Queen's calendar out there? Did everybody see the Queen's calendar, the Peace Police/ Peace Militia. Wasn't that a beautiful calendar? Did you guys enjoy that? Did you see the one, the Peace Police/ Peace Militia calendar, where she's standing there in the trees with an AR? That's a scary picture, if you think about it. It's a scary picture, and she's not a poseur. She knows how to shoot that gun. She knows how to operate that gun. She needs more training; but, still, she knows how to operate it at the basic level, okay; but, that's a scary picture. Think about it. It's a scary picture for bad guys. Very scary, cause if the wife is that trained, dang, I don't want to meet the dang husband. You see that? If the wife is that trained in a house, or the girls are that trained in a house, I don't want to meet the boys. You know what I'm saying?

So again, Kook Jin Hyung talks about the time, and Father used to talk about this all the time. That's why he was hard on you sisters, and the ladies, because in the end, Satan knows you're the key. He knows you're the key. If he can get women to disarm themselves, he's got his pathway towards the Kingdom of Hell. If he could make women scared of these things, which are just tools, and you got complete control over it. You can drive cars. You can operate kitchen knives. You can run a blender. You can run a garbage disposal. You don't put your hand in there. You learn how to operate it right. You don't stick your finger in it when it's on, right? That's a dangerous blade spinning at a thousand miles an hour, whatever it is, a hundred miles an hour. You know how to operate those things. This is no different. It's just a different tool. All you have do is with practice and train people, and then you learn to have dominion over that.

Now, you have power over this tool. It no longer builds fear in you. It actually creates excitement. Meanwhile, maybe next week, I'll show you some of the professional shooters with care and tactical, amazing young ladies. They are tearing it up. They are shredding it up on the range. Incredible! We're going to be training you more, when it gets warm as well. We're going to have the Queen, and some of our young people, shredding it up in awesome, cinematography awesome, slow motion, and fast, and all that cool stuff, alright. The point is, it's not scary. The reason why it's scary is because it's unknown, cause you're not involved in it. Once you get involved in it, and start to learn how to operate it, it's just a little machine. Once you learn to operate, it's no longer scary. You now realize, oh, I have control over this, right. If you put it on the table, it's not gonna click its own safety off, and not going to start shooting everybody in the house. It's not gonna do that. It's an inanimate object. It's a piece of metal. It's a Rod of Iron; but, it has to be wielded. The Rod of Iron has to be wielded by somebody; and, if in the Kingdom, if the good people don't do it, the bad people will. That's what happened in every society. That's what happened in America; and, of course, that's how America almost got taken down with Hillary Clinton. Okay.

So, it's very important. So, I know, as we talk about the Rod of Iron every week, some of you feel it's like a culture shock. I understand, because it's almost like a culture shock for me too, when I first started getting back into guns, and stuff like that, and realizing how important they were, you know; and, really, training the new generation of kids. You know, all these young people, they weren't open to shooting in the beginning. A lot were brainwashed New York, New Jersey. They're brainwashed in different places. They don't know, but they're brainwashed, just like I was, you know; but, they started the real training, the real combat arts, and Oh, Wow! They started to break through that delusion, and they start doing more dangerous like Karambits, Silat, and you know, knife fighting arts, and Whoa! Really dangerous; and, we show them, the Clarks and other brothers and sisters bringing in the deer legs, and we cut the deer legs showing how much damage that happens; and, now they know. They're in control with a lot more power. So, now, the gun to them doesn't feel like this foreign crazy thing I could never handle. They're now close, because they're dealing with this lethal force training. They're dealing with lethal force training; so, then they realize, Oh, the gun is basically another layer of my defense training. That's it. In close quarter combat, a knife in some instances, is way more lethal than a gun in certain scenarios, right; whereas, in other scenarios, a gun is one hundred million times better, right?

So, how we react to this kind of picture is a sign of where we are at; so, if when you see this picture, and "Oh, gosh! That's scary." Now, you know you have to train. You have to practice. Now, you have to be aware of your mindset. You have to be aware of your internal spiritual state. You have to be aware of the different type of the different type of teachings and education you receive from the Archangel, who makes you feel scared about this; when really, you have, you're a daughter of God, you're a son of God. You have power over these tools. No problem. I guarantee it. My little baby girl of fifteen can operate this, okay. It's not hard. Not scary. Does that make sense?

So, we have to examine, when we see it's a good exercise, we examine yourself. What kind of emotions are coming up; and, then are those emotions put in by Satan, or put in by God, cause when Father saw our guns, when he showed Kook Jin Hyung gun, he was told to bring in manual research guns and the KAHR Arm guns during Hoon Dok Hae, as he did quite frequently. He's not scared of firearms. It doesn't build fear in Father's heart. True Mother Kang got the champion prize from selling long guns. They're air rifles, but long guns. Right?

So, we're trying to say where we got our training, where we got our brainwashing, okay; and, I'm just saying, in the Kingdom, the rule with the Rod of Iron, with the Coheirs with Christ, is the true way that the good people will be able to protect that nation with God, with God at the center. It's a way which the rule of the Rod of Iron. It's biblical, you can't get rid of it. It will always be there. It will never go away. The nations will be ruled with the Rod of Iron, but with the Coheirs with Christ; and, it doesn't mean, that everybody's shootin' up everybody. No! It's like Texas. It's like Pennsylvania, like Pike County. Nobody's shootin' up anybody here. If you shoot up somebody here, you're going to be in a military compacter, okay. It's going to be like a big fire fight, because everybody is so armed here.

So, when everybody's so armed, and everybody has the power to basically take each other's lives away, you not only value your life, you also have to be polite to other people, because you know you have the power, if you step over the wrong lines, to expire you; but, actually that's a very good thing. That helps people to be good. That helps people remember context, and not get delusional, and remember in the end, God is in control of our lives and our death. That's a very spiritual thing. See, when you're amongst people who can kill you, it's a very spiritual thing. You end up thinking about death. That's called thinking about mortality, right?

So, when young people, as they're young, they don't think about death, until the first person they love dies, right? Or, their mom dies, or their friend dies. Right then, they think about mortality, and they wake up, right? So, experiencing mortality, and thinking about mortality, "Oh, I'm in a place where people, if I behave in violent ways can kill me. You now have to behave different. Right? When, you're eating a salad at home, you gobble it down, but as soon as you're in a public place with a camera on you, everybody's eating salad so beautiful. Right? Everybody's got their little napkin, right? You eat different. You eat salads differently when you're on camera, right? I know. I know. We don't play around here.

So, of course this is the Left, and sometimes the NRA doesn't help them help them do that, but sometimes it slides. That's why the GOA whips them sometimes, and makes them stay on track; but, look at this. They're going after the normal hunter, right? This poor little hunter here. You got Obama and the Leftists, and all these federal agencies, they're on just a mountain of weapons. This is what you don't want to happen. This happens in Castro's regime, right? This happened in Pol Pot's regime, right? The happened in Mao Zedong's regime, right? North Korea, Communist North Korea Kim's regime, this happened under, right? This is what happens to the Rod of Iron when it's under the politicians and the government. This is what happens; and, they even start going after every single thing that could potentially stand against them. Right? They become the wolves. They may not have gone into politics with that intention, but they become wolves, because look at that power that they have? Nobody can challenge that. Think about that, right? Nobody can challenge it; and, that's why in God's Kingdom, it's not like the Kingdoms of the past. It is a Kingdom where good people will rule. They will rule with goodness, with Christ, with God, and freedom and responsibility. They'll rule with Christ as Coheirs in his Kingdom, rule with the Rod of Iron.

Some states in Cheon Il Guk may make it mandatory, that Congress shall pass a law making it mandatory, that every young man and woman is trained in the AR, in the Rod of Iron. That will not be against the law in Cheon Il Guk. Do you see that? But think about how different people would be if your trained from a young age and consequences. Honey, operate that gun safely, cause you'll see the consequences, okay. They see what happens if it goes off wrong.

So, now we're on Instagram, and let me show you my Instagram real quick. I just started Instagram yesterday; so, I don't know how to do it. I'm terrible at it. I'm just putting pictures up. It's like a dumbed down Facebook. I feel that's what it is. It's a dumbed down Facebook. A lower IQ Facebook; so, it basically just has pictures, something like that, right? Anyways, I don't know. I still learning how to use it. But, here: "Hyungjin Moon, Appoint successors and heir to King of Kings, Rev. Sun Myung Moon, 2nd King of CIG rodofironministries.com." But, look at that. I'm putting a lot of the photos with ARs up, okay. The Queen. This is the Original calligraphy of the Peace Police/ Peace Militia calligraphy. This is The King Mobile, okay, which we're testing out the other day. There we are walking on water in my camo outfit. I had to wear the camo when walking on water, okay. Alright.

The point is, this is also a journey for me folks, too; so, you're not alone. We're walking together. If you feel uncomfortable about those things, what is it, that picture we had of the US her, no, no. It's just because you're looking at it from the archangelic perspective, the fallen Eve perspective. If you look at it from Adam's perspective, and the Father's perspective, this is exactly and absolutely he wants his sons. If True Father looked at this nation, okay, in the future, all this will be my sons. Of course, he wants them to have that; so, they can defend the daughters, the wives, etc. And of course, the girls, the girls will also know how to do that, right. I found this very interesting. Why would you want to raise your daughter as a lady, when you could raise her to be a warrior? That doesn't mean that warriors can't be ladies, but I'm saying, ladies aren't necessarily warriors. Do you know what I mean? Warriors can be both. They can be a lady and a warrior; but, a lady doesn't necessarily say that she's a warrior. Do you see what I'm saying? You need training. You need to be around good honorable men to learn warrior culture, because men dominate in acts of combat; and, of course that's what you'll learn when you actually train martial arts that actually deal with real violence. You'll learn that men are dominant; but, then you'll come in contact with men that are good. Alphas, but they're good, and loving, and they don't want to hurt people; but, they're very tough. Right?

This is an education you don't get in the public schools, where 80-90% of the teacher until high school are women. That's severely handicapping the children, if you're only dealing with women until you're in high school as teachers. It shouldn't be that way. You should also have men teachers. You should also have, if it's egalitarian, it should be equal; but, a lot of young people are only trained with women. These are not just sovereignty women, okay. Most of the time, it's hard core, union, teacher's union, Communist ideology women; so, they're the Leftist women, which then are pumping the children with Leftist ideology, okay. Honorable woman, and strong women, who have strong husbands, they are strong warrior women. I mean, they teach their children the honorable way. They're different species really than the Leftist lunatic type women, who want to brainwash everybody, and make everybody in a controlled environment. Make everybody weak, so you listen to Teacher. "No, no, no, no, no honey. Don't do anything like that. Nothing that makes you powerful, okay. Just stay weak. Just stay in your little internet ghetto, give you a little identity, 53 genders, or whatever it is. You choose one of them, okay. Stay there. Stay in your little box." That's what they want. They don't want people, in these kinds of jeeps, roaming around with AR-15s on mountains and rivers. They don't want that. They don't want girls, who also now how to do this stuff, too. They don't want that, right? Okay.

This is the Queen sporting her AR with those cute boots. Look at that detail going on. Look at that detail on. She rocks in those cute boots. Okay. So, it's a totally different culture, right? It's a totally different culture; and, that's why it's important to have this conversation, because I don't want everybody to have a culture shock as we talk about these things, okay, because I been through like you, too. Maybe a little different, because I've been in combat arts for my whole life; but, the firearm gun community, I'm new into it; but, I feel it's just an extension of, you know, combat martial arts. It's just a straight extension, you know; so, I don't feel totally out of the water, or anything; but, I'm sure the people who did not do that, you may feel it's out of the water. You may feel it's a culture clash. That's why it's important to reflect on these things. You know, use our mind. Use our heart to reflect on these things. Think about the nature of our Father. Think about the nature of the protective God, Heavenly Father. Think about the nature of True Father. Think about the nature of him trying to raise his sons to be strong, etc; and, his daughters to be strong, etc, okay, as we study these Scriptures.

Now, let's go through this quickly, Matthew 6 here. Jesus talks about a few things in Matthew 6. He talks about, "alms." He's teaching us about cultural ethical behavior of how you have authority and power; but, yet you do things which represent, or are similar to God's nature. For example: When you give, you say, "Don't boast in your giving." You know what I mean? You know, this section here:

Matthew 6:1 Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. 2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. 3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: 4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

So, when you give alms, when you give to the poor, etc, don't sound a trumpet. Don't try to get media attention. Don't try and do that stuff. That's what the politicians do. Jesus is saying, don't try and be that kind of person. Don't be a fake. Don't do things for show. Don't be like, I'm such a good person, and I never give to charity. Well, you're a liar. You're not charitable. Do you see what I'm saying? And, of course, I'll show you a study right here.

"Conservatives are more generous than wealthy liberals," study shows, okay; because Conservatives are generally more religious, and they surrender themselves to a higher authority; and, so when God tells them to be generous, to be bold, help the poor, help the needy, etc, help the ministries, whatever, people do that, but they don't act like the Liberals. The Liberals do it, and they have a whole media show like Oprah, okay. She has a big show about it, and she has, "Oh," gives that person a makeover. "Woo," it makes the whole show, and everybody's crying, "Oh, you look so beautiful, Auntie," right, or whatever it is; but, it's for promotional value; and, then she's going to run for President, maybe, in 2020 trying to be worse than Hillary Clinton, okay. Anyways, that's a whole other issue. The point is, even when we give, and we trying to act out the principles that God gave us, God is saying. "Don't do it as a show. Make sure you're doing it in truth, with real heart. You're doing it to try and help that person, right. You're not doing it as a show. You're not doing it as a media stunt. You're doing it without any want for reward, right? Ever since I start ministry, I've been tithing to every single ministry I've ever been involved in, right. Every single one to this day; but, I don't tell or promote it. I don't tell everybody I'm tithing, right.

The Ministers in Korea were saying they were tithing; but, they were not tithing. They were taking that ten percent and putting it into a medical account for their families. That's not tithing, right. Normal congregants have all that stuff, and they're tithing as well; but, the Ministers were trying to lie about it saying, "Oh, we're tithing." They're completely deceiving, right, so we switched that around in Korea. We made them actually do they were say what they were doing, right, which is why they hated us, and wanted us out; but, God is telling us, "Look, even in simple things like how you behave, how you give to people, how you help people out, don't do it for accolades. Do it for the person, do it for the heart of God, do it because you want to be like God. Does that make sense? It sounds like a simple thing. We teach our kids; but, even when were adults, we have to hear it. Faith comes through hearing the Word of God, right? Strengthening our faith to remind us, because we get complacent, we forget to do simple things; but, God says, “Even when you give alms to help people, you don’t do it for the showoff factor, right?”

Matthew 6:5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. 6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

So, God is talking about these kinds of things. Even when you pray, He’s talking about the hypocrites, who are standing in the synagogues, you know, in the corner of the streets, (rocking back and forth.) “Oh, I’m praying to God. I’m so faithful.” He hates that. God hates that; but, how many people you see that in the streets? You see the religionists in the streets (bowing and mumbling to themselves like their praying) Literally, like that. Everybody’s going, “Oh, they’re so faithful. Look at them? Look at them, they’re so faithful, right?” They’re doing it as a show. God says, he hates that. He hates that. He said, Go. Look at this. He said, give your alms; help people in secret. Help people in secret. You know what He also says? Go to your closet. When you pray, go to your closet. (Matthew 6:6) You don’t have to pray in front of everybody. I mean, sometimes you do, you know, in communal prayer, stuff like that; but, when you’re praying to God, he said, “Go to your closet.” Have one on one time with me. Talk with me.

So, what kind of ethic is this building in people, right? It’s building this type of self-reflexivity. It’s building this kind of ability to do things not for show or for fake media value, but do it for real, you know what I mean? Do it because you have love in your heart, alright. Do it so you don’t get thumbs up and hearts on your Instagram, which they admit are there to give you dopamine feedback loops, which addict you, and make you stick to those social media networks, and spend more time there, which then they have more advertising time, more brainwashing time to get you. Okay. More Conservatives give more to charity than wealthy Liberals. This was when Romney and Obama were going; and, they explain here, how the states that voted for Romney give a lot more than the blue states, okay. (Rev. Hyungjin Moon is show two articles about this) Here’s some more of the actual breakdown here.

“Brooks’ research shown that Conservatives give thirty percent more than do Liberals. 30%. Thirty percent more than do Liberals. Even the Liberals say, They’re the ones who care more. They are the ones who care for the discrepancies in society. They are the ones. No, no, they want to use state power to force you to pay for the programs and get the credit of stealing your money. That’s what they want to do. They don’t want and personally go and help the poor person. They want to do that only for a media stunt. They want to do it through the Government; and, how the Government gets the funding for that is stealing your money, okay; and, so they go morally posturing. “Oh, we’re Liberals. We care for the poor. We care for the oppressed, and we care for the disenfranchised,” and of course, they don’t give to charity, because they think their charity is stealing through the Government. It's totally insane; but, of course, Conservatives give about 30% more. Even things, not only financial donations, look, blood donations, Conservatives are about 17% more likely than Liberals to donate blood. Conservatives will give their blood. Jesus gave his blood, right, more than Liberals will do, etc. In the federated states, where Bush got more than 60% of the majority, the average percentage of personal income donated to charity was 3.5. Residence of the blue states which gave Bush less than 40%, donated just 1.9%, okay, so 40% less than Conservatives, alright.

So, it's interesting, when you actually look at the statistics, Jesus is criticizing the very same people that statistics is criticizing, basically. He hates to moral posturers. He wants you to help people in secret. He wants you to help people without reward. He wants you to help people because it's the right thing to do, right? I mean, I'm giving these young people the training that they're getting. They would have paid at least $200 a month continuously to get this kind of training. It's very lethal training, right? I don't advertise all the time. I don't do that. I don't make videos of myself, right? I'm giving them things that I had to work for. Nobody can give me this. I had to get good at it, right? You know, they don't realize that, I mean, one of the young people living in Brooklyn was saying, "Man, these young people, they don't know. If they had to pay for this, they'd have to pay hundreds of dollars a month easy. Easy." You would be paying me hundreds. Each one of you would be paying hundreds of dollars; so, sometimes you're spoiled and selfish, but it's good that you realize you are. Then, you develop a sense of responsibility and thankfulness, which then help you understand, okay, you understand you also should help other people too, okay.

Matthew 6:7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. 8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

Even when you pray, Jesus said says, don't try and do these vain repetitions. Look at this. Don't do vain repetitions like the heathens do that will be heard when speaking. Look, many times, you know, it's not like you'd be perfect in this all the time. There are times when you have to pray in public. There are times when you have to pray in public, and you have to stand there in collective prayer. Jesus is saying do not do that. He's saying, don't be fake about it, right? Don't use these vain repetitions, and you'll see this in many different religions. You'll see almost like a showoff form of asceticism. These are certain Hindus and Yogis that are showing off many magical powers that they have. All they're doing is basic gymnastic Yoga. This doesn't make you holy, okay. It doesn't make you powerful. You cannot shoot, you know, heat rays from your eyes after you do this, which is unfortunately the reason why a lot of young people get into these occult arts, is because they want power, because they have no power; and because they have no power, they may never train to use power responsibly. They become envious of that power, and thirsty for that power, and they become evil and wicked; whereas, if young people are taught how to be responsible for power, they already have power, so they realize that actually power is very... can be dangerous in the wrong hands; but, if you are never trained in power, then you are thirsty for the power, and then you become like a vampire. You literally want that power. You crave it. You want it; but, you want a shortcut to it. You don't want the dirty work, or the hard work that's required to do that power; so, you want a shortcut to all that stuff to that power to feel high on yourself; then you're evil. You're totally evil at that point. Right?

These people are no more perfect than anyone else. They're also sinners before the eyes of God. They're not perfect at all. Because they do, you know, a special Yoga move, where they wear different mala beads and have dreads, that don't make you perfect. You are still a rotten sinner. Right? Just because you look like a clean Catholic Cardinal in a beautiful marble stateable, this is one of the biggest pedophile networks in the world. Cardinal Pell is now being sued by the Australian Government, and he's number two Deputy Pope. He's right on the Pope. He trafficked over 100 boys. They're raping little boys, okay; so, just because you parade around doesn't mean you're holy. You're a rotten sinner. I have images of Buddhist Monks here. That doesn't make you holy if you shave your head and wear a robe. You're still a dirty rotten sinner. Right? Even you're a Blessed child, you're still a sinner. You may not have Original sin, but you have a lot of sin in your life. You're a dirty rotten sinner; so, admitting that you're a sinner is the point in which you need God, and you can be free from your sin; but, it's these arrogant people that never want to admit that they can be sinful, and they never could admit that they did anything wrong. They destroy their life, they destroy their children's life. They end up becoming complete wackos; but, that's the power of the moral virtue of the Judeo-Christian culture. Everybody's reminded that we are sinners before God's Throne. You can dress as a Buddhist Monk, it doesn't matter. You can dress as a Sannyasin, it doesn't matter. You can do fancy Yoga poses, it doesn't matter. You're still a dirty rotten sinner. You can wear Cardinal robes and all that, it doesn't matter. You are still a dirty rotten sinner. So, don't be arrogant before God. People learn this humility which is so important before God, right?

Matthew 6:16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; 18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

God is talking about those things, even look at them who are fasting, another ascetic practice. He's talking about fasting. Don't fast showing off fasting, right? Look healthy when you're fasting. Don't walk around with a sunken face. "Oh, what's wrong with you honey?" "Oh, I'm fasting." "Oh, you're holy." "I know. I'm just so weak. You know, I'm fasting." How many people see people like this? They're such fakes. If your fasting, the Bible says, anoint your head with oil. Look even shinier, have more energy, so nobody notices you're fasting, cause God will notice you're fasting. See, He's hitting religious people. He's hitting the tricks that religious people use, and God is point them out. He's saying, "Don't do it, don't be like that." I want you to be real, okay.

Matthew 6:19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

Even when we're about the Rod of Iron, and we're using that for defense, we have to understand the heart and motivation behind why God will rule with a Rod of Iron. He's not doing that to be a tyrant. God's nature is not tyrannical. His nature is God is love; but, it's not a relativist type of love, where we accept, oh yes, come in my bed and rape me. No. No, no, no, no, okay. God is a just God; so, He will divide good and evil. He's not a relativist God, like the Family Fraud is always trying to paint Him to be. He's not a relativist God. There is good and evil in the world. He divides from good and evil. He separates from evil. The wicked get what they deserve, okay; but, when God rules His Kingdom, which is ruled also with His Coheirs, His children who are there, the Rod of Iron is not used for tyrannical purposes. The Rod of Iron is there to voice His motivation. I'm always telling these peace Ninjas, I'm telling them all the time, what is the motivation of your training? It's not to look badass; and, sometimes we'll produce videos to make them look cool, and stuff like that, because we know the general population of young people are brainwashed and dumbed down; so, they're only attracted to those things, so we have to attract them to those things, so that they can become higher level through you. Know what I'm saying? The end goal is not to make them braindead Hollywood lunatics. We may attract the younger people with the cool looking videos of the kids looking pretty tough, not so they can go on ego trips, but, so that young people who are brainwashed can connect with them, and then grow by being around mature people; so then, in some ways with media, and fighting with media and culture wars, you have to use Satan's techniques against him sometimes, right? So, I always remind them, they're gonna look pretty cool, when I shoot those videos. They're going to look pretty cool; but, trust me, I'm going to beat them over the head. This is not for your ego, you dumb bums, okay, even though you look pretty dang cool; but, it's not going be for their egos, okay.

So, with the Rod of Iron, the motivation behind is not to dominate using force. It's too have dominion of force, so evil cannot dominate with the use of force. Does that make sense? It's a totally different motivation. It's like Chief. He's going out there to fight the Commies. He had to go with that motivation. It's a heart of, you know, fighting for freedom, fighting for the people who are getting pillaged, plundered, and raped, and their babies being speared on spikes, right? What is the motivation. What is the culture behind that? The culture is not the worship of the Rod of Iron; the culture is the dominion of the Rod of Iron, so that the evil ones do not have control of it, right; but, it is a worship. We're not worshipping the Rod of Iron; where, worshipping God, who gives us the Rod of Iron, to use as an instrument of His peace, where criminals are scared to be bad, okay.

So, we're just blowing through this. Amazing! Matthew 6, the whole Chapter. When you have time, just read it slowly. Meditate on this incredible Scripture. When you look at it through the lens of the Kingdom and the Rod of Iron, it's such an amazing thing. The Scripture comes alive, because you can feel the powerful nature of Heavenly Father's love, but also His power. God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, love and a disciplined mind. That is our Father.

Matthew 6:20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: 21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. 22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. 23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! 24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. 25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? 26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? 27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? 28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: 29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? 31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? 32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

Now, in this last section, look what he's talking about? He's says, don't worry about what you eat, or what you're going to drink, or what you're going to put on your body, like clothes for the body. He spends like a couple different metaphors here. The fowls and the birds of the air, he talks about. He talks about Solomon, and even in all his glory was not arrayed, not even like these lilies in the field, or the grass of the field, which are clothed by God. He uses multiple metaphors to point out, Hey, don't be so infatuated or worry, worry, worry about, "Oh, my clothes, or my food, or my shelter." He even says in Luke 22, you have to sell your clothes on your back to get a sword. Your responsibility, to be a protector, is greater than your responsibility for yourself, to just be prosperous in yourself. Your responsibility is to protect others. Get that sword and protect others, even you have to sell your TJ Maxx down jacket, whatever, or whatever it is, you know. Even if you give up shopping, you have to get your Rod of Iron. Your responsibility, to be a protector, is greater than your responsibility to look good, or to eat this or that, or drink this or that. Isn't that interesting? It's not like God is condemning shopping. He's not saying, "Ladies, if you shop, you have sinned before the Throne of God;" otherwise, you're all in trouble, okay. You're all in trouble, but that's not what he's saying here. He's giving. He's saying, "Look, you concern yourself, but even the lilies doesn't worry about it, the grass doesn't worry about it, the birds don't worry about it, and then you connect that to what he told his disciples in Luke 22 talking about the raiment; because, this whole thing is about his raiment, about the clothing that everybody's valuing so much to put on their body, and Solomon arraying himself in these things, whatever. He says, "Sell it! Sell it!" Your responsibility to your neighbor, and to be a protectorate for other people, and your fellow disciples, my fellow brothers and sisters in Christ, this is a greater responsibility than those things that you commonly freak out about, or stress out about, right?

So, that's why it's very important to understand these things as we now move towards the Blessing of Life Registration in Revelation 21 Blessing, because now you can see why the Rod of Iron, an accoutrement, that is a symbol for Kings and Queens. You are no longer slaves, folks. You have to really come into Royalty Culture, okay. You are no longer slaves, okay. You don't think it's weird that Prince Charles has a gun. You don't think it's weird that the King of Thailand has a gun or has access. You think it's weird that Obama, Hillary Clinton, they can have bodyguards with ten million guns on them? You don't think that's weird; but, you think it's weird if you have to hold a gun. Maybe not you, you know what I mean? I'm speaking generally. That's ridiculous, because they're completely illegitimate; and, God's people, and God's lineage, connected to the Lord of the Second Advent is absolutely legitimate, you see. It's absolutely legitimate, and every other civilization that Satan has produced always leads to the same centralized power not the rule of the Rod of Iron. The rule of the Rod of Iron is a completely different civilization. That's why it's the Kingdom of God, and it's not in this constant seesawing action of democracy between the Left and the Right; and, we may lose them the next four years later, and we may gain them back, and we may lose them, and we may gain them back, this constant seesawing motion of anxiety. No! In the Kingdom of God, the Rod of Iron will never be taken away from people. Never be. It can't be voted away. It can't be voted by majority vote. No! It will always be the way God will rule His nation; and, justice, righteousness, goodness, peace, peace police/ peace militia, peace, where bad guys cannot flourish. High price for a bad guy. High price for being a bad buy in the Kingdom. You may lose your life if you try to mess with Grandma in the Kingdom. And, at the end of Chapter 6, we said:

Matthew 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. 34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Become a protector that God is calling you to be. Be someone that has dominion, a King and Queen, a dominion over the Crown and the Rod of Iron that stands in humility before God. Sell the garment and get the sword. (Luke 22) The sword is not made to cut hair. The sword is not made to do makeup. The sword is not made to cut cucumbers. The sword is not made to do agriculture and do farming. It's made to kill, you understand? It's a weapon, just like a gun is made to kill; but, that power of life and death must be in the hand of the good people. If it is not, it will always end up in the hands of the wicked.

Alright, last stand for Cheon Seong Gyeong. SOS, come on up.
