

2018.06.10 ~ Rod of Iron Kingdom 17 ~ Rev. Hyung Jin Sean Moon ~ Newfoundland, PA

Let's get to the Word today. I'm going to actually start with Cheon Seong Gyeong today, cause I want contextualize Father's Word real quick before we go into our Scripture, the biblical Scripture. Alright boys, pull that up. Gregg, can you run and get the Washington Times real quick. I'm sorry, the Post. I keep getting these two mixed up. The Washington Post.

Who saw the Washington Post magazine article, folks? Oh, my goodness. Did you see that? That's our arch-nemesis, do you understand? That's Satan. That's Satan having to bend it's knee, okay; and, it's crazy. It's absolutely crazy that the Washington Post, had literally been our arch-nemesis. The Washington Times arch-nemesis writing an article like that, but look, we know all their editing media games. We know all there cheating and lying. We know everytime there's a good comment, there's a good statement, they never put it in. They'll delete those things. They'll pull those, and there it is. The Washington Post magazine, folks. Get it at your news stand today.

So, the first three people, okay. I mean, it's nothing. The first three people to go to the book store, whatever, and take a picture, just take a picture with the Washington Post magazine at the book store, you'll get a special prize. We'll send you a special prize. The first three people who do it. Just send us the photos; and, we'll send you a special prize, okay.

But, this is out. That's out. And, as you can see, this whole magazine is basically dedicated to our community. It's like half the magazine is about us. You can see the real big picture right here. Look at these handsome young people. I think Sugi and Yeongi, they really went through a lot this semester; so, God gave them a gift. Two pages, two full pages in them. Dang! All you people who know, and were with Father in the early days in the US, etc, you know how crazy that is; but, look at that? That's the Washington Post. We got the Tishiro Shigaru there. Also, we got all those handsome. There's Bruce, and Kyle and Denton. Look at that? Look at all them? They look good, don't they? Another huge photo. Okay, Queen, come help me here. Isn't that nice?

And now look at these blurbs. You probably read the article. Everybody's probably read the article; but, look at these blurbs that they mad bigger here, you can see; so, these are the things they highlighted to give like a synopsis. This is a quote from me. "It's not about being a badass. It's about practicing being to be deadly because you love people," says Rev. Sean Moon. "The way of the Rod of Iron is the way of love." We love people. You are willing to defend people. Okay, the next page. And then, there some whole pictures here on the Ceremony on 2/28. Did they come here for that Ceremony? Did they come? They did come. This is their pictures here; and, we have the training down here. And, then we have The King's Report here; and, the young people training here. Look at all those young Ninjas training? Look at that? Very nice pictures. Can you guys see that? Can you see this? And, then there's another little blurb that they highlighted here; and, it says, "If the Kingdom comes in Sean's lifetime, he'll take the reigns as King of the United States; whereas, Justin will be Inspector General." Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha!

So, there you go folks. I mean, there you go. And then, of course, Kook Jin Hyung comes out with his beautiful leopard there. Here's a wonderful picture, and an excellent, excellent article, okay, the whole magazine. I mean, you'd think we printed this thing. This is the Washington Post, you understand, folks. And, there's Caroline. Where's Caroline? Is she here today? Okay, she's not here. And, there's Caroline, and of course, okay this is not a quote; but, "to be a devout Sanctuarian almost requires superhuman faith in the cleansing waters of catastrophe." This is not my quote. It's one of his. That's one of his statements. So, anyways, it has one of these, thank you beautiful host and attendant. Thank you.

Now, it has, obviously, it has some of the Washington Post jabs that they do, obviously, because they're playing to a Leftist lunatic Communist crowd; so, they're always going to jab us. But, they're always going to do that. You got to expect that, okay. But, the fact that they added almost positive stuff, that is what was so shocking, okay, and of course, they're quoted, "The Constitution of the United States of Cheon Il Guk is a powerful document." The Washington Post. The liberal lunatics and the Commies, even have to admit that the Cheon Il Guk...cause, they come here thinking that we're going to be like, you know, calling for like a Christian version of Sharia Law, or something like that.

You know, one guy, this week we had the French media here, the French documentary team, what is it? The French kind of like Life magazine, or something like that there. Paris Match. Paris Match. They're kind of like Life magazine over there; and, so they came to us to do an interview, plus a photo documentary taking tons of pictures, coming to our training, all that kind of stuff. They said, "Can you hold the golden AR like that?" (Hold it up in the air) I said, "No!" "No, I can't that's not appropriate, okay? That's not appropriate." But, they want to kind of sensationalize us like that, like to make us look like some kind of Jihadis, you know what I mean; but, when these intellectuals, many of these Journalist, they don't believe in God. They think its a joke. They believe in the primate monkey god, you know. Evolution. All that kind of stuff; so, they don't want to believe in a Judeo-Christian God; but, when they look at these intellectuals, "Look at the Cheon Il Guk Constitution?" They look at that and say, What?" It boggles their mind. It must boggle their mind, because somehow they're strangely attracted to it. They're strangely attracted to it.

"What? You mean to say there's freedom of the press there? There's freedom of speech, and freedom of religion there? What? Okay, there's this gun thing, where everybody can bear arms. Okay, fine; but, the soldiers can choose their leaders; and, the police can elect their Sheriffs. The local people can elect their Sheriffs; and, they have, Whoa!" Actually, the Leftist media, they love this. It's crazy. The Leftist media, at least some of these Journalists, maybe not all; but, some of them, they actually look at the Constitution, they thought, "Man, I thought they were going to bring in Sharia Law with Rev. Moon on top, or something like that." You know what I mean? But, the see something completely different. "Oh, what the..." It boggles their mind. Somehow, it scrabbles their mind; and, the Holy Ghost comes in, and they write a positive article. We don't pay them a cent. Look, you cannot get this kind of marketing for a hundred million dollars, folks. We could have paid them hundreds of millions of dollars; and, you would still never get this kind of publicity, okay.

So, it's unbelievable. It's absolutely the work of the Holy Ghost, True Father in Spirit World, and just in Heaven, moving all the pieces together. It's just absolutely incredible. Of course, as you saw, you saw history in the making folks. This week, Dr. Jerome Corsi was on with us on The King's Report. That is now, he's the Washington DC Editor-in-Chief for Info Wars; and, so now Info Wars is connected, is connected. We've been praying for Alex Jones. We've been praying for them. It's bigger than CNN. They're the biggest alternative media in the US; so, I mean, now Info Wars is connected, okay.

We don't want these folks, and of course, how many heard the Larry Pratt interview last week? Did everybody hear that? Wasn't that great? He was so wonderful. Mr. Larry Pratt is such an incredible John-the-Baptist. Wow! What a man. That goes out to twenty-five million people, potentially, on TCN and his network. So, we're talking about people are waking up.

This week, just to give you a heads up, all the young people, you all know this one. HBO is coming with VICE documentary, to do a documentary on us. VICE documentary with HBO is coming this week, okay; so, they're going to be with us literally all week; so, we got some of the young people, I think, the advance group, something like that.

So remember, if you see other kids in those documentaries, and it's getting millions of hits, don't be jealous. Don't be stupid and petty like that, okay. None of this fame that God is giving us, or God is bringing a lot of attention, this is not for anyone's glory, okay. This is for spreading the Gospel of the Kingdom, okay. God is setting us up, not so we can get ego trips and high on ourselves, but that we keep training, we keep true, right? We don't get changed by all this stuff, and we preach the Gospel. That's why, that's what the Bible says, right? Go unto the four corners of the Earth and preach the Gospel of the Kingdom, and so the end shall come.

So, when you see VICE documentary and all those kids training, and stuff like that, and you're not up there, do not be jealous. Just be proud. Be proud. Be proud, cause that's all of you are in there as well. You know, the noting we got with all the Crowns and the Rods of Iron all over that came? That's all of us. That's the Peace Police/ Peace Militia. That's the citizens, the Kings and Queens of Cheon Il Guk. Those are the ones who love God and love their neighbor, you understand? All of us, whenever any one of us gets a breakthrough, all of us gets a victory. We're not supposed to be petty, or thinking, "Ah, she got on HBO and I didn't. That arrogant bi-aitch. Ah."

Anyway, don't be petty like that. Do you understand what I'm saying? One victory for God's side is a victory for all, okay. So, you got to understand that elevated mindset. The Bible says, God's ways are higher than man's ways. We got to keep your mind elevated to His higher ways, and it's not about our fame. It's not about our glory, it's not about our becoming whatever, whatever. It's about spreading the Gospel, cause it's the True Liberation Theology, not the fake liberation theology of the Catholic Church and many Protestant Church's that got taken over by the federal Government teaching a Communist Jesus. This is the true Liberation Theology that actually does liberate slaves, and them into Kings and Queens.

So, this is the great love of God, the great Grace of God. This is the great Gospel of the Kingdom of God that of course comes, and we're living in it right now, folks. That's how exciting these times are. Hey, that's right. It's an exciting time to be alive. Crazy. Crazy time to be alive. But, not only that, cause it doesn't stop there. It crazy. God is just moving. It's nuts. It's insane, okay. I can only say, "God, let us be humble servants in the work that He's opening up, this dispensation that He's opening up. Let us continue to be faithful and true and train hard, etc. and just be ourselves." You know what I'm saying? Because not only is VICE HBO documentary coming this week, Denmark National Television is coming this week, too. That is the national television for Denmark, the nation of Denmark, do you understand? And so Denmark, and it's six million people, will also be seeing our community training, and how am I going to organize this? They stole all my inheritance, right? But God has a different plan, you understand? With God, all things are possible. We have nothing out here in the wilderness, and now the whole world is coming for the Cheon Il Guk Constitution.

Literally, Denmark is coming. They want to go into the Cheon Il Guk Constitution. They want to see the training. They wrote us an article, you know, while they're communicating with Regis here, and he read it to us, and it literally says like, you know, Denmark, the national movement in Denmark is growing. We want sovereignty. We want controlled borders. You know, there's a growing sentiment in our country like that; and, we want the right to bear arms, and stuff like that, so we think that it would be inspirational. They used inspirational, stuff like that, that kind of word? To get Pastor Sean's perspective on those kinds of things, and on the Kingdom of God. So, this is a national broadcasting for the nation of Denmark; and, like I said, this can't be done by human effort, folks. What are we going to do anyway? We live with the bears and the deer, do you understand? But, God is in control, and the whole world literally...

It's fascinating. When we talk to these Journalists, whether it's France, the Washington Post. I mean, these people, we absolutely almost one hundred percent can guarantee are hostile towards us. All religions in general, especially Christianity, especially evangelical type Christianity, okay. So, very hostile people; but, then we talk about the Constitution, and it's like, "What! Oh my goodness. I'd actually live there." You know, they think about what they're saying? "I'd actually want to live there." You know what I mean? So somehow, I don't know what God is doing, but He's doing great.

So, Denmark, they'll also be coming this week. They'll be with us, with VICE documentary through the book signing, you know, on Friday, etc. I think they'll be with us through Sunday, okay; so, you may see a whole bunch of camera crews running around here. Don't freak out. Just be yourself, you know what I mean; and, when you have a chance, hey, share the Gospel, folks. That's what we're supposed to do. Share the Gospel. Share the Kingdom of God. Share the rule of the Rod of Iron and the Crowns. Share it, right? That's the reason why God is sending those people here without them knowing about it. They're trying to do an ax-job on us like A&E.

Will be on A&E next week, Next week, June 19th. What is it, Tuesday? Tuesday. What is it, 10 o'clock did they say? 10 PM, they're going to be doing their segment on us. Their little ax-job on us; but, thank goodness, we of course released the documentary; but, it looks like they're planning a one hour piece on us; and, you know, they're probably going, I don't know. They're probably going to go to the Family Fed, and you know, whatever they're going to do. Disgruntled people, all this kind of stuff; so, get ready for that. It's coming up. It's coming up this week on A&E. Next week, I'm sorry. Tuesday at 10 PM, okay. 10 PM. That's on A&E. A&E, the big one. That's owned by Disney, okay. That's owned by Disney.

So, we know, they're very Leftist. They're very Political Satanists. They work with the Bilderberg Group. A lot of their chief executives go to the Bilderberg Group, which is of course just happened in Turin, Italy, where Journalists were being arrest for just covering it. Did you hear about this? The alternative media, young people, who were out there, you know, trying to talk to people. They got arrested. One guy got his hotel door kicked in. Did you hear this? Five cops, Boom! Burst through, and they just came through his door at 3:45 in the morning. Did you hear about this? That happened like two-three days ago.

So, this is how insane the Bilderberg group of course, everybody here should definitely know about that. That is the super-secretive meeting of the world's biggest people. most powerful, most affluent people in the world. You're talking about government leaders. You're talking about major monopolistic leaders. You're talking about the major central bankers. The monarchs of Europe. They all get together at what is known as the Bilderberg group. Every year, they change it around. Go to a different place. They have armed security. Medias not allowed to come in; and, they're actually breaking laws, because internationally, if you're a Head of State, you cannot meet another Head of State without media there. That's actually breaking the law; but, they don't care. They're above the law. This is the problem, and so, the alternative media has exposed them and show that they are completely above the law, tax exempt, you know, diplomatic immunity, you name it. They have it all, okay. And they're totally a different class of individuals on this planet. This is the Bilderberg group that's having this meeting; and, of course, now the Journalists that went there, they're clamping down on them, etc.

So, we see the world is such a crazy, insane place. Look at this? Look at this, folks, how fast things are moving. Kim Jong Un is now in Singapore, and President Trump is going to meet Kim Jong Un. Isn't that great? It's amazing. Now, there's a whole thing about that, whether President Trump has kind of lowered his standards to get this publicity, you know, etc. We'll have to see what happens; but, the fact of the matter is, President Trump is now on his way, and what did Trump do? You saw yesterday at the G7, again, that picture says it all. Look at the remnants of China, the UK? Look at these evil unelected bureaucrats of the Communist European Union who want to, you know, steal from people way out there, and just rule over the whole world. These people are really the Rothschild politician players. If they had race patches of who their sponsors were, they'd be like Rothschild's man, George Soros. They'd have all those patches on, you know.

YouTube 1:04:31 (Picture of President Trump with European leaders looking him with disdain.) Look at him here, President Trump, look at him? He's got that little smile on his face. It's like, "No, no. I said no." Look at them just looming over that table? That's so weird. She's (Merkel) like looming over. It's like, "Do you understand in what I say?" Did you see? She's like leaning over. It's like to bite his head off or something. It's like crazy. But, then you have Abe, and some of these other diplomats over on the other side; and, Trump is like, "Hey, why didn't you guys let Russia come to this? What's your problem, you know?" And Trudeau was pretending to be this nice guy, and as soon as he goes home, he's saying, "Trump is terrible. These tariffs are really getting to me;" and, Trump is just tearing him up on Twitter this morning. Tearing him up. He's just tearing up Canada's Justin Trudeau, that pretty boy, little, you know, sheek wanna be. Sheikh wanna be White boy from Canada. Give me a break. He's a total George Soros operative.

And so, these people are like, look them? This is the vestige of Post World War II banking super-cartel, you know. The criminal, crime corporate government, you know, power; and, Trump is saying, "No. No, no, no. No, no, we don't want to do that. No, I'm going to put tariffs on you guys. I'm going to put taxes on you guys. It's not fair that our products are being taxed. When we go in your country, were going to put taxes on your products, too.” They’re going, “How dare you do that? How dare you?” And he saying, “By the way, we should also invite Russia to this, so we can discuss things.” Oh my Lord.

They are freaking out. George Soros, look at that. Look at that on Drudge here. The top headline here. Was it here? George Soros says, “Everything that has gone wrong has gone wrong.” It’s a quote from George Soros. So, he is soiling his pants. Soros, “Everything has gone wrong,” when he’s talking about Trump, okay. So, President Trump is a wrecking ball sledge hammer against this New World Order globalist, you know, One World Government Communist network banking corporate government cartel above the law diplomatic immunity demon. That was said with one breath, okay.

So, it’s just an insane incredible, incredible time, folks. Things are moving so fast. Also, we got contacted by Conservatives. Now the Conservatives are getting interested; so, you see how the Leftist media has freaked out about, you know, the Rod of Iron, and they freaked out about the 2/28 event. And, they just freaked. And they are freaking out; and, these teams are coming, you know. They’re just spreading the Gospel further and further. Because the more they try to smear us, the more people can actually watch what we say; and, the more people actually watch what what we say, they say, “Hey, wait a minute. These people are not that wacky.”

If we’re wacky, then George Washington’s wacky. If we’re wacky, then Thomas Jefferson’s wacky, because we’re talking about Americans trying to understand the more deeper spiritual roots of the God given rights of the right to bear arms; and, we’re talking about that in a deep biblical way, which nobody can deny, and you can even hear it for yourself. All you have to do is just tune in. So, it’s just an incredible time. The more they try and smear, the more they try and divert and distract, the more eyeballs, the more minds, the more hearts can be opened by the power of the Gospel, which has true liberative power; and, when they see the Constitution, and actually see it, and read it for themselves, they can see how much actual power it has; and, of course, one of the great things, we have Science on our side. All the Science proves that free markets, you know, free association creates tremendous prosperity; but, it also proves, and history shows, that the younger generations that grow up in that become hedonistic, and becomes wicked and socialist, okay, which is the reason why, of course, the critical aspect of Cheon Il Guk culture is the Peace Police/ Peace Militia culture, where and which we develop an altruistic accountability honor based mindset to have accountability, not only for ourselves, but also in dire straights to put that life down for our neighbor. Do you see what I’m saying So, it’s not only just an antisocial message, it is a truly loved based Christian message upon which the Constitution is based, upon which all Peace Police/ Peace Militia training must undergo.

So, just insane. I diverted there. I digressed to that point, I guess, because we also got contacted by a major Conservative, Conservative documentary production team. Mr. Kevin Miller and his production team. He did major documentaries with Ben Stein. He did major documentaries. One of their big ones was called, “Hell Bound.” He talked to different Christian denominations, you know, about their views on Hell, etc. So, he is a Conservative guy; and, so he has contacted us, and they want to do a documentary as well. So, it doesn’t stop.

Oh, and by the way. They Washington Post’s just a keeps on a giving and giving. C-Span has contacted the author of the Washington Post, Tom Dunkel, and asked for a one hour in-depth interview on C-Span about yours truly and all of you folks, okay. So, it’s just moving so crazy.

Look at this. Why does this keep coming around? This is an important historical lesson, okay. Why does this kind of blessing come about, right? I mean, look at the Family Fraud who stole all the inheritance, Father didn't give them. They went after the money and the assets. They were dishonorable. They desecrated Father, etc. They thought the money was the real power. What happened? They just imploded. Financially, they're a disaster. Now, the Han Mother's invited, bringing back the Hoon Mo Cheongpyeong lady back to Cheongpyeong; and, now she's coming back with a vendetta to now murder, and do mayhem and blood-stab everybody now, who helped get her fired. So, now, literally, it's become Game of Thrones. Blood-bath, back-stabbing, you know, Caesar, Nero, you name it, which is going on there in the Family Fraud; and, that woman ain't no stupid woman. That Cheongpyeong lady burned once, learned once. What the heck is that saying? It's something like that. She's burned once; she's not going to be burned again; and, she knows, she know all these bozos who sold, you know, part of that cauter. Unfortunately, some of my siblings, who also went and got her kicked out of Cheongpyeong. Well now, the whole thing has tanked, and so, the Han Mother is now calling her back with a vendetta, a revenge-lust to come back and just destroy everybody; and, of course, she's not stupid. She'll not only destroy all those people who back-stabbed her; but, also the Han Mother herself.

But, this is what you get, folks. This is a problem. So, you certainly won't be surprised. I mean, none of us will be surprised, if she's trying to say, you know, she gains power again, she takes over Cheongpyeong and says, "Well, the Han Mother now has to be hospitalized, she's senile." They were trying to do that with Father for a long time, a long time, folks; but, it's very sad for the Han Mother to go down this path. That's why we begged her, and pleaded to her, and cried our eyeballs out every freaking day for six months, trying to beg her, "Please don't go this route, because it leads to destruction." Turning your back on Christ, seeking the pleasures of this world; and, so they enjoyed a little pleasure and luxury, and hundreds of millions of dollars for the last five years or so, now it's all dried up. Now, it's not coming in. And now, the blood-thirsty, blood-shot, vampiric-teeth, you know, spit-shooting Cheongpyeong lady, with acid in her blood, is coming back to clean house. It's just... You can't make this up, folks. You know what I'm saying?

And, we're out here, we got nothing. We come out to the wilderness. All we got is a bear poopy, singing the Cheon Il Guk National Anthem in the living room; and, within five years, God has spread the Gospel and the Crowns and the Rod of Irons to the whole world. The Family Fraud wish they got VICE documentary trying to get a documentary on them. They wished they got the Washington Post try and do a documentary on them. They wished they got Denmark National TV come and do a documentary. Alright, you get the point, okay. I mean, you know they would be paying. They would be paying, paying, paying for that. We didn't pay them one cent. They have to come by and see us. We don't even go to them. Do you know what I mean? They have to fly, and spend thousands of dollars for their teams, their production teams to get out here. They have to invest hundreds of thousands of dollar, potentially. We're not paying them a dime. Not a nickel. Not a penny. Not a half a penny. Not a quarter of a penny. Not nothing. All they get is water when they come here, okay. We don't want them to die, or something like that. You know, we'll hydrate you, okay. It's tap water, by the way, okay. It's no four hundred dollar French water or whatever. Himalayan water or something like that. It's tap water.

Okay, okay, okay. Alright folks. I'm sorry about that. I always digress too much. I'm sorry about that. You got to forgive the King, okay. I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I have such a playful personality. I just get distracted to easily, okay.

Alright, we're going to Cheon Seong Gyeong 137 here; and, this is, I mean, we're going to end with this, but, I wanted to show this in the beginning, because it's so beautiful. It's incredible, okay. Let's look at this together.

CSG 137

What is it that God regrets? It is that humanity inherited a false lineage; your inherited false blood. Satan is the origin of this. He always wants to create havoc with all things of Creation. You are connected to such a Universe. Such rights of ownership in such a lineage.

Now, Father here is talking about Satan, okay. The Fallen world and Satan; but, obviously, the converse, the flip side of that is, that's why we need the blood of Christ. Now, here it's amazing, because you know what I saw, the kind of vision that I saw when I read this Scripture? It's almost like how the Discovery Channel does like a program on genetics, or something like that, alright. And, then you'll have somebody, and the camera will zoom in like go in, and you go beyond the cell structure, and then the double spiral will come out. That's kind of what I saw. Yeah, the DNA and all of that, okay; because look, out of the incredible chaos and non-organization by the Word of God, the organizing structure of the Word of God, the organizing structure of God's Word, however it's worded, that organizes and shapes the Universe, it brings out of that disorder incredible order; and, it brings out, you know, of all that dismembered dislocated whatever, whatever it was, He brings architecture, He brings structure, He brings information, okay. The Power of His Word, it's so powerful.

Now look, Satan takes Adam and Eve and he infuses them with his blood; and, here Father's talking about blood, and how that's connected to havoc and destroying of God's orderly world, and orderly Creation, okay. So, it's almost as if we zoom in on the person, and see all the cells, the red blood cells, the hemoglobin, the DNA, the deoxyribonucleic acid, comes by the screen, and this is all information. The nature, the character, the instincts, the desires, the passion, the emotions, the will of the blood has impacts on you. So, for example, we know in Science that there's a bio-genetic reality to some people's predisposition towards alcoholism for example. You have alcoholism running in your family, or you have this kind of, you know, mental disorder, or something run in your family, what happens? That potential may get past the next generation, right? Now, that next generation, they didn't drink alcohol. They didn't drink one sip; but, they may be more exposed. That predisposition, that information, is past on. Isn't that crazy? That's nuts; but, it's true.

So, Science has confirmed that; but, think about it? If we have a Fallen lineage, Fallen blood, we have then what? The Bible say, "You are of your father the devil." (John 8:44) Right? Those who don't know Christ, you are of your father the devil; so, what happens? We actually get the instincts of the murderer. We get the instincts of the rapist. We get the instincts of the robber, which Satan was of course, right?

The Bible says, "he is as a roaring lion ready to steal, maim and destroy." (John 10:10, 1Peter 5:8) Right? So, we get that information, those predisposition, those instincts. Wow! In our actual blood. The blood is not just red stuff. It's actual information. It's like a computer program that has been past down through generations; and, it's just like disks or CDs that you rewrite and copy, and all this kind of stuff. The information gets weaker over time, yes; but, still that information gets past on. It can get reproduced.

So, in Satan's blood, you have all that information, you have all those tendencies, all those instinctual patterns, of thought, of will, of emotion, of jealousy, and all those kind of things. It's like you're downloading terrible, terrible information. Now, it doesn't mean that you'll never be able to find God, or anything; but, it already means that you have, what you have is this havoc, this blood of havoc, this blood of mayhem, this blood of disorderliness, this blood of, you know, destruction inside of you. Do you know what I'm saying? Do you see what I'm saying? So, your whole body, which is like a whole package, which is like a backpack, it's like a backpack, or a big sack, which is carrying all this incredible information. Trillions and trillions of cells has that information, which it's carrying around.

Now, this is a bad thing, because if we're carrying around this information, we're unaware of it, then of course, we're going to start sliding into those patterns, and become like our father the Devil, right? And that's why we need to separate from that blood, and we need to receive a true blood. We need to receive a real blood, which doesn't have, which is separated from all that downloaded havoc based destructive instinctual, you know, wicked history. History is really just the story that has been connected by information throughout time; and, so that becomes that becomes a living reality within our cells.

Now, that's why we need to become before Christ. That's why we need to repent of our sins. That's why we need to get before the altar and say, "Forgive me. Make me new." That's why we need to take the blood; so, that we could have a new blood, a new lineage, cause lineage is not only about, "Oh, I'm from this line, that line." It's actually information. It is powerful information; and, we need to have within us the instincts of God, the instincts of His nature, the instincts of His justice, His compassion, His love.

This is beautiful. William Lane Craig was debating some Muslim guy; and, it was a wonderful thing. He was saying, "The idea of the Muslim God is that He is not the greatest type of God, the most plausibly great type of God, being an all loving God; but, when we look at the God of Islam for example, it's not an all loving God. He only loves believers. He hates all unbelievers. He says to fight them. He says to, you know, literally go and violently fight them, you name it. It says, Allah hates, hates the unbeliever, hates the disbeliever, hates those, etc. Infidels, yes; or unbelievers; but, the Christian God is different. Even though He sees you in sin, and you Fall, and you willingly chosen to remove yourself from His Grace, and to even rebel against Him, and to be evil and wicked. God hates, obviously, the sins that you're creating; but, He loves people. He loves people.

So, that's why He commands the Christian to love their neighbor, to love people; and, that's the whole purpose of sharing the Gospel, or talking to people about Christ. It's because of love. We're not trying to convert them to some Church, some kind of religion, or stuff like that. We want to them to have a relationship with God. We actually care about their eternal life. We actually care about their soul. Where it's going to go. Whether or not it's going to be separated from God or not, okay. That's all based on love, okay; and, that's why we need Peace Police/ Peace Militia training. It has to be based on that. It can't be based on conquest. It can't be based on Sharia Law, and have to take over the whole world, and so we could have sex slavery, and you know, beat our wives. By the way, there's even whole videos on that by David Wood. It has to be based on love, on the love ethic of Jesus Christ – Love God/ Love your neighbor, okay; but, these are not mutually exclusive things. Jesus had an ethic of Love God/ Love your neighbor; but, he also said, buy a sword. He said, “sell your cloak/ buy a sword. (Luke 22:36) He also made a scourge. Which is a nine tail whip with thorns on it. Kind of like an assault whip. That’s what we call it. An assault whip. Jesus gave him an assault whipping. He gave the bankers an assault whipping, okay. But, look at this? All that blood is also tied to sovereignty, the rights of ownership. Not only is his blood information, and dispositions, and instincts and patterns that’s past on from Satan; or, conversely, we have God’s blood past on by God. The blood is past on by rights of ownership. Ownership, okay. Rights of sovereignty.

Now, in the Scripture we see, Satan is not the legitimate King. He does not have the legitimate Throne. He usurps the Throne; and, he tries and put himself above God. It says, I put my throne above God, (Isaiah 14:13) and of course, becomes the false King, the Prince of Darkness in the Earth. These are tied to ownership, folks. Ownership. God gave Adam and Eve the rights of ownership, when He infused in them His blood. They’re His children, the children with whom He will pass on the Kingdom, the entire world to have dominion over; so, not only is there information, there’s also ownership. This is such an incredible thing, when we understand, because we have to have as those in Christ, we have to have the confidence to understand that there’s an ownership that is running through our blood. That ownership has powers and rights of sovereignty; and, in the future, in the Kingdom, right, those are codified in the Constitution. The connection between our divine right, that is connected to our divine lineage, is our connection to God Almighty.

Now, only in the past, the Kings and Queens of the past enjoyed that divine right; but, in the Kingdom, the Kingdom’s people, the Kings and Queens of the Kingdom of God have those divine rights, okay. They’re coming from our connection to Christ, and coming from our ownership that we have when we are standing in the Royal Family, the Sovereignty, the Royal bloodline, the Royal house of God, okay.

Now, let’s keep that context as you move through today; and, were in Luke 7 today. We’re starting at Verse 22 to 28, okay. Zoom in on that boys. Let’s start at 22:

Luke 7:22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John (that’s John-the-Baptist) what things ye have seen and heard; how the blind see, the lame walk, the leapers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached. 23 And Blessed his he, who shall not be offended in me.

Now, you see right there, that where the Gospel is preached, not only to the poor, but the lame, the sick, etc, and there’s healing, there’s healing power that’s...

Who saw Time magazine’s new cover of President Trump with the Crown on? Did you see that? Did you see this photo? President Trump is looking in the mirror, okay. Obviously, they’re trying to mock him, that he’s some kind of unelected ruler, which he’s not, by the way. He’s elected. But, they have him looking in the mirror, and in the mirror there’s a Trump with a garment, and he’s got a crown on. But really, even I saw Alex Jones commenting about it. He even had to admit that Trump is really a King, not in an evil way, where he’s conquering people, and gets there illegally by force. He’s playing the kingly role in smashing the system of Satan, whether he realizes it or not. He’s smashing the system of Communism worldwide, which those decrepit, demonic unelected bureaucrats of the EU trying to place over humanity. Literally, the Anglo-Saxon allied with Chinese Communist, with the Vatican, and radical Islam over the world, because of the four horsemen of the Apocalypse, the four colors of the horsemen, which are all represented by the major power blocs Communist groups in the world, today. They're real. They actually exist; and, now they actually have to answer to the public, which is now growing.

So, there is healing wherever the Gospel is preached. There is healing, there is the lame, the blind can see, the lame can walk, etc. This is what happens, when people wake up to fact that authoritarian controlled, totalitarian controlled, big government, that government is not God, and government cannot solve problems. In fact, it worsens poverty; it worsens sickness; it worsens Medicare; it worsens everything it gets into, everything it gets into the government it under-performs and produces an inferior product to the people; and, of course, the people are the ones who suffer, especially when the government starts monopolizing, and then sharing with their crony friends, just like North Korea, and there's absolutely no growth. There's stultification. Stagnation. Society literally dies, okay; but, wherever freedom goes, wherever liberty and freedom goes, we know this even scientifically, whenever liberty and freedom goes, then there is the possibility for free markets, etc, there is prosperity. People find out these solutions just by free associating with each other. They start creating the solutions like the iPhone and the iPad and the computer, and this or that technology. They are the ones that create it.

But Blessed is he, who shall not be offended in me. Look at that? Wherever Christ's message goes, wherever his culture goes, wherever his Kingdom goes, wherever freedom and responsibility goes, we know that scientifically there's prosperity right there; and, people can see that. Trump is spreading this type of freedom and responsibility message, even though he's not necessarily doing it from the Gospel; but, he's pushing a freedom and responsibility message. Let's be free and responsible nations when dealing with one another. Let's support the rise of nationalism worldwide, so that there's freedom from these centralized bureaucracies like the EU in Soviet Brussels; and, let's get these nations trading and vibrant and successful, and you know, building their own systems of overcoming, you know, poverty, and all the crisis that they're facing.

We can help one another do that; but, we can't help that when there's this crazy medo-body, and there's this crazy governmental world structure that's always telling us and regulating us from other countries telling us what we can and cannot do. We cannot operate like that. So, whether or not he's preaching the Gospel or not, he's pushing a freedom and responsibility message, which is of course the gifts of God in the beginning, okay. And so, as he's pushing that, what's happening? What's happening? All those bureaucrats are offended. You see those EU people? They're offended by King Trump. King Trump shows up to the G7; and, he says, "No, no, no, no, no, no." He says, "No!" they say, "But, but, but, but, but..." He says, "No!" "But, but, but..." "NO!" And, they're offended.

"How dare you not support our system. How dare not support corporate government. How dare you not support big bankers ruling over your life." How dare you not being imploded and making you into a third world country that will rob you and rape you; and, then put you into warfare, further robbing and raping you, after you have to get out of the warfare, and then reconstruct. We're sick of that system. The world's privy to that system now. And, Trump is saying, "No. You are going to put terrorists on us. We're going to put terrorists on you. I'll still be nice, okay. I'll still give you a call; but, you got terrorists on us; we're going to put terrorists on you. You put taxes on us; will put taxes on you, okay." It's that simple.

So, they're offended that they have to be responsible. They're offended that he is pushing for their peoples to freedom, and kick them out. They are offended. See, this is where, wherever the Gospel's been preached, the true Gospel's preached, of course, the gifts of God, and freedom and responsibility that are given to humanity, when that Gospel's preached, they are so many that are offended by that, because the desires of the wicked, selfish innermost desires, to want to control and rule over people in a tyrannical way, they know that will be stultified, and that will be stopped. They know that it will become harder for them to tame that desire, which they have; and, thus they're offended. They almost have an existential crisis. It's almost like their taking away their fundamental identity and purpose in life to try and rule away like parasitic vampires over people, and tax reform them to death, while flying around with people like the Bilderberg groups, and partying, and having sex rituals, and having satanic Marina Abramović ceremonies.

I mean, this is literally what the elites are into, which is the reason why they hate, hate, hate the name of Jesus Christ, and they hate, hate, hate the name of his Christian Kingdom Kings and Queens. They hate it. They hate it the idea that you can believe that you're a sovereign. They hate the idea that you believe that you have Royalty and Royal blood. Holy Crash. Are you kidding me. That is something they just cannot accept. They're offended. They're offended by that power; and, you can see, it's amazing. As soon as we had the Washington Post plaster us up on there.

Look at this picture. (the picture of King Hyung Jin Nim holding the golden AR) It's even bigger. It's even bigger on their website, okay. On their website it's even bigger, like there's even a bigger sky. Here, there's just a picture, like a magazine picture; so, they actually had to crop the sky; but, look the one on the Internet? It's a huge, huge sky. They literally got the Second King up there, and I got my AR-15, and I'm standing over the world as the King of the Mountain, or something like that. That's how they painted it; and, then right after that, Time magazine publishes this article with President Trump with the crown on as the King of the world; and, we're teaching the same message, except of course, we're teaching the internal side of it over here. The real, internal biblical foundation to what President Trump's pushing on the world level. But, you can see it this whole time. It's amazing.

They used to call it Emperor Obama. Of course, we see it as Emperor Obama with his centralized government. They actually put President Trump up there in this almost like European Kingly, you know, robe. They didn't dress him up as like Genghis Khan. They could have done that. You know, dress him up like, you know they've done Hitler so many times, right? But they him in Royal vestments with a Kingly Crown; and, he literally came across like a Christian King. So, even the Left knows, somehow they know in their spirit man, they're getting the feeling that this King, this kind of powerful political figure, is changing their system, is an existential threat to their kingdom, and their sovereignty, and their grip over the world, their grip over humanity. They hate that. They hate it. They're freaking out.

So, it's absolutely incredible to see, let's go back to Scripture and all that. There you go. It's incredible. Now you see the Left, the top figures that fund the Left like George Soros of the Rothschild group, etc. the Vatican Pope, of course, is a false prophet. The Rothschild group as being the anti-Christ on the white horse with the crown and the bow and arrow. That is actually the Rothschild crest symbol. Incredible. Unbelievable. And, they of course, are the most wicked, evil “royal family” in the world cause they’re now married to the royal Kingdom, what is it? The English Kingdom, okay. So, they’re part of Britain’s royal family; so, they are a fake, false satanic royalty, and they are the most, what is it? A hundred trillion dollars? What is it. Anyways, they are the richest family in the world, okay. They are literally the King of this world, the Rothschild group. George Soros is in that group; and, of course, they’re symbolized by the crown and bow and arrow on the white horse. They represent the Anglo-Saxon bloc; and, then of course, right under them is the Vatican Pope, who is actually pushing the exact same Communist message, saying that European people should breed with Islamists. Are you kidding me. Lord have mercy.

So, you have this alliance between the white horse false prophet and the anti-Christ figure that brings in world governance. Of course, they’ve been doing this since the League of Nations after World War I. So, this plan has been in operation since World War I, folks; and, the Rothschild’s have been operating for as long as that as well.

So, we are in a tremendous compression of time; but, of course, we’re even just a short century impacts our nature of all of history up until now. It’s absolutely incredible. But, you see those who are evil, and those who stand on the side of Satanism, whether it be the red horse of China, and the organ harvesting of Galun Fong members and Christians who read the Bible. Just killing, and murder, and mayhem, and censorship, and control, and working with Mark Zuckerberg of Facebook just try and censor you. If you’re in China, you can’t go visit the sites you want. You can’t listen to the broadcast you want. You must listen to CCTV, and Chinese Xi Jinping Emperor approved content that is not free. That is not free, folks; and, of course, they have the largest there the red horse of war. They have the largest now purchasing wise. Before President Trump, under President Obama, they were getting bigger than the US military. The Chinese military.

Then, of course, you have the black ops. The black horse that holds the scale of justice, to pretend that they’re just, and they’re fighting for justice; but, of course, they’re killing people, taking down countries, running the drug trade. That is the CIA black ops running with MI6. All those Western black ops, you know, shadow government, unelected bureaucrats that rule these nations like the CIA, and Deep State here. There you go. You have the black horse, with the fake scales of justice, pretending that they’re fighting for justice. They’re one of the biggest criminal mobs on this planet. Absolutely dangerous black horse. They’re extremely dangerous. They’re the assassin group; and, that’s why they want the whole world to try and demonize us, and to make us look crazy, so they can come and kill us. Do you understand? So, there’s a reason why it’s important that we network, and we spread far and wide in terms of networking, and making sure were connecting with Info Wars, and Jerome Corsi, and you know, etc; and, all these folks in the gun community, and the NRA. Why? Because, when we stand together, they can’t isolate you, and hang you separate. You either hang together, or hang separate.

That’s why it’s so important for us to get out there. That’s why in another couple of weeks I got to go down to Florida; and, we’re doing another rally to get Sheriff Israel fired; and, if you guys have time, come down there with us. We’re going to demonstrate in front of the Police department there, and get that fool fired, who was negligent in the Parkland School shooting. It didn’t stop the school shooting.

He knew, they knew about him. They visited him 39 times, and they didn't get him, even though he broke federal law saying he was going to shoot up a school.

We're going to go down and demonstrate with Mr. Mark Robertson. Whoo! Oh man, he's the Black Rambo. He said he liked Rambo. We said, "You're the Black Rambo." But, he's going to be coming down. He said he giving the keynote speech; so, if you have time, if you have time on June 30, come down to Florida. Come join us there. We're going to be on the streets, on the streets protesting to get Sheriff Israel fired. That totalitarian Hillary supporter, evil wicked Communist, who did not save the lives of 17 children and teachers. They had to die, because the stupid Nicholas Cruz was not being reported and arrested, because they wanted federal government money in their stupid program to steal the money by reporting low crime rates; so, they're total frauds, total fraud; and, that guy had been exposed already. Two sheriff deputies under him have died mysteriously. They've died. The one that opposed him, two guys, and a cop and a sheriff's deputy have already been, a lot of people say have been murdered. We don't know; but, they have died.

So, this guys a total totalitarian; and, we'll be heading down there on 6/30. Special forces guys will be coming out, too, in that Florida community in Broward County, and Mark Robertson, and different guys in that area, and patriots come out; and, we will be peacefully protesting to have that fool be fired. So, if you have time, June 30, and about that time, come on down and join the demonstration down there, okay.

The point is God has me going this year, I feel so sorry for all you folks that are here in Newfoundland. Man, I don't get to hardly even see you now, cause I'm on a freaking plane every week. it feels like. I don't know what country I'm in, I don't know where I'm at right now. If feels like, it's just ridiculous. And what's that? So, we got Florida, and right after that we got to go to Colorado, because there's a big, big, big barbecue with TIG and Benghazi heroes, and all those guys are coming there, and they invited us so graciously with Kook Jin Hyung, of course, and myself; so, we're going out to meet all those guys there. Hopefully get a good testimony for the book, etc, from TIG.

Anyways, the point is, it's just crazy; but, it's absolutely important. It's critical, because there are seriously dangerous assassin-type individuals and leaders in the black ops shadow side of the CIA and FBI. Very dangerous people, who are vestiges of the liberal lunacy of Obama; and, they are criminals. They have committed so many crimes internally, etc. That's why they don't want to be held accountable, etc; and, they obviously always want scapegoats.

So, we are the only Christian Church that is out there preaching the Gospel, and preaching the true empowerment of good people to be able to defend their civilization, to be able to defend their culture, and their homes, and their families, from wickedness, and not being slaves, and openly vulnerable to predators, and wolves and lions, and who want to come in and demolish you. We're the only ones that are not only talking about the founding fathers and Constitution, we're talking about the biblical, the biblical Kingdom of God; and, that is fearful, because the Leftist lunatics know that when they hear this, look how they're panicking? They're panicking. Hence, all this hundreds of millions of dollars of publicity they're giving us, okay.

The point is, this ain't no game folks. Do you understand? This is not a game. When they're talking about a revolution that's happening in the hearts and minds of man, the brushfires that we're setting off in the hearts and minds of men, people, really understand the roots, the roots of where the right to bear arms come from, and they connect that with God, even tighter, stronger, they will appreciate the founding fathers more. They connect that with God even stronger with the biblical knowledge, they will even connect their love for Christ more, and feel his fatherly love upon them, that he wants them to be protected, and he wants them to be able to stand strong, and be victorious amongst all the wickedness that we see in Revelation in Chapter 20:7, and that the war between Gog and Magog after a thousand years, when they gather together as many as the sands of the sea, that will be the same DNA, the same spirit that will pass on through time, who will have to face wickedness directly in the one of the biggest wars that we will see in the future; and, that comes a thousand years after Christ's Kingdom has begun.

So, that spirit is there in the beginning because of the Constitution. It's there in the beginning because of the biblical foundation. It's there in the beginning because of the Lord of the Second Advent, right? And all the connection, all the Kings and Queens in the Kingdom of God connected to the Lord of the Second Advent, connected to him, having the real blood separated from Satan, separated from the Devil's instincts, the Devil's wickedness, the Devil's desire to create totalitarianism and Communism and Socialism and Political Satanism. Separated. Even the Washington Post had to give credit that the Cheon Il Guk Constitution comes from the Reverend Sun Myung Moon, the True Father, the King of Kings, the Lord of Lords, the Lord of the Second Advent. It comes from all his teachings solidified in a political document that brings freedom and sovereignty and accountability and Kingship to the world, unlike any religious document that you ever seen in your life. That's why they're fascinated by it, you know. They're like, Holy Crash! Dang, this is nuts.

But, again, wherever the Gospel's preached, they're offended by those that are offended. Let's zoom in her on Luke:

Luke 7:24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, (this is Jesus speaking) What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? 25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously appareled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. 26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

Remember Father said, if Christianity accepted the Lord within seven years, the world could be restored. Anyway, the point is, in a very short period of time, if Christianity could stand with True Father, the world would fundamentally be changed. Be transformed, okay.

Now, we see the power of the Holy Ghost, the power of True Father in Heaven, the power of True Mother, which just got back from her long trip from Dallas, and she's in great spirits, but obviously a little exhausted. She's 92 years old; so, everybody, I think, everybody understands.

But, the point is, all that victory coalescing spiritual miracles happening, and then of course, the 2/28 event, all this worldwide publicity; and, guess what? Not only is the Leftist lunatics freaking out; but, Political Satanists are freaking out. The Christians, the Christians, the Conservative leaders of the gun community in the Christian world. Mr. Larry Pratt, Mr. Larry Pratt, a true John-the-Baptist figure, he is literally the King of the gun lobby world, folks. You understand that? He is literally the King; and, he is standing up now. He had us on with him on his TCN program; but, gives the endorsement to the book, "The Rod of Iron Kingdom" that comes out says, "that is an excellent work." Excellent work. I can't remember the exact quote; but, he uses the word, "excellent." Can you read that Richard? Can you pull that up real quick for me?

The point is, these John-the-Baptist figures are starting to appear to stand and support and work with Father's Kingship; so, without Trump even knowing, the Trump meeting is getting closer and closer and closer, obviously, cause remember how everybody was praying for Info Wars? You remember how are Korean and Japanese brothers and sisters were praying for Info Wars, for Alex Jones, because he kept on running from us? He kept on running from, you know, Cain and Abel. He kept on running from Father's Kingship. He kept on running. He didn't want to cover us; but, by the hand of God, all that publicity, all those kind of things, but still he didn't want to cover us, which is crazy because we would totally praised them. We would thank them for all the work they've been doing. I mean, it's like nuts; but, still, they still got this thing on their mind, or whatever this thing may be, and they just running, running, running; and, so that's last week, okay.

So, this is Larry Pratt's testimony. He says, "an excellent apologetic for the Second Amendment. A handbook for dealing with some of the big mistakes people make when talking about the Second Amendment, self-defense, and limited power of government. I would urge people to get a copy." Larry Pratt, Executive Director Emeritus, Gunowners Of America.

Can you imagine if we had that kind of thing on Father's autobiography? You know, and he's a serious evangelical Christian. How many were surprised when they've seen Dr. Corsi's interview? He's so Christian. Belief is powerful. He would say, "the demons..." He was really going after them. You saw that guy with Alex Jones; but, now Info Wars, and those people we're praying for, who are like the King of the alternative media, etc, they're now connecting us. Info Wars is now officially connected to us, because now not only are we doing it to them with them. Their DC Bureau Chief is going to be on the show, again. He's been on this past week, etc, and now our relationship is growing; so, we couldn't do this alone. We couldn't do this alone, although Lourdes is working super, super hard; but, the Holy Ghost is putting all these things together, so that God can move his Providence forward; and, look, these are John-the-Baptist figures that you're seeing. You're seeing them live, live-time with your own eyeballs. He's starting to connect with us. How can you explain all this insanity? How can you explain all these pieces coming together without the hand of God, and the power of the Holy Ghost that is moving at this time? So, we see that this John-the-Baptist figures are so critical. So critical; but, watch, look what Christ says:

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

You see John-the-Baptist evangelical Christians now standing with True Father's Kingship, even though we have nothing, and even though we don't have all that foundation that they stolen, still the foundation of heart that True Father made, and investment that he made, has made an indelible mark on their spirit, and they can still feel the remnant, and the continuation of that work and that power here in the Three Kingships, and they're connecting to it once again; and, he said, I talk to your Mom. I'll try and get the Washington Times back. And he said, "Well, if we don't get it back, we could just start a new one," or something like that. But, anyway, the point is all these incredible John-the-Baptist figures are coming, and they're able to testify, and stand with us in agreement about the biblical foundation.

Look folks, you know how important this topic is for Christianity? The Kingdom of God, and what it will look like, according to Christ, according to Scripture. We're the only one's who are talking about the Kingdom, and how it will look like, and how its defined in the Scripture, and all those uncomfortable passages that these Socialist Christian Churches never touch with the Rod of Iron. We're the only ones touching and talking about it; and, in the Christian community, it's standing with us, and joining with us. It's saying things like Larry Pratt is saying in his endorsing this kind of work.

So, it's absolutely incredible; but, look what happens?

Luke 7:28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

Right? Why? Because he who is least in the Kingdom is a King. That's easy to understand. That he who is least in the Kingdom is a King. He's greater than even John-the-Baptist, cause he's Christian centered, he's connected and will defend the Constitution to love God and love his neighbor, and he's a King. So, he's not only a citizen, he is a King. The least in the Kingdom is also a King, and has the kingly rights; and, that's also in our Kingdom, we have to get over this. We've got to get over this guilt/shaming that Satan's Kingdom does to us, when we say King Lowell, or King Pierre, or King Jim. We got to stop feeling, "Oh, that's kind of weird. Oh, yeah! Nah, nah!" You know what I mean?

We got to get over this thing that makes us feel weird. It's got to be normal and natural. It's got to be normal and natural that we understand; and, look, I'm going to tell you something, folks. Just as I learn it, too, if you don't stand up for your royalty, nobody's going to stand up for your royalty. Do you understand? If you do not stand up and believe yourself, because God says so, nobody is going to do it for you; and, I got everybody, and I had this talk with the kids, too. I said, "Hey, you guys have to help me establish the Kingship, too." You know, because the kids want to come in, and you know, Hyung Jin Nim, they already..." They just want to go in. I said, "Look, I'm the Second King, okay; so, I'm not trying to get on a high-horse and I get on an ego trip. I want you to be a King, too; but, we have to get over this whole guilt/shaming about thinking this is weird about calling each other King and Queen, especially we're Blessed Central Families." You know what I'm saying? We have to get over this, because this is, of course, a stultifying factor of stagnation that Satan is putting upon us, a remnant of his control.

To truly be free, you cannot be a servant of servant to a monarchy or King. You have to stand as a sovereign King yourself that stands together collectively with the King of Kings, and his Constitution, and his nature to love God and love your neighbor; and, there's peace on Earth, folks. But, we have to get over these stupid feelings of guilt/ shaming, and people trying to make us feel weird. No, it's got to be natural. Either we as a community think it's weird, and have a hard time accepting Kingship, and our connection to the King of Kings, or we be real about it, and actually believe what we say, and actually believe what we're professing, and make it part of our culture, so to us it's not weird. You know, Queen Hiromi, or King Lowell, or Queen Adelaide. Do you know what I'm saying?

That it's not weird to us; but, you see the problem is, we're still behind, where the Holy Ghost and Father's leading us, even though he's showing us his Kingdom; and, he's showing us his Constitution, and he's showing us the Scriptures and all that; but, still lagging behind twenty years. As Father said, "You're always twenty years behind me." So, I'm here to encourage you, and put a little fire under you, a little Holy Ghost fire under you, and say, We got to get over this. We got to get over this type of guilt/ shame that we feel from the residue of being under Satan's control, and under archangelic control. Amen.

Alright. Okay. Alright, that's my spiel. But, the point is, even the least in the Kingdom is grief. Why? Because think about it folks: Yes, it's important that the John-the-Baptist figures in the world stand with us, and stand strong, what are they doing, God is allowing them to use their platforms to spread His Gospel. It's not for our glory. It's not for our enrichment. It's not for our entertainment. It's for the Gospel. The Gospel needs to be preached, because it's the true liberating Gospel. The true liberating Gospel. It finally allows the normal people to never be preyed upon again by wickedness and evil governments, and centralized powers, and mafias, and groups, and assassins, etc. It finally, finally the land and the Kingdom, where good people can be free from the evil that has ruled over their ancestors for millions of years. Hundreds of thousands of biblical years, let say, biblical years.

So, it is a tremendous thing; and, my point is, all those John-the-Baptist can come. They have to play a very important role. God's still uses them to get that platform, and then spread the Gospel of the Kingdom; but, in the end, it takes people of faith, and conviction, and no guilt/ shaming that we feel from Satan's residue, or chains that we still have, and we accept Kingship. You know uncomfortable it is for me, for everybody to be calling me King the first time? I was still feeling weird. That was my fault. Do you understand? So, when you call King Lowell, or King John, or whatever it is when you say those things to encourage one another. Obviously, we not doing this so everybody gets a big head, and thinks they rule as, you know, a totalitarian tyrant. No, of course not. We're doing it to strengthen one another, to understand a proper identity in Christ, and to understand our true connection to God, and His blood, His royalty.

So, look, I get it. I get it. I get it's uncomfortable. When we have to, we try and lift each other up like that, cause we're humble people, and we don't want to go on ego trips, and repentful, and we're reflective; and, we don't want ourselves to be taken over by Satan, and by temptation sin; but, at the same time, there's a balance that we have to strike with the actual identity God gives us, and we have to accept that identity; otherwise, we'll actually be sinning against the inheritance that God has actually given us. Do you see what I'm saying? So, the point is, I went through it, too; and, now you all got to go through it, too. Okay. You got to get over this. Seriously.

And one other thing, I'm going to tell you this. When it becomes such a natural thing, and our Sanctuary family in our Sanctuary community, and we see one another and we say, "Hey, King Allen.

How are you doing?” When that becomes a natural part of our culture, you will see so many evangelicals, you will see so many Christians who just come and touch our culture, just come one time and touch and meet our families, and see how we interact, and see this new culture, see this new heavenly culture we have about us, they’ll say, “Oh, my goodness! What is this?” And they will not only be attracted, they will come into the Kingdom of God. You will see that kind of moving of the Holy Ghost; but again, we have a responsibility. Many times it’s our impediments, it’s our guilt/ shame, and it’s all our little crazy wackiness inside that is blocking the move of the Holy Ghost. Amen!

So, we got to get over this as a community. God put this heavy on my heart this morning. We got to get over this as a community. We got to stop feeling weird, when we call each other King and Queen. We got to stop feeling weird about that; and, trust me, the more we do it, we do this thing for six months, and just becomes part of our culture, we’ll act as this thing is normal, totally normal. You know what I mean? But, we have to get over this; otherwise, the world will never understand their true identity. We’re the pioneers. We’re the ones who need to get through all the satanic baggage and crap that is laced on to us by all these chains, spiritual chains all the way from our ancestry God has separated; but, those chains and grappling hooks keep coming back and hooking on to our pants and our shirt and the back of our neck, and we have to keep cutting those off, until were in the complete powerful culture of Christ and his Kingdom. Amen!

Alright? So, we’re going to be doing that. No, we’re not perfect, and we’re not, you know, we’re not flawless. Sometimes we’ll slip, and sometimes we’ll say, you know, but think about it, I’m not saying this has to be done, I’m not saying we’re going to give you two hundred push-ups if you don’t do it, alright; but, I’m just saying, I’m trying to speak to your conscience here, okay. Just like I did, you guys saw it, you guys saw me walk through that whole course either here, or on Internet TV, okay; and, it was a real story, too. Okay, but you see how I had to step into, how I had to step into my anointing. I had to step my faith. I had to accept I am the Second King, I don’t care what anybody said. I will be it. I had to proclaim it, I had to do it. I had to do it. It’s not like I was on an ego trip or anything, it’s Father who delineated that with his Three Kingships.

So, I don’t stand up for it, nobody’s going to stand up for it. If I feel wacky about it, then everybody’s going to feel wacky about it. If our community feels wacky about the fact that all of you honorable people, and stood for the King of Kings, stood for his Kingdom, stood up for his Kingship when everything was against you, losing everything and all your friends, and all your popularity, all that. You had to lose it all; but, if you do not even actualize what God has given us, then the world will certainly not. It will never do, because they only follow where real power is, where real confidence is; and, in the end, that’s why it’s connected to our faith, and our own identity in Christ.

So, we got to get over this. We got to get over these feelings. We got to get over this wackiness that’s in there. Do you know what I’m saying? And we got to truly believe, truly understand that we are no longer slaves. We are Royalty. We have Kingship. The UK King, and all those kings of the satanic world, they’re not legitimate. The real Kings and Queens are right here on God’s authority, and under the Kingdom of Christ. This is the real Kingdom right here; and, it’s a very important task. I know, it’s a real battle; but, hey, I had to go through it, too. I still go through it sometime, but hey, I know you’re all going through it, too. I understand; but, that’s how God’s putting us through the fire, so that He can pull out the distomos micada, and split Satan's head off, or his kingdoms out, okay. Alright! Too much ranting for me this morning, okay.

So, let me give you just a brief reporting real quick. Oh, man, I want to show this. Okay, just so a little bit of this. Just a little bit. Go ahead, just show a little bit of this. Go ahead:

YouTube 2:04:47 to 2:08:15

Italy is now being freed. Go ahead, keep playing this, and will talk over this. Italy is now being freed, folks. They're now voting for a nationalist government that is now strengthening the Italian character. Of course, they're standing inline with President Trump and sovereignty. Trump is like in that way, he's like become like the world President, the world King, where he receiving all those poison arrows to himself; but, he's saying, leaders of the world, hurry up, and stand up; otherwise, we're all going to be killed by this crazy banking cartel. You got stand up against them; and, this is now in Italy. This is the main guy here, who is now voted in; and, like President Trump, they literally say, "Make Italy Great Again." That's literally what their saying. That's what their saying in Italy, folks. They're separating from the Communist EU and global government; and, there's a revolution that is spreading, and Italy is one of the big ones, big ones. It's a really big one.

And think about it, they got the Vatican Pope perched on top of them in his White Throne cackling like a Jay bird. You know, climate change, pray with the Muslims. You know, the Vatican's perched on Italy; but, Italians are not listening. They're not listening to Papa Francis, you know, false prophet, anti-Christ. They're not listening to that fool. They are listening to the conscience and the Word of God that is inside their hearts that screams to be free, and to have responsibility and accountability, and to protect your culture. So, there you go. Italy is now in a national revolution; and, "Make Italy Great Again" is coming. Praise God!

You see the work of God, the work of God. There is a huge spiritual battle, folks, that is going on right now as we speak. It is a battle, not against flesh and blood, but against principality that powers and rules the darkness of this world, and the spiritual and wickedness in high places. Now people can see, they can see. Those who were blind, they can now see. They thought we were week, we were sleeping; but, now we are up; and, they can see, people can see; and, it's interesting how people are now tying this whole Movement, this new refreshing. They've now seen what happens to democracy. They almost lost it, folks. Europe almost lost democracy. Seriously, the US almost lost democracy, lost freedom under Hillary Clinton. We nearly lost it. We almost lost it. We were this close to losing it.

So, people now know that their system can be taken over again; and, top analysts say, that within the next ten to twenty years, it's almost guaranteed that there's going to be civil war all across Europe and the United States; but, the point is, people can feel that their system has betrayed them, and their system has been taken over from the inside, and they know that something else has to come. Some change has to come that will help their system, help their governance protect itself from the same traps, and the same tribulations that they had just encountered right now, as they saw freedom slipping from their hands, literally. And, they're fighting back; but, they're not, you see, this is like in America, too. We feel the reprieve with Trump; but, we know it's not over, because if he's out of office, and some Leftist lunatic comes in, and they got some Hollywood star want to be President, you know it's going to even be worse than Hillary Clinton, and they're going to be starting civil war here; so, that threat is always there.

So, the people that almost lost freedom, but now have regained it, barely, by fighting back right before the Bilderberg group was going to nail it in their coffin, but their hand popped out, and it grabbed their neck; and, they're fighting now, they're wrestling. They still know there's a huge fight ahead; but, they know to have true peace in their heart, and just like the video said, "True Peace comes with Christ;" and when Christ's Kingdom comes, there will be peace, peace of mind, peace of heart, and peace in the world, because of the foundation, the Kingdom based on Love God/ Love your neighbor, but also that is sovereign, and also that is armed against wickedness and evil, and wolves and evil bad lions. That is a powerful Proverbs 28 Kingdom. A Proverbs 28 that says, "The wicked flee, though none pursue, and the righteous will be bold as lions." folks. Why do the wicked flee, when none pursue? Nobody's chasing them. Nobody's running after them with a scimitar. They're running away. Why? Because the people have not only become sheepdogs, they have become lions, they have become lions that stand with the Lion of Judah in the Kingdom of God. Proverbs 28 culture, Proverbs 28 reality, Proverbs 28 Kingdom, where the righteous people are as powerful and bold as lions; and, the wicked, what happened? They just start running away, even though you don't chase them. They start running, fleeing, start hiding in the shadows, because they know their time is done.

So, it's amazing, folks. Now Europe, America, who knows where next; but, we know during this crazy time of the Tribulation, look at this: Europe is coming. France just came. Denmark's coming next week. Who knows who's coming next week. I don't know. They just keep on popping up. You got all these things just popping up; but, they're interested. Why? Because God is setting up something for His Gospel to be preached, and to reach more hearts and minds, more brush fires to be set in the hearts of men and women that are screaming for freedom. They know that they're not supposed to live under this authoritarian slavery that the EU, and the unelected bureaucrats of China, and all these crazy dictators and demons that are ruling over humanity. They know. Every single man and woman that has a red blooded heart that's beating. They know, because the law of God is written on their heart; and, they know they're not supposed to be a slave. They know they're not supposed to live under Xi Jinping. They know they're supposed to be free, and they know and fear the name of Jesus Christ and the Lord of the Second Advent. They fear his Kingdom, they fear his culture, and they fear him, because he is the root of peace. He is the root of the culture of the Kingdom. He is the root, who is our father, who is protective, and builds up his children; so, that we can always be victorious against the wolves, the wicked, and the bad lions. It is time, folks. It is time.

Alright. Okay. So quickly before we go. This is Blade Show. We had a wonderful time; but, again, I'll show you the difference. At Blade Show, Blade Show was nice. We got to meet a lot of self-defenders; but, it didn't have a strong constitutional and Christian root. So, that was only one down side. I felt that the Blade Show, beautiful art pieces, many good self-defenders, many good people, even in the gun community, but the whole culture.

See how culture is so important? Why? When we were in the NRA Show, for example, all of us were coming together. A hundred thousand plus to celebrate the freedom to bear arms. To carry firearms, the most technology that exists on our planet. The normal man can carry the weapon that can defeat fake Kings, and fake Dictators, okay. We celebrate that together. Where does that come from in America? It comes from the founding fathers who wrote the Constitution; but, where does that come from? Where do the founding fathers say it comes from? They say it comes from God, do you see? So, because the gratitude that you feel at the NRA Show about having this freedom to carry and bear arms comes from the Constitution, which was written by the founding fathers who are all Christian; and, in the Constitution, they said, this right comes from God. Do you see what I'm saying? That's why, I think, at the NRA Show, you feel actually grateful to God seeing all these people; whereas, in the Blade Show, you know, you see some Muslim style swords, you know, and you see the Buddhist style swords there. It's very relativist multicultural.

But again, it's not obviously, it's not the greatest power that we have with technology. You're not going to overthrow an evil dictatorship with a four inch blade. How don't care how good you are, you know what I'm saying? You're no match for the Rod of Iron, or the AR-15; but, the power to bear arms, as delineated by the founding fathers, that is the power, that is an actual power that can bring down governments. Do you understand? And the people have that power. And so, when you go to the NRA Show, it's so different, because you feel like, Wow! You see all the people all around who are a hundred thousands of people. You see, Wow, this is incredible. Look at this incredible freedom we can all experience. Look at all those gifts? Where did this come from? Well, the Constitution. Where did that come from? Well, the founding fathers. Where did that come from? Well, they say it comes from God. They acknowledge that the right of a human person to defend themselves comes from God, folks. That's why the Cheon Il Guk Constitution is so powerful, because that is not only an Amendment in the Cheon Il Guk Constitution, that is a world level, a world level, where all the peoples of the world can have the right to bear arms, have the right to defend themselves. Why? Because that right comes from God; and, just like the Internet shows like a microcosm that you'll experience next year in Indianapolis in April, you'll see. It's like a microcosm.

Imagine the whole world. Imagine you can drive through, like Father was talking about the Bearing Sea Bridge, drive all the way down to Capetown, South Africa, drive all the way through China into South Korea, have some Korean food, you know what I'm saying? And do that everywhere you go. Everywhere you go, you know people are self-defenders. You know people who are into love God/ love your neighbor. You can be driving through China. You can be driving through the Sarah Desert. You can be driving through the jungles of the Amazon Jungle. You can be driving through Siberia in Russia, and still, everywhere you go, the people would have the sovereignty, and the right to bear arms, and they would know that, that right comes from the Constitution, which is given by God of course, but which says, clearly, that this human right is given by God. Do you understand?

It's like a microcosm. You feel it, when you go to that Show. Imagine if the world was like that, how the wicked, how the Bilderberg group, how these authoritarian tyrants, how these control freaking lunatics trying to rule over people, will have no way to succeed. They'll have absolutely no way to succeed; and, if they try and do something stupid, they will be put down quickly by good people. They will be, the nations will protect themselves against the virus of that type of Political Satanism.

So, that's really what I felt, contrasting Blade Show and the NRA Show; and, why the NRA Show and the Rod of Iron culture is so much Abel-type; and, that's why it's in the subject position to even the blade. Obviously, it's much stronger than the blade or empty hands. That's why it's in the Subject Position, because it is the most powerful art, the most powerful art.

But again, the right, that ability for us to exercise this freely comes not from just the Constitution on written parchment paper; it comes from Almighty God. It comes from the rule of the Rod of Iron, the poimaino, which it talks about in Scripture, which shows that it is a shepherding, and protecting of the Kingdom of the good folks that can stand up against evil, and are trained in the accoutrements given to us by God, and are allowed to stop, to face, and to defeat, defeat, evil and wickedness, wherever it shall arise.

Let's finish up with Cheon Seong Gyeong, and our contextualized understanding of the Scripture. Understanding also the converse, right? We're talking about the converse in God's name; so, let's read and finish up with that.

CSG 137

What is it that God regrets? It is that humanity inherited a false lineage; you inherited false blood. Satan is the origin of this. He always wants to create havoc with all things of Creation. You are connected to such a Universe. Such rights of ownership in such a lineage.

Conversely, on God's lineage, we are connected to God's rights of ownership, and God's lineage. Amen! Remember who you are, folks. Don't let the Devil's culture guilt/shame you; and, we got to create a new world starting right here from Newfoundland.

Alright, SOS, come on up. Let's all rise and give the glory to God. God is bringing great blessing, not for our glory folks, but for His Gospel to be preached, Amen-Aju!
