The Majority of One

2022. 11. 06 PA

(Standing ovation) Please! No, no! Please, please! No need for formalities. Praise God!

Bob Beierle is amazing. When we first got here in PA, he had us over at his house; he's been such a huge support from the beginning. Actually, a large portion of the people who have come to the Rod of Iron Freedom Festivals saw us through Our Town. So, Bob Beierle has been doing an amazing work and he's a real patriot. He's not a RINO; he's 100% a real patriot. What a tremendous, tremendous, figure, and we pray that he has good blessing in the upcoming battles.

<https://www.rodofironfreedomfestival.org/speakers/bob-beierle>

It's a crazy time folks, but let's get into it. We're in Luke Chapter 16 today. Let's start at verse 14.

Vets for Child Rescue

By the way, Vets for Child Rescue, that's Craig Sawyer. He's the CEO and founder of that organization' he's a Navy Seal Tier 1 DEVGRU; top, top, top, top, of the Special Ops guys. The Tier 1 DEVGRU people are like the superstars and he's out of that, and of course he uses his skills. He came back stateside to find out that Arizona where he lives - and Texas as well - is the sex-trafficking capital of the United States, folks. The United States is now becoming the sex-trafficking capital of the world; it's now estimated to be an 80-to-100-billion-dollar business, and that's in the U.S.

Of course, we know about the Epstein Island. "Where's the list? Where's the list?" We know about this; they get away with it and the top elite and top echelon of all the nations of the world blackmail each other through this.

We see it in Genesis chapter 3 with the Fall of man and how Satan uses that power to groom Eve and of course take over their inheritance. This is not a new thing but a lot of Americans don't know; every pastor should be preaching about this because this is the tip of Satan's spirit. The tip of Satan's organization is defiling and destroying and killing and raping children; that's literally the tip of Satanism, Luciferianism. Craig was talking about the fact that these sex traffickers also are peddling to child rituals, sex rituals, Luciferianism, Satanism etc. This is real stuff. We see in the Bible that this is neither some kind of mythology nor fairy tale. We're talking about ancient people throwing their kids into fires. No, this stuff is real, folks, and they still do it today. It's just that the American people are asleep and still watching CNN and watching MSNBC.

Thank God Trump woke people up. That's something he did incredibly well. He did wake people up; he did wake them up to the fake news. Although I wish he wouldn't push the death jab so heavily as he continues to do now, but anyway, he did do a huge thing in terms of waking people up. That was a humongous thing. A lot of people went from watching CNN to realize, "Whoa! Wait a minute! This is propaganda." That is a huge shift.

But Vets for Child Rescue <https://vets4childrescue.org/>, these are Craig Sawyer' guys; a whole bunch of Special Ops guys that retired. When they come back from combat they need a mission, they need a purpose. What better way? You have all these skills. You have all these skills hunting bad people. The hardest things to catch and to capture on this planet are the people, the two-legged predators, and these guys have the skill sets; they have all that experience breaking doors, bashing into houses and getting bad guys. That's what they DO, folks!

Father talked about Peace Police-Peace Militia as the decentralized citizens defending and protecting society; "Love God, love your neighbor" being the model. These folks are doing that. They're using that combat skill which only a small piece of our population has; they're using that real skill and they're putting it to good use. They're going after the pedos, folks; these are people who are raping children, selling children. Do you understand? They're raping children and selling children. He's going after these kinds of people.

In terms of Peace Police-Peace Militia, a decentralized protectorate that is you and me, the citizens and everybody, THIS is the tip of the spear. Not all of us have this capability or the knowledge of breaking into houses, kicking down doors and moving as teams through CQB (close-quarters battle) and all this kind of stuff; the most dangerous type of assaults they have to do on enemy combatants. But these guys have it, you see. God has blessed them with that skill set. We don't just want them to come stateside. There are twenty-two veterans committing suicide PER DAY. We want these guys to come back and we love them and we thank them for their service and we want them to have a mission and stateside have a purpose in life, because they are super alpha males, they are capable men, they're dangerous men and they are good men. Nobody's perfect but these people have that skill set that can be put to great use.

In Matthew 18 Jesus says

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

So, brother Craig is really doing the millstone tip of the spear. By the way, we don't get anything from Vets for Child Rescue; everything goes to them. We believe in what these folks are doing; we thank them for what they're doing. They're using their Special Ops training for all their missions and the deployments that they did; risking their life and walking into rooms where bad guys were shooting at you with AKs and machine guns. These guys have done that. It's not like the normal Second Amendment person; we go to the range sometimes and practice attack, reload or things like that. These guys have been in the fatal funnel, but they come home and they don't have a mission. All of a sudden, they're just like a crazy person because nobody can relate with them and with the type of intensity, the type of lifestyle, the type of seriousness which they had to have in their business to get bad guys.

We want these people to have their mission, folks; we want them to have a spiritual mission. God is on their side because they're catching and capturing the people who go after the innocent children, the innocent ones. That's your kids; my kids are big and they're all martial artists so they're kind of hard to go after, but my grandkids. You understand? I got five grandkids, (Applause) three granddaughters, and they are all going to be training from the time they are eleven years old.

Go check out Vets for Child Rescue. We have a fun Facebook fundraiser for them right now

<https://www.facebook.com/donate/1084216898961303>

We're talking to all our churches around the world including Korea and Japan and everybody under Father's authority. Craig Sawyer has been supportive of True Father's Three Kingship from the very beginning; he was the one coming out here early on and supporting the Freedom Festival, et cetera. Even our folks from Japan and Korea, we're also encouraging them right now to help Craig and his work, even if it's just buying them a cup of Dunkin Donuts coffee, a cup of Americano or cappuccino a month. Buy a cappuccino for these guys. These guys, they're underappreciated, they're over-trained in terms of civilian life but they're putting that to good use for God's work and getting those bad guys away. We absolutely thank them, and Craig, brother we love you out there in Arizona and holding down.

Please watch his free video documentary movie Contraland <https://www.contralandmovie.com/>

One thing kind of very controversial about that movie is that he caught all the pedos and predators that were going after kids. But guess what? Some of these people were in government. He nabbed a couple of them that were actually government officials and he kept them in the movie. Then, he had a lot of pressure from Hollywood, "Don't put that in! Don't put that in! You may end up in a burning car crash," if you know what I mean. "Don't put that stuff in! Don't put that stuff in! You can put the normal criminal sex trafficker in, but don't put the ones that are in government." He did not listen to that and he put even the government officials that he and his team caught with local law enforcement; he kept them in that movie folks. (Applause) That's why they're trying to censor and ban it on all platforms and not have people see it. Please see it and share it. We played it already at the church two or three times in movie night. So, go check out Contraland and send it to all your friends.

The transgender agenda

We're talking about the transgender epidemic as one of the worst and one of the most dangerous things to hit America, where they're confusing kids, and where kids are now doing child mutilation, cutting up their bodies, going against all biology, all science without parental consent. But, think about that: what is the reason? We know the reason why. Father preached about that for more than fifty years, and we've been teaching about that for ten years here in Pennsylvania. I mean we know what they're doing. Same as what they did with the homosexual agenda, declaring, "They're born with it; it's a gene. Have compassion! It's not their fault; they didn't choose" - this kind of thing. Taking away human choice, "it's not their fault; they're victim." Remember? Of course, that science came out to be totally bunk. There is no homosexual gene; there is human CHOICE and people are CHOOSING to live this lifestyle. That's a slippery slope and the slippery slope keeps on going. In America, once it was just about, "Oh, I just want to get married."

By the way, the state shouldn't be involved in marriage; that's between God and the two people. Amen! So, the state should not be involved; THEY don't give permission to be married. It's GOD! God holds the covenant of marriage, not the state. (Applause) I don't care if it is this state or that state; no state in the whole world carries that anointing. Amen! The anointing comes from God; it's the covenant of marriage.

The point is: that's what they started with. Look folks, where they're at now. Now, it's based on how you feel. You can be of the opposite gender; which is opposed to all biology. We talked about it many times that every single one of your thirty-seven trillion cells is screaming, "Boy, boy, boy, boy, boy, boy," if you're a boy, and every single one of your thirty-seven trillion cells is screaming, "Girl, girl, girl, girl, girl," if you're a girl. They're your cheerleading squad. It's a big squad; it's big. It's more than the population of the world, and they're all saying "Woman, woman, woman!" or "man, man, man!" You can't change that; God decides who we will be. He decides that identity and then it's our job to be responsible to God, accountable to Him, and be the best man or the best woman that we can be. Amen! God chooses; we don't choose that.

So, we are witnessing the whole transgender movement with this self-worship and "I can create myself in my own image" kind of Luciferian doctrine, and then of course now more dangerously and without parental consent, young kids, minors, are talking to this doctor or that doctor; doctors, psychologists, psychiatrists supporting them to do what? "Chop this off, add this on, cut your leg off and put on this fake prostate." Oh my gosh! It's unreal folks! We never imagined we would see this level of attempt at normalization of CHILD MUTILATION. That's what it is; let's call it what it is. CHILD MUTILATION is what it is!

The point of that is, that they want kids making adult decisions without the parents' consent. They want them making adults decisions. Why? What about Epstein's Island list? Remember? "Where is the list?" How come none of those rapists are getting locked up? It's because they're the powerful; they are the political elite. They are behind this, funding this. Why? Because they want to normalize their Satanism, their Luciferianism and their destruction and defiling of children. Are you with me, folks? So, if they get into society to the point where parents don't even care about their kids, and the kids can just mutilate themselves; they can work with a "medical professional" and do this, do that, then the child can make decisions on who they sleep with for example.

Of course, they're going to pull that out of the Kinsey Report.

<https://kinseyinstitute.org/research/publications/historical-report-diversity-of-sexual-orientation.php>

Kinsey was a known child abuser and a known pedophile who performed sexually abusive studies on young children and produced the Kinsey Report in 1948; this was the beginning of the whole sexual revolution and the teaching of sex therapy or sexology in America. It comes from Kinsey, folks. He was a pedo; he was a sex child abuser. This is whom you're listening to in your "liberal arts" sexology class. This is where we're at in America.

For these people of course transgenderism is just another step in the normalization of reducing the minor age of consent, which the UN has been pushing for 10 years old.

<https://www.ageofconsent.net/world>

People don't know that they've been pushing for 10 years old, saying that kids have sexual rights when they are 10 years old, folks. 10 years old! You can't even get a tattoo until you're 18; you can't buy a beer until you're 18. But you can chop your genitals off and you can chop off your limbs and put on fake prostates that have IRREVERSIBLE life-altering hormone, mutilation and all that kind of stuff. Massive impact to that child's body at a stage where that child is not even fully developed, and of course not capable of making long-term decisions at 10 years of age! Are you kidding me folks?

But you understand, this is all tied to Genesis chapter 3 and Satan defiling Eve, grooming her and then of course engaging in illicit sexual relationship with her. That's tied to it. That's why all the Satanic power in the world is tied together by the destruction and basically the defiling of children. That's how they blackmail one another; that's how they get each other on camera doing evil things and then they're beholding to one another. That's how this satanic world works, folks; that's the reality.

Now, if you ever said this five or six years ago, before Trump, everybody thought you were nuts. Aah! But now people have been seeing the evidence, they've been seeing more and more; their eyes have been opened up much more. Now people can see, "Whoa, this really is at the top of it all. It really is this cabal and this cabal is not in just for money. No, they're in it to defile God's creation and the apex of His creation which is human being." It's a very vicious and evil world.

Brother Craig and righteous law enforcement

All that to say that those brothers and sisters and brother Craig out there from Vets for Child Rescue are working real hard nationwide. They try to work with law enforcement around the country, but guess what? Everybody should agree on, “Don't rape children”; everybody should agree with that, right? Amen? (Amen!) EVERYBODY should agree. But you're in America, and he tries to go in with Vets for Child Rescue DEVGU Tier 1 Operators; these guys are the top of top. Let's put it this way: they smacked down a lot of jihadis in their combat experience. They're much more capable than any law enforcement team that is out there because these guys have been doing it in the war zones. America's not a war zone, right? Is that true? It shouldn't be a war zone.

These guys they will try to sync up with certain places around the country and even the sheriffs, the law enforcement, they'll say, “No, I'm sorry. We can't do that.” He said, “You'll be surprised Pastor Sean, how much we get turned away; how much they say, 'that's a touchy thing, man.'” This is what we're living in folks! So, for the righteous sheriffs and the cops out there that work with these guys and help them with distinct sting operations etc., God bless those guys. I mean this is like the remnant of American law enforcement. If you're covering up for pedos and you're a cop, you're doing bad things; you're breaking the law and the constitution that you've sworn to protect. And what has happened to your SOUL? Hello! But this is the kind of stuff he runs into; it's the reality of the game, isn't it?

“Where's the list? Where's the list? Where's the list? Where's the list?” Go check out “King Bau” on Instagram. <https://www.mmanews.com/2022/08/joel-bauman-kimmel/> He's a young MMA fighter, black guy, amazing fighter, a righteous man; he's a rapper, he's a fighter and he's using that platform. Every time he wins a fight, he gets up there and he goes, “Where's the list, Epstein?” (Laughing) Oh Lord! He starts talking about the list; he says, “Jimmy Kimmel, where's the list?” They can't stop the fighter from speaking after his fight and he's getting bigger, so the bigger channels he's on, they have to post-fight let the fighter say something. And this guy is using that platform to ask, “Where's the list, Jimmy Kimmel?” God bless this young man! God is working through normal folks like that; just people who say, “You know, if we don't stand for something, we're going to fall for everything.”

And especially, if we're not going to do anything, or if we're going to be scared to speak out against the defiling of the kids, aah, man, you're gone. You don't have a country, folks; we are a pagan country then. So, please go check out Vets for Child Rescue; support them. I'm a monthly supporter of their organization as well. Buy them a cappuccino or whatever the Holy Spirit moves you to do. Please, go support Vets for Child Rescue and brother Craig out there.

Luke 16: 8-9

All right folks, let's get to Luke Chapter 16 and we go to verse 14 today.

Now, in Luke 16 prior to verse 14, we have that whole conundrum where Jesus is talking about the clever man who almost seems like he deceives his boss. He's a steward of the boss's money and he realizes that the boss is going to fire him, “Oh my gosh, I'm going to get fired. You know what I'm going to do? All those people who need to pay my boss back, I'm going to cut their price in half.” Then, he goes to this guy and says, "Hey, you owe a hundred; I'm going to cut it down to 50. Just remember me in the future; remember me." He's making rounds and he's saying, "Hey, I'm going to help you out with your loan while I'm still here; just remember me." You understand? It's that kind of the story.

⁸ And the lord commended- commended. You hear that? - the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

What? Jesus, what are you talking about? This guy just defrauded his boss. You see what I'm saying? What is going on? Now, that's true, he did say that this guy was unjust, but it seems like Jesus is saying that this guy has wisdom, that he's clever; that's another word that the Bible uses. So, he said "he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light."

If you only read this verse, he seems to be saying that, but look at the next one:

⁹ And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

Now, he's asking, "What was the purpose of that man?" That man was doing that for the purpose of witnessing those people; that was his purpose. He's not saying "defraud people" or something like that. In the beginning section of that very controversial Luke 16, he's saying, "In this world one has to be wise; you have to witness people and bring them into the habitations of Heaven," i.e., bring them into the Kingdom. And the people of God are called to be wise as well. Now let's jump to 13.

Luke 16: 13- 14

¹³ No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

¹⁴ And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things:

that means "who are greedy for money." Jesus right here is telling us, "Ye cannot serve God and mammon" - that's the god of money. So, whenever we are blessed with anything, everything is for bringing people into the habitations of the Kingdom. Everything! All the gifts that God gives us is for bringing people into the Kingdom and sharing the riches of the Kingdom that are given to you by grace.

They attacked Jesus for this because they were covetous. Now remember, the Pharisees were worshipers of money and of course there were politicians; they were basically the top Jewish politicians working with the Roman Empire. People always forget that in the ancient world religious figures ARE politicians. Pharaoh is the head of the religious pantheon and the descendant of the god Ammon-Ra, but also, he's a politician.

See, in the modern world we kind of think that we have separation, but that's not the case in the ancient world where the religious heads are also politicians. In fact, this is true in the modern world as well. For example, in the Catholic Church, the pope is not only a religious priest; he's a major political figure. Some things that he's pushing are going to have massive impact for millions of Christians around the world.

Anyway, anybody who has their head screwed on correctly and knows anything about the world, knows that to be true, but we kind of go into this blank when we look back on Jesus' time, "Oh, the Pharisees are just these religious heads." NO! They're working directly with Pontius Pilate, they're working directly with the police, they're working directly with the Intelligence Agencies, gathering Intel on different groups in Judea, in Jerusalem and then giving that to the Romans. In fact, that Intel apparatus is the apparatus by which Jesus is sold and killed, because he's becoming too powerful and popular.

Jesus is entering into the Temple which is like a national treasure; that would be like walking into the Washington Monument or the White House or someplace like that. It's a massive national treasure; it would be like in Japan walking into Ginkaku-ji, the Golden Temple. You know what I mean? You don't just walk in there and just start throwing stuff around and kicking and whipping people. You'll get in trouble; the cops are going to come for you if you do that kind of thing, and that's what Jesus is doing. In John Chapter 2 he's throwing tables over in the national treasure Temple. He's whipping people out of the Temple; he's assaulting them with the whip that he made. Also, on holy days he's ATTACKING the religious heads who are also political figures, calling them "brood of vipers! You're children of Satan." I mean these are very damning words. Hello! He's not California Jesus with a weed wand and a bongo or something like. He is kicking some booty! Are you with me, folks? He is going AFTER them. He's a hate-speech preacher by the Southern Poverty Law Center.

So, the Pharisee are now attacking him. They're covetous, they're greedy, they want their institutions for money; that's who they are. We see this in the modern day with the church in America and the West. We have the big megachurches that teach prosperity gospel and they're not going to teach certain scriptures in the Bible because it may offend somebody. Well, that's not your job. You're a pastor; you're not supposed to care about whom the heck you offend. You have to care if you offend GOD! Your job is to teach the Word; it doesn't matter if it offends people. It's going to offend people all the time because we love sin; we desire things of this world. So, of course God's Word is going to offend us; it's meant to offend us so we have our heart in straight. Amen! It's meant to check us.

You're talking about that check and balance that we're supposed to have in the U.S, which is gone by the way, but theoretically ideally, we're supposed to have check and balance. The Word is the check and balance on our hearts; that's what it is. And that's why these Scriptures are "rough" in the modern day. Why are they rough? You know if the population were at least blue belts in Jiu-Jitsu this would not be rough at all. If in school everybody had to train in Jiu Jitsu and get at least a blue belt, this would not be considered rough. This is truth.

Why? Because of what he's doing. He's calling out the Pharisees saying, "These people, all they care about in this Temple is the money; that's all they care about. They don't care about your souls, whether you're going to heaven or hell." They don't care about people. They want the money; they want the money from the Roman Empire; they want the subsidies; they want the federal grants.

"Oh! So, you have your little 501c3; you got your federal grants. Oh, but you better not say anything naughty. Don't say anything naughty about Uncle Sam. If you do that, boom! It's going to be gone; your money will be taken away." It's a problem; it's a big problem. That's why the federal grant system is a very dangerous system, very dangerous, and churches can be bought off this way.

Margaret Sanger for example who was a racist white supremacist, hated black people, called them weeds; she wanted to kill black people, kill black babies, and she did. She succeeded greatly and wildly; with what? Planned Parenthood. She's the founder of Planned Parenthood and she targeted the black community and particularly whom? The black pastors; she targeted the pulpit. Because she knew that the pulpit had influence and they could start pushing and making Christian women believe that "it's your right to kill your own child." And if you get your people to switch literally from serving God to serving Satan, they got you, they got you. Of course, she targeted the black community, she targeted black people because she was a racist, an evil one; and a Democrat by the way.

Even though there's really no difference between a Democrat and Republican nowadays. I mean, there are so many traitorous RINOs, with an "R" behind their names. So, you have to really know who the people are. You have to really know what is their track record, what they have been standing for and pushing. It's definitely not an age where you can just click an R; there are SO many fake, fake, fake, fake Republicans, probably funded by leftist organizations like Soros to just change from the D to the R, so they can weaken Republican conservatism, and normalize a weaker form of conservatism.

Matt Walsh & transgenderism

Matt Walsh does a great breakdown; he's talking about transgenderism. He's on the tip of the spear, saying that Tennessee is going to be probably the first state in the country to BAN MUTILATION of MINORS! Hallelujah! Praise God! (Applause) He's got the support both in the House and the Senate and when they come back to order after the break, then they're going to be voting on that. Praise God! I hope Tennessee is the first to do it. That would be great; that's great micro and macro movement. If he did that, that would be a tremendous victory, tremendous victory.

He was breaking down transgenderism and he's like, "Fox News, why do you have Bruce Jenner - that now goes by Caitlyn Jenner? Why do you have somebody who has been the whole time pushing for transgenderism to be normalized? Why are you helping him normalize it on an issue?" For example, when you're talking about biological men out competing against biological women, because they feel like they're a girl and they want to come into girls' sports. "Why don't you have somebody who is opposed to the actual idea that you can by your own subjective feelings, OBJECTIVELY change your gender?" Because that's a problem. Bruce Jenner believes that; he believes you can. You see what I'm saying?

Fox News brings this guy on, but he's part of the apparatus of pushing transgenderism. So, if you actually wanted a counter argument, you would invite somebody like a Matt Walsh from day one. Why don't they have him on so he can say, "You know I disagree with the fundamental THESIS of transgenderism. You cannot become a human male if you are a human female." That's where the argument should be. That's the reason why we shouldn't have boys competing against girls in swimming; it starts right there. The whole argument boils down to that: can a boy because of subjective feelings be a girl? And the answer is of course "no!"

Many times, these big corporations will do this. They have a different agenda than what the public actually believes or the morals of the public, and they will slowly try to push the window over; slowly. That's one example. You need to have a good argument about why boys should not be swimming against girls even though they feel like a girl. If they feel that way okay fine, they can get counseling and treatment, and all that kind of stuff. That's great, but you can't change the natural law. You're not God and you can't change all the biology. If you have that program on and you want to actually criticize the fundamental philosophical argument, then you need somebody who is not in that group, or at least who is honest about the whole issue.

That maybe transitioned when they were young and they regretted it and now they come out and they say, "Hey! Don't do this. You can't really change yourself anyway." So, why don't they have like a Matt Walsh? Why don't they have like the 18-year-old young lady who was at the "End Child Mutilation" rally in Nashville Tennessee who has trans regret.

<https://nypost.com/2022/06/18/detransitioned-teens-explain-why-they-regret-changing-genders/>
She's 18; she was lured into it when she was 13-years old. It was being popularized and she was the new hero in town. "You're the new hero. You're being brave." She was told this at 13. She went through catastrophic life-altering unchangeable IRREVERSABLE surgery that chopped off both her breasts. She gave a speech telling that now she actually realizes that it was just a fad; she was a tomboy and it was a fad. She got through it, and now she recognizes and embraces that she's a woman.

She's up there speaking and you have all these "trans women"- these are biological males- cursing her, shouting her down and saying she's a Nazi. She is a woman who is giving her testimony about how she was lured in by medical predators to do life-altering unchangeable irreversible damage to her healthy body and she regrets it. It's a tearful heart-wrenching testimony and you've got these crazy lunatics with makeup on; boys with makeup on screaming, "Kill her! Kill her!" What? These are boys pretending to be women shouting an ACTUAL woman down who was sharing her testimony! I mean, just give me a break! Give me a break! It's just such a joke; such a ridiculous joke. But it is the state of affairs.

Of course, we know the end game here. The end game is what? The normalization of Satan's key ritual, which is the defiling of children. That's why he wants to bring transgenderism in; that's why the transgender ideology is going to support the legal structure to get children to making legal decisions without parental consent. And that's going to give them the ability to reduce the age of consent to ten and even five years old, as the U.N has been pushing by the way for the last ten, fifteen, twenty years. People just don't know it. This is what we're dealing with, folks; this is whom we're giving the country over to. This group is what stole the country from Americans in 2020.

Night by Eli Wiesel

We have to be optimistic about the future, and we are. If you're in Christ you are optimistic about the future because you know God's Kingdom is coming. So, you are always optimistic. But not in man; you're optimistic in God. Amen! (Applause)

What does that mean? In his book Night, Eli Wiesel wrote about the Holocaust, about the people who survived throughout the death camps.

There were two types of optimism: there was an unrealistic form of optimism and there were people that held a realistic form of optimism.

The people who held an unrealistic form of optimism were doing what?

"Oh my gosh, I heard some news. We're going to be freed! They're coming for us next WEDNESDAY; they're coming! I swear to God. I heard it. They promised."

This was Sunday, and now it's Monday,

"Oh my gosh! TWO more days!"

It's now Tuesday,

"Oh my gosh! It's going to happen tomorrow! We're going to be free! Get ready! Get ready!"

What does it sound like? Doesn't it sound a little like the Q-PSYOP that the CIA did on the Trumpers?

Doesn't it sound a little bit like that PSYOP?

"Oh my gosh! Wednesday we're going to be freed! Oh, it's going to happen! I heard it!"

Oh Lord! Wednesday rolls around; he's waiting. He's screaming,

"God, I love you God! It's great! Hallelujah!"

All of Wednesday. Now, it's dinner time Wednesday,

"Oh, no, they're still coming! They're going to come at midnight! I heard it!"

7pm, 8pm, 9pm, 10pm, 11pm,

"They're coming! They told me! YES! We're getting close to the hour! They're coming!"

11:30, 11:36, 11:52; 12:03,

"Well, maybe, maybe their watches are off, okay?"

Time doesn't stop. Wednesday rolls off. Thursday comes in, Friday comes, etc. Slight demoralization of that person; spiritual, psychological demoralization and you got hoodwinked, you got scalawagged, you got bamboozled; you're naïve. But then again "I need to have hope, I need to have hope."

So then again there's another rumor that comes out two or three weeks later,

"We purposely did not come to save you on Wednesday two weeks ago, because we ran into this or that. But now we've set up the things, we've set up all the connections and now it's unbelievable, miraculous; God has opened the doors and we're going to be there on Monday. Next Monday we're coming. Yeah, actually it was on purpose; we purposely didn't come last Wednesday. You see we purposely did that. We did that to PSYOP the guys that are PSYOPING us; we did that to counter their Intelligence." Or whatever excuse.

So, now they say,

"Okay, Monday; this coming Monday."

And this guy is saying,

"Oh yes, Thank You God! Thank You! Yes, we're going to get out of here Monday, and it's coming and we've won the war!"

Sunday rolls around. Monday comes; same thing. 6 pm, 7 pm, 8 pm, 9:34 pm, 10 pm, 11 pm, 11:52 pm, 11: 59 pm, midnight, 12:03; same thing. Now, this guy went like this -boom! - then he came up a little bit and now this time he goes diving like that - BOOM! - and now he's got to work hard to start pulling back up.

And think about the people who believed him; the people who believed him or maybe even sat on the line and said, "Hey, maybe, I don't know. God does work miracles, right?" Even though that kind of phrase is not in the Bible; people kind of made that up. Think about the people who believed that guy! Their morale is crashing, collapsing. This is a demoralization process. If you do this enough; even animals they will not get up to the ring of the bell that would once give them food. They will not stand; they will not believe you. You see this? Because people get demoralized. So, this whole thing of, "Oh, we're going to be saved! Yes!" And then boom! "Oh my gosh, now what? Well, we have to have hope." Oh, oh! Then boom! And every time that happens a little piece of your heart is chopped right out.

This is what Elie Wiesel referred to as "unrealistic optimism." The people who did not survive all had that same trait; they all had unrealistic optimism. They didn't confront the reality.

On the flip side, who are the ones with realistic optimism? Well, he gives some examples. These people said, "I may NEVER get out of this place. I'm probably going to die in this place; probably never getting out. But TODAY I'm going to try to find something to do positively; today I'm going to try to find something to be grateful for." You see what I'm saying? In prison this is the mindset that these people had. And that's a big change because you had the same people, you had the same build, they were of the same race, they had the same genetics, they had the same body types. Let's say they were around 135 pounds. So, on paper they were equal, but their mindset was totally different. One was unrealistic which would lead to constant demoralization.

The morale is three times more important

CJ Thompson, the Green Beret who came to the Freedom Festival and did a great training class, recommended some books like the one by Lieutenant Colonel Grossman dealing with psychological studies on combat.

<https://www.amazon.com/Combat-Psychology-Physiology-Deadly-Conflict/dp/0964920549>

Everybody should read it. If you're a Second Amendment patriot and you have guns, read those books: one is on combat; one is on killing.

<https://www.amazon.com/Killing-Psychological-Cost-Learning-Society/dp/0316040932/>

It's by Lieutenant Colonel Grossman based on decade-long studies that the Army has conducted on its soldiers.

Even Napoleon knew and said that the morale or the spiritual atmosphere of the troops is three times greater than their physical attributes, "The morale is to the physical as three to one." That's incredible, because this is a massive conqueror who ruled big swaths of the world. Napoleon conquered quite a bit of the world, and his wisdom on combat, after all was said and done, can be summed up into, "The spiritual atmosphere of your troops is three times greater than their physical capabilities, their power, their fitness, etc." The spiritual morale is the power. Isn't that incredible? That's incredible coming from Napoleon.

And of course, it's been confirmed by the Army researching and studying combat through the global war on terror and all the wars that we've been engaged in since World War II and Korea. They've been doing these long-term studies on soldiers, long-term studies on combat and they have come to the same realization. If you can demoralize your troops, you're taking away their most powerful attribute on the battlefield. So, why are these PSYOPS so important? Why do they invest so much money to get us up high and then smash it so we get real low? You understand? This is warfare, folks! This really happens in warfare. This is part of breaking down your enemy; it's part of it.

That's why as people in Christ, we shouldn't have this type of high-low optimism; this is a very dangerous type of unrealistic optimism. Our optimism is based in the reality of God's promise and His Word. His Kingdom is coming; that's our hope. It's coming but there are going to be ups and downs along the way; there are going to be ups and downs. Sometimes we can't control that, but at the same time it doesn't mean that we have to just sit idly by and wait. No! We have to fight; even if let's say fighting and standing against evil does not make a difference in the end.

Some people can make that argument: "What are you going to do? You're one person. What's one person going to do?" Let's say even if that's true -let's give that to the critics- let's say for example even if that's true, it's GOOD for my SOUL! You understand? It's good for my soul to stand up against unrighteousness. Do you see? Maybe that's why sometimes God gives us hardship.

I Asked God...

I asked for strength and God gave me difficulties to make me strong

I asked for wisdom and God gave me problems to solve

I asked for prosperity and God gave me brawn and brain to work

I asked for courage and God gave me dangers to overcome

I asked for patience God placed me in situations where I was forced to wait

I asked for love and God gave me troubled people to help

I asked for favors and God gave me opportunities

I asked for everything so I could enjoy life. Instead, He gave me life so I could enjoy everything.

I received nothing I wanted, I received everything I needed

I asked for strength and God gave me difficulties! (Laughing)

Lord, give me strength! But really in my heart I mean "Lord, make my way easy." That's what we're saying. No, no, no! If you ask for strength, you're going to get difficulties; you asked for it. Amen! It's like, "Oh Lord, give me strength through this tribulation!" God says, "All right, you asked for it. Here you go. Here are some difficulties and now test your strength. I love you, you're my child. You want to be strong; here are now some opponents you have to fight so you become strong."

I asked for wisdom and God gave me problems (Laughing)

God gave me problems when I asked for wisdom, because what we're really asking is, "God, give me wisdom. TAKE away my problems!" We're asking Him to take it away and He said, "Uh-uh child, you want wisdom? Here are more problems." Because through more problems you're going to get beat down, you're going to get whooped, you're going to be dragged around this way and that way, left, right, and you're going to get wiser. You're going to go wiser the hard way.

I ask for prosperity and God gave me brawn and brains to work

I asked for courage and God gave me danger

"God, give me courage! Give me courage! Give me courage, courage!" (Laughing) and God gave me DANGER. We want courage because we know we're scared and we want the scary stuff to go away but God said, "You want courage? Okay, here's more danger."

I ask for patience and God placed me in situations where I was forced to wait

I asked for love and God gave me troubled people.

(Laughter) Can I get an amen? (Amen!)

I asked for favors and God gave me opportunities

I asked for everything so I could enjoy life. Instead, He gave me life so I could enjoy everything.

I received nothing I wanted, I received everything I needed.

(Applause) Whoo!

Is there any use?

Some people can say, "Okay, we're standing up and doing all this, but it's not going to make a difference." You're one person AND they have the whole apparatus; they still have Act 77. They've still got everything. Even Trump's coming out saying, "I hope we have a red wave but they still have all the cheating apparatuses there that they stole the 2020 with." So, obviously they're going to try to steal it again; they have the apparatus. They don't even need to be at the polls; they can do it digitally because there's proof. Epoch Times has done WIDE and far reporting on those George Soros' machines that you can manipulate through USB. You don't even need to be at the polls. And they're also saying, "Well, we need six extra days to count the vote," because all the mail-ins are coming in.

Let's say worst case scenario that's true; let's say that's true. Let's say we have no chance; anyway, they're going to steal it just like they stole it in 2020. We saw it; there's evidence. They did run the greatest heist in all of human history. They stole the keys to the greatest international power of the world, the greatest most powerful superpower of the world. They literally stole the keys. It's the biggest heist in all of human history other than the Fall; that's big! Big, big! They stole the biggest military; they stole the biggest economy; they stole the biggest power. They actually did that; we have evidence of that.

The people who did 2000 Mules by the way the main producers, I believe they are in prison now. The judge put Catherine and Greg in contempt of court and they're in prison because they didn't turn over their secret informants. So, they got tossed in the pan.

You have people that peacefully protested on January 6th, now in solitary confinement for how many days? Like five hundred plus days, and they're requesting to be transferred to Guantanamo Bay because the conditions are so bad.

So, when people get out of the Q-like daydreaming land, they see what has actually happened to us, what we've actually been hit with; they stole the superpower of the world, they upturned an actual election, which has had worldwide consequences. They put it in place through the Corona Chi-com virus released upon the earth that had a 99.7 % survival rate, and then they used the tyranny to force everybody to get the death jab. They did all that. Then, in Pennsylvania they put in Act 77, and everywhere else they did the mail-in voting etc., which is the simplest way to cheat. They have layers of that. They also have the USB system. The Epoch Times has a lot of breakthroughs reporting on how they can just change the numbers through the USB ports. The point is: there are a lot of sad facts.

So, the people may say, "Okay, yeah, our country is gone. Don't even vote; it doesn't matter." But see let's say that's true. Even if that's true, is it better in terms of relationship with God. Would a loving father want you in that situation to just say, "Oh, there's no hope anyway so we're not going to do anything about it. In fact, we're going to tell people not to vote?" Or would a loving father want you to say, "Hey! Even though there's no hope and it seems impossible, and even if it's completely true that I won't make a difference, maybe the sheer act of me standing up to the evil would be a critical milestone?" Knowing this and getting out doing something, standing up, making some committed action that is even a vote, could be a catalyst of how God is shaping us to be for the larger tribulation, the larger hardships that are coming our way. This could be a critical milestone in our hearts to piece back that part that was torn out through the Q-PSYOPS and all that kind of stuff.

Many times, it's not as it seems; it's not as we analyze. God is much greater; He's much wiser. And maybe He needs people who have been demoralized, who have been beaten down, who have been falsely imprisoned like the five hundred plus patriots. Maybe He needs people who even through that, will still stand up for the gifts God has given them. Amen! Maybe He needs them to make that small committed action in the beginning, because later on the price will be higher if there's full-on civil war; if there's nuclear war with Russia and China. Major naval admirals are coming out saying that it's inevitable, that we're going to have a confrontation with China and Russia. Folks, you know how that's going to look; it's going to be bad the whole world over.

I hate to say it but Trump is not coming to save the world. He's not the Messiah, he's not the savior, he's not coming to save us, as World War III is popping off and Russia and China are lobbying tactical nuclear missiles; or not even doing that but just destroying each other through cutting off trade etc., and suffocating the nations that are against them. It doesn't help that all our products come from China; all our pharmaceuticals come from China. In Walmart, everything comes from China; all their medicine, all their food, everything online comes from China. I mean major admirals are now saying that people have to get ready; it is escalating and we will be in confrontation with China and Russia, which is pretty obvious if you're paying attention. But anyway, the point is that those warnings are coming out.

Faith like a mustard seed

"So, does me going out and voting really have any impact if all the cogs are moving, and if in fact I have no saying? They're going to start this World War III anyway. I think I just stay in; I'm going to watch Netflix late and go to bed."

Okay. What about if the woman at the well felt that way on the day she met Jesus? What about the woman that needed the healing? What if she felt that way? She had more reason to be demoralized than you. She had an issue of blood; her blood was pouring out every single day. Are you with me, folks? Maybe God wants you to take that little step EVERYBODY, because it's a step of faith. It's a step of saying, "God, I know. Even this time if I look at it rationally with my mind, with men it may be impossible, but with God all things are possible. I know that scripture God, I know. I always tell myself that. I know. But when I look at all the analysis, it doesn't look good, it doesn't look good. So, God, I don't think I'm going to do anything. I don't think I want to stand up. I don't want to go out vote, I don't want to do this. I'm just going to be like that."

You see what I'm saying folks? We CAN feel like that because it is demoralizing, and there's nowhere to run in terms of the world. You can't go to France or you can't go to New Zealand or Canada. There's nowhere to run; it's worse everywhere else. It's actually still the best here.

Maybe God needs us to start having faith again. "Faith as small as a mustard seed can move" what? "Mountains!" It's not something we're doing on our own power, honestly speaking, because with our own power, we're in big trouble, we're in huge trouble. We're a completely pagan nation; God is not part of any of our lives. He's an accessory on a handphone; He's nothing that we actually build our moral compass off of. I mean generally, especially with the young generations that are coming up. Woah! The doctrines that they've been taught in the public-school systems; the different ideologies they're being forced to consume. We're in big trouble at the looks of it all.

But it's critical that we don't have that unrealistic optimism because that actually destroys us; Satan uses that to demoralize us further and strip away every semblance of hope or faith that we might have. In the end God is stripping it down; He's stripping it down further and further. So, with every single person that we put faith in whether it be Trump, DeSantis or whatever; with every single person that we thought is going to save the country, save the world, it's being slowly revealed that "No! There's only one God. If you have faith, you have to have faith in that God." There are people that He uses on the earth and we want to support one another. But we have to have faith in the Creator, in the God who made it all, because HE holds the hands of time, HE oversees the falling of empires and the rising up of new ones. GOD has seen it all. From our limited hindsight, maybe we've just seen fifty, sixty, seventy years, but God has seen epochs, ages and ages. He created something from nothing. He has the fifty-thousand feet infinity view.

I guarantee you He's not up on His throne quaking and saying, "Oh my gosh! Oh my gosh! Trump is going to run in 2024. Is he running?" I guarantee you God is not shaking up there with OCD (obsessive-compulsive disorder) saying, "Quickly! Bring me my diet code; quickly!" No! God's not quaking up there. He's sitting back; He's watching with the infinity view.

So, what we do on a daily basis is important; it is critical, and even if all the people say that it makes no difference, well if it means something to God that His children are going to have faith and stand up against unrighteousness, then it is critical for us to do it.

There's one party that is trying to make young people believe that they should become gods, that they can make themselves in their own image, that they can create themselves; that the universe around them has to bow to them and all the laws of nature have changed because they have subjective whims. This is a cult; it's a religious cult that they're putting on children.

Look at the National Geographic article on the history of transgenderism.

<https://www.nationalgeographic.com/history/article/how-historians-are-documenting-lives-of-transgender-people>

The examples they use throughout history are literally in religious mythology with this half-man half-woman, half-horse half-man. Okay, so, you're admitting that transgenderism IS a religious mythology because you're obviously not presenting any proof for a civilization which believes that a male human could have babies. Never did it exist until the Harvardians decided they were going to be brilliant and they invented that here in the United States with funding from George Soros who in the end wants to lower the age limit of consent.

See how it all comes back to Genesis, all comes back to the Fall, it all comes back to sin, it all comes back to evil; how it rules, how it operates? We can get demoralized by seeing that and have this roller coaster ride, but it's always important to step back. That's why prayer is critical; that's why meditating on God's Word is critical. Because through the vicissitudes of time, life goes up and down, up and down, and things that we can't expect, we can't control and do not wish come our way, there's only one thing stable in all that, folks. And it's not us, it's not our emotions, not our feelings; it's not even our thoughts. There's only one thing stable throughout all that. It's God; it's God!

What does it mean to serve a Holy God? It's not just about making some kind of acquiescence to God and say, "Okay God, I need You." No, no, no, because when you serve a Holy God, you are accountable to Him, and as a country are we accountable to God? I mean we've been killing babies for the last forty plus years, millions of them; we've been sending them into the fire on an industrial-level killing. Are we accountable to God? We have an 80-to-100-billion-dollar sex-trafficking industry in America, right in front of our eyes. We're no longer accountable to God. We're a country that has lost its way, and in order to make America godly again, we have to actually start punishing evil. (Applause) You can't just say, "We want to be godly so we want to forgive all the criminals and be light on pedos." No! They'd better get the death penalty.

Defund the police

¹⁶ The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

¹⁷ And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

Jesus did not cast away the Old Testament or the morals of the Old Testament. In fact, he said, "It's harder for heaven and earth to pass away than for that morality to fail"; what in the modern age we would consider to be "stone-age morality," but that's biblical morality. It's hard on evil; it's not nice to evil. It will actually punish sex traffickers and pedos; kill them. Yes, it will give them the death penalty.

And for all these Leftists that say, "Oh, you support the death penalty!" You crazy people, support the death penalty; you support it for children in the WOMB! You want the death penalty for children in the womb! So, don't give me any of that, "you support the death penalty." You can't guilt shame the body of Christ! I mean they're the ones who support killing children who are the most innocent citizens of all population, for no reason other than inconvenience. The majority of the abortions are for "inconvenience"; rape for instance being about less than one percent of the actual statistics. So, they don't have any moral high ground to say that. But if America is actually going to become godly it means we can't be light on the punishments.

Kook J-hyung was talking about this the other day: You have this "defund the police" thing. Well, the state police model is the European model, and if you're going to defund the state police model, this is what our Founding Fathers did by the way. We didn't have a state police model in America; that's not American. The sheriff model is American. If you're the sheriff and you're bad we can fire you; we can mobilize people and fire you. We can't do that within the state police system. That's the European system, where the chiefs and the heads are appointed by the mayors or the councils or whatever the case may be. That's not America. The Founding Fathers did away with that. They actually DID defund the police (Laughing); they actually did that. Republicans don't think about this. They actually did defund the police; the police were the BRITS!

So, it's not about defunding the police in itself. If you're going to decentralize everything, you should get rid of the state police model which is what America did, and it should be what we go towards. We should be able to fire the people who have been given the power to kill and to apprehend and arrest you forcefully. I mean we should have power to kick them out if they're bad. Amen! That's like a big power. Kook J-hyung was saying -and this is true- that you can't just stop at defunding the state police system. You have to defund the D.A, the district attorney, because they go after the people. If the people defend themselves against a serial murderer or some rapist, they're the ones who are punished for it. And he was saying, “Okay, if you want to let all the prisoners out of prison, fine; let them all out. Let them all out but don't arrest us if you find them six feet under; don't punish the people.” You see what I'm saying? If those people are enacting evil and they get stopped, don't punish the good people. Because there are plenty of capable men and women out there in the civilian world who can do a good number on bad people; plenty of them out there.

So, if America doesn't have the fortitude, if it's not going to put on big boy pants and start saying, “Okay, we're going to hit the evil people hard; we're going to hit them hard. We're going to change this culture in America,” you're going to have evil people continue to run everything. That's how it works. If you're nice to evil, it will come take you over. That's what America did by taking away the Christian patriarchy. If you get rid of the patriarchy you now have Islam coming. If you create a matriarchy, predator men are not scared of women; they prey on women. You'd better have a patriarchy that is willing to fight and die for you. You see what I'm saying folks? I mean this is real. That's why the Christian Church was a patriarchy; it was a church that protected women and children. But see, the Christian Church nowadays no longer sees the value of that, and that's why we're getting taken over, because men are not taught to be men. If men are not taught to be willing to fight and die, oh yes, Christianity becomes weak.

That's the nature of predators, folks. If you get rid of the good males that protect you, bad males will come, 100%; you can play for a couple of decades but they're coming. They're coming for your women; they're coming for your kids. Europe's finding that out the hard way with the Islamic population growing there heavy and the Christian population being weak; they're finding out the hard way. That's how it happens, folks. So, it's absolutely critical that men be strong. The modern Western feminists have made people believe that patriarchy is oppressive males, evil toxic males. It's like that Middle Eastern pastor saying, “You want to see evil toxic males? Go to the Middle East for three days; you'll see them.” That's toxic masculinity.

When you have males that are commanded by God to love their wives unconditionally but yet they're capable of standing up for their country and standing up against evil, that's not patriarchy. That's godly men. You don't attack those kinds of men and tear them down because they're your last line of defense before predators and wolves come. If you get rid of those males, and make them feel guilty for being masculine and strong and pursuing things that would deter bad wolves; if you stop them from doing so your civilization will perish. 100% will perish.

You will never get rid of the patriarchy in that sense; it will only be replaced by an actual tyrannical patriarchy. The patriarchy in Christendom is taught to love their wife, not beat her; you understand, that's a big difference. The patriarchy in Christianity is taught to lead the church and not care if you offend people, but you better not offend God. You see what I'm saying? That's a righteous patriarchy. That's a community, a kingdom of men that is willing to protect.

But the Western world has done what? They've gotten rid of the men and they've said, "No, women, we're going to take over the whole church; we're going to take over society." Uh well, who's going to protect you now? Who's going to protect you? It's only going to get to the point where you're inviting the predators in. They are literally being invited in by these English feminists that are taking off their shirts; they have their breasts hanging out and they're saying, "Migrants, we welcome you." Well, why are you taking your shirt off? What the heck is wrong with you, girls? If you're inviting migrants, why you got to take your shirt off? How is that in any way related? You see what I'm saying? It's crazy! What does that have to do with it? By the way you're inviting in a civilization - and they are enough in numbers - that will physically beat you and hang you for taking off your shirt in public. You see? The cogs are not working, folks; the blue hair does something to the brain. Maybe it's all the chemicals from the hair dye! (Laughter) Hello? Oh my gosh!

The nice white Christian man, he is the patriarchy. He's been so beaten down and he's being made so effeminate in the West that now nobody will stand up for these women. You have women being beat up on the side of the street and no man will even step in, because they don't freaking know how to fight: they don't know how to defend themselves, and they've been taught by mommy, "Oh, don't fight."

Well, maybe men need to practice that combat, because through combat we learn about honor, we learn about humility, we learn about getting our booties kicked and not being delusional. We learn a lot of important lessons in the dojo, a lot of them. And that's how we become accountable and not become crazy, uncontrollable males. That's why you need daddies; that's why you need patriarchs in the home that will teach those sons how to control power. But if you damn them and you dissuade them and you condemn them for being males, then you're going to get what now the modern West has, and that only benefits our enemies; it only benefits China, Russia and the crazy Jihadi terrorists.

So, it is a crazy time, crazy, crazy time. This battle is existential and spiritual. The Devil will try everything to take away our morale and our spirit, which have three times more power than our physical attributes. If our relationship with God is solid, we don't fret about the future; we know His Kingdom is coming. God wins, He wins, He wins, He wins. (Imitating Trump) Winning, winning, winning, winning! (Laughter, applause)

God wins all the time. He wins at the end but
 He does give us trouble,
 He does give us tribulation,
 He does give us danger,
 He does give us obstacles,
 He does give us opponents.

Because to get all those traits of character such as strength, courage and wisdom, maybe we need those training partners along the way so we become those people that God wants us to be. Please don't watch Netflix on that night. Get up and get out; stand up for righteousness. Let's pray!

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father God, we thank You for this beautiful day. We thank You for all the words that You have given us today. We thank You for Your Scripture. We thank You for American hearts and minds that may be turned around and remember to once again search for You, YEARN for You.

God, so many parts of our hearts have been torn out the last couple of years, as America, our country's been completely ravaged the likes of which we've never seen and never thought possible. We only thought this would happen in Third World countries. Now, it's happening here and everywhere across the Western World. We believed that it was impervious to this type of destruction; but no, it's now here.

There are so many reasons why we can be demoralized and the enemy, the adversary Satan does want us to be demoralized because in the end he's after our CHILDREN, dear God. And if we don't stand up and we don't stand up for righteousness what will our children LEARN in their generations when they must stand up and hold this torch?

Dear God, let us be strong at this time, let's be courageous, and as we pray for those things, let us also welcome the troubles and the dangers and the obstacles and the opponents that You send to make us into the type of people that You desire for us to be. People who are reflective of YOUR goodness, of YOUR righteousness, of YOUR justice, of YOUR stance against evil, of YOUR benevolence and magnanimity, of YOUR Love.

Dear God, let us represent those things. Let us have great love in our hearts and at the same time “hold the sword of the spirit, put on the breastplate of righteousness, the helmet of salvation, the belt of truth, the feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace, the armor of God.” Let us put that on because this is spiritual warfare, and we are out on the precipice; we are on the razor's edge of whether this country will survive or not.

But dear God,

We have a hope that transcends all these fears and all these dangers.

We have a hope that transcends all our opponents, all our adversaries, all our enemies.

We have a hope that is within YOU, the Creator of the universe, of the stars and the galaxies, the planet, the millions and millions of suns across this cosmos. You are the Creator. We are all but just a tiny, tiny, tiny, blip in the great expanse of time in this cosmos. And dear God, when we gaze in the sky, we feel that sense of awe, we feel Your presence. You are our Father and You love us and You know the paths that we must take in order to fulfill Your Will on this earth.

Lord, we pray NOT that You remove obstacles and all adversaries and that You remove all hardships. NO! God, we pray that we would have the strength and the courage to accept whatever You send, to have the bravery to accept whatever You send, and to STILL be faithful to You, to STILL hold on to You, to STILL stand with You on the battle line against evil. We do not want to turn from this epic and heroic quest.

Dear God, put the fire within us; set brush fires into the hearts and minds of men around this country. Alight them in the hearts of the patriots across this world that are standing in their own right for their own countries at this critical time. Especially we pray for Brazil right now that's having a massive, massive, massive, battle in front of them. This is now happening across the globe, dear God and we know that the pieces are all being moved and we know that China and Russia are laughing and all our enemies are laughing, thinking that they're going to have the upper end. But they are not GOD, God!

So, we are grateful because You are sitting on the throne, and You're looking at all the chess pieces being moved by all the international socialists and evil wicked cabals. You are looking at them and laughing, because all their machinations, all their plans, ALL their backroom dark shadowy councils, times a billion and a trillion, can never outsmart You; You, the Creator, the Infinite, the Greatest One, the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last. You are the One, dear God that they tried to outsmart, but they are fools. You confound the wicked and You are blessing Your people.

And THROUGH this tribulation will rise up a new level of son and daughter; through this tribulation, through the dust, through the ashes, a new level of son and daughter will rise up. A son and daughter that is proud to be Your child, a son and daughter that does not bow to the world and the whims and the trends of the world, but stands SOLID on Your Word and stands SOLID on Your Law; stands solid against evil and has the courage, as we are called, to be judges in Your Kingdom, to be kings and priests in Your Kingdom.

Dear God, those are INCREDIBLE positions of INCREDIBLE responsibility and require tremendous BRAVERY, and those are critical things that Your body of Christ must have. We must no longer be scared to be lambasted, hated, scorned and cursed by the world, and censored and de-platformed by the trendies. We must no longer fear those things but we must represent You. We must stand for Your righteousness, which means, we must support things that destroy evil, and especially punish those who go like Lucifer in Genesis chapter 3 and target the children.

Dear God,

Give America the strength to be GODLY again,

Give America the strength to be JUST again,

Give America the strength to be RIGHTEOUS again,

Give America the WISDOM to navigate in this critical, critical, time.

And let us always have hope, not in man but in You, our Lord and Savior, the Rock of our Salvation, the Wellspring of Salvation.

Dear God, let us have YOU as our hope for You have never failed us. Your promises never fail and You will never forsake us. America is in Your hands and we are Your hands and feet.

Dear God,
let us be active,
let us be loving,
let us be brave, and let us be courageous;
let us face these adversities.

Let us embrace the adversities knowing that the battle will make us stronger. And Let us work towards Your cause into Your final purpose with perseverance, with honor, with character and with hope, and always having the love of the Father in our hearts for all men, to bring all men to Your habitations in Your Kingdom.

Dear God, let us have that heart as we stand up against evil. As we fight the wicked, let us always have the heart of Your Kingdom. And let us always, always, fight the good fight with You, standing with You at this critical time in our precious, precious, land.

We want to give You the praise, glory and honor with all those that are together here with Your Three Generation Kingship and we thank You and praise You, giving You the honor, in Your precious name.
Amen! Amen! Aju! (Applause)

All right folks, let's all rise and give God the glory. Let's praise Him today!
