One True God

2022. 11. 27

God bless you! Thank you, King Kyle. Queen Annastasia, beautiful prayer! Oh my gosh! What an amazing prayer! Thank you so much everybody in Pennsylvania for holding it down, and we are here in Tennessee.

Quick Judgment

But it's incredible what has been happening after the curse of the Han mother spread worldwide with the plagues that have covered the earth worldwide for the first time in the history of mankind, and the lockdowns; all those kinds of incredible things which we prophesied right after Father passed. We knew something of that gravity was coming. We prophesied by faith. But for this incredible reality to come within ten years, it's only proof that Father is who he is.

Right now, in Japan, the Family Fraud is literally being shut down. The whole Japanese government is going after it; it's on the news literally EVERY single day. It will not be able to survive and of course not able to send money to the blasphemous apostasy that the Han mother is doing and the nasty disgusting owl temples that she's building in honor of Moloch, one of the satanic gods. And of course, in Korea now it's totally collapsing, just as we said- remember we said this a couple of months ago- they're already selling land, large properties that Father invested in, et cetera. They're selling those lands and now the normal Korean Family Fraud brothers and sisters are starting to realize, "Oh my gosh! Those guys are pocketing money." As they sell more and more it will only become more real to them and the Family Fraud will fracture even more.

It's incredible that those kinds of things are happening at such a rapid rate now, and literally within a ten-year period. While Father's Three Kingships were in Japan, bam! The hammer of judgment fell. That's a short time in the span of history. I was telling the kids that for a worldwide calamity to come seven years after it was prophesied and to have the complete explosion of the heresy of the Han mother within ten years, that's like overnight in terms of history. Remember, Jesus said that he would be risen on the third day and that the Temple would be torn down. That took FORTY years after he passed! Just to give you some context, they had to wait forty years.

Even for us, it felt like seven years, ten years was a long time, but imagine forty years folks! Imagine if once these younger people were like fifty and sixty then the Family Fraud would start exploding! No! You understand how fast this is; it's incredible. When you look at this in the span of history, it's unbelievable how fast Providence moves. There's no more place to run and no more place to continue the fraud and heresy, so God is pouring out that judgment on the microcosmic level.

Matthew 19: 1- 15

Now, let's jump to Scripture. Today we're in Matthew chapter 19. We got a lot to cover; I got to share with you a lot of those very wonderful insights in Jonathan Cahn's new book. We're going to get into that, but let's read chapter 19.

19 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judaea beyond Jordan

2 And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

Did you hear that, folks? "At the beginning!" Not thousands and thousands of years after we evolved from apes and chimpanzees, which the modern religion of evolution in America and in the West espouses. That's not what He said. He said, "at the beginning", not after some time or some evolutionary process. No! "At the beginning!" At the beginning God made them male and female. He had a purpose making them male and female.

5 And said, For this cause

Everybody, say, "cause!" (Cause) What does cause mean? Cause means purpose right? For this purpose or cause

For this purpose or cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

<sup>6</sup> Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

You hear that, folks? The union of husband and wife from the beginning has a cause, has a purpose; it was God's original intention, cause, purpose, from the beginning. So, you can see here in the whole discussion of marriage and family, man and woman, what did Jesus do? Jesus appeals to God, about what? The fact that it's from the beginning of creation. That's what Jesus appeals on; in the whole issue of man and woman, on the whole issue of union and marriage, it is from the beginning. Amen!

<sup>7</sup> They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

<sup>8</sup> He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

Did you hear that? You hear the word again? He said, "from the beginning it was not so." People have become hardened in their hearts, they have become SINFUL; they have separated from God, united with Satan and multiplied evil. So, God did that due to the hardness of their hearts.

<sup>11</sup> But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

<sup>12</sup> For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

There are people that are eunuchs, but he did not say that in the beginning being eunuchs was the purpose. No! In those cases, they may not be able to get married but they're still working for the Kingdom of God. Nevertheless, from the beginning is what? Man and woman. It should be very simple; it should be very, very, very plain. Everybody understands this, but not so today.

<sup>14</sup> But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Again, you see Jesus imbuing children with incredible spiritual value. He said, "You have to be like these children of purity and heart in order to get to the kingdom." Remember, in the ancient world children had no value. These are ancient civilizations where abortion and killing your child and selling them to the state and to the temples was normal, so children have no value in the ancient world. Jesus comes on a scene and says, "No! They have value." They're the most innocent citizens in a society, and how that society treats the most innocent people is going to show a lot about that society. Amen! How you treat the most innocent citizens in your society is a massive indicator of whether you're on God's side or Satan's side.

The Return of the GODS by Jonathan Cahn

Now, all that being said, let's get to it. I want to share with you some passages from this work. He did it quite in depth. Last week we discussed how the three different deities have returned. The re-paganization of America has begun and it has basically taken over Western civilization. We have become a PAGAN country, pagan nation, pagan world, especially with this global system of communication and iPhones that we have. There has been a re-paganization of the West.

Once, through the power of the Gospel and through the power of Christ, these pagan deities were EXORCIZED from the ancient world; they were exorcized from Rome, Greece, Mesopotamia. All these different areas were exorcized; the demons were chased out. They were demon-possessed and they were all chased out and pushed out by the power of Jesus, the power of God. For many, many, generations these gods did not inhabit these lands. They did not inhabit Europe who was actually a very strong Christian continent. America obviously was a very strong Protestant Christian nation, and for many, many, many, many, generations now we have had FREEDOM.

See, Queen Anastasia in her prayer was reminding us, "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." (2 Corinthians 3:17) There is freedom. Freedom from what? Freedom from sin obviously, freedom from the strongholds, freedom from Satan, freedom from evil and wickedness, because Christ is the good that is standing against the darkness and the evil. There's also freedom from the anti-gods that create the civilization; they create the mythological landscape; they create the grand narrative by which these people live and by which they participate in society. The grand narrative of these anti-gods creates an environment, but what do parents do? Parents are not protecting their kids; they're SELLING them to the state, they're SELLING them to be temple prostitutes.

For example, in America now you have women who should be mothers who should be the protectors of children, but they say, "Yeah! I want to kill the baby. I know it's alive but I'm going to kill it!" There are many posts with nurses saying that too. Nurses! These are people in health care saying, "Yeah! I know biologically it's a real human being but yeah, I'll kill it. It's not going to hold on to my body. My body, my choice." They went from mothers being protectors to mothers being MONSTERS; they become monsters. The women in the West that have been influenced by the blood altars of killing the children have become MONSTERS, MONSTROUS women, MONSTROUS demonic possessed women. That all stems from somewhere. It stems obviously from the worship of self, but in a larger context it stems from the anti-gods that we studied last week.

Of Gods and Beings

We talked about Baal. He was very well known as the Golden Calf and he would require the sacrifice of children with Moloch who's the owl; he also does sacrifice and killing of children. Then you have Ishtar, or Asherah; she becomes Aphrodite in the Greek period and Venus in the Roman period.

Remember, last week we talked about the Ninshuburs and the assinnus- assinnu meaning man and woman- being in the parades and festivals of Ishtar or Asherah in the Babylonian ancient world, wherever the people worshipped the goddess. Which is what? We talked about it; it's the Fallen Eve, it's the Fallen Eve that became one with Satan and FELL. It's the spirit of the Fallen Eve, the demon-possessed woman. Remember, Asherah has the assistance of the Ninshuburs, and the Ninshuburs are what? Intersexed beings; they're transgendered beings. And they're the ones who help her; they're the entities that help her escape the underworld. Are you kidding me?

We know that moral degradation leads to a slippery slope. The girls become licentious, they're sleeping around with feminism and the occult and then they're starting to worship Satan. Then they want obviously the baby-killing factories because they are getting unwanted pregnancies and they want to get rid of those children. It's "women's healthcare!" But it's basically for their career so they can keep playing; so they can be a monster and a murderer and they can continue to play.

How do all the Movements Connect?

But how does the whole feminism movement then connect with the gay movement since the gay movement is led by a large proportion of men? Then how does that connect with the transvestite and transgender movement? How do they all link up together? They seemingly have different purposes: one is fighting for man-and-man love, and the other is fighting for "women are better than men," etc. There seem to be different purposes here but they work together. Of course, George Soros and Rockefellers historically have funded these movements especially the second-wave feminism in the 1960s through the Rockefeller Foundation, to increase tax base so the federal government can rob more money from people and of course hurt and destroy the family.

But the point is: how do these different groups come together to work? Well, we saw that Ishtar is not only the goddess of prostitution but she's also the goddess of the eshdam which is the taverns, the alehouses and the pubs; she is their patron goddess and we will look at this today. She is of course the goddess of sexual immorality; she lures people in and as we said last week, she has the assinnus. Remember the male prostitute "priests" that are dancing in her presence?

They're males. What are they? They're EFFEMINIZED men; they're men that look like women and they exaggerate their makeup and all that stuff to look like women. They're effeminized men; manhood is taken out of men and they are made into women.

What's the other side of that? Womanhood is taken out of women and women are encouraged to be what? Like men, burley and grow beards by taking testosterone. No, seriously I'm not joking. Y'all see that nowadays; they're taking testosterone and hormones and they're trying to grow a beard. They are encouraged to become MALE and men.

This is also part of the whole Asherah tradition. Last week we talked about the assinnus, the male prostitutes that dance in her processions and parades, and then of course the Ninshuburs which in their mythology are the intersex beings that helped save her from the underworld. You see how they're putting the transgenders as the heroes?

Transgender Heroes

What is happening in America today with all the young people, the young kids? Whom are they putting as heroes? The heroes are the transgenders; the big bloated obese Asian boy who won a beauty contest in New Hampshire. He's a fat Asian boy and he beat all these fit girls in a beauty pageant. If he was a woman, he would not win that, but because he was "identifying" as a woman he did. He's a male and he's totally obese, which shows no fitness for a beauty pageant, and he's a MALE. He's a man! How does he win a Miss-Universe-owned pageant? Do you see what I'm saying?

<https://www.dailymail.co.uk/femail/article-11430725/Teen-Miss-Americas-transgender-local-title-holder-critics-blast-woke-competition.html>

But the worst is the brainwashed girls and that's very sad. It's not only that the elites would be pushing this because that's expected; they want to further degrade our society and create chaos and confusion, etc. But look how brainwashed the young girls are! They just lost to a fat Porky Pig, they just lost to this big boy who probably played football, and the girls behind him are clapping! Do you understand? That's how brain dead and brainwashed they are. All these beauty pageant girls are clapping for him, "Oh my gosh! It's so wonderful! Oh my gosh!"

What's happening? The male is being encouraged to what? No longer be a male, but take on all the identifying social factors of being a female AND then he wins! He steals these women's scholarships that they can get through these pageants; also, if they win, they tour the country and if they win Miss Universe, they tour the world. Pretty soon you're going to have a MAN winning Miss Universe. Are you kidding me folks? Come on!

General Inspector Kook Jin Nim's in the house today; his wife was Miss Korea. Can you imagine when she was running for Miss Korea that she would have lost to an obese MAN? Come on! This is insanity folks! Insanity! And then look at the young people! For the older generation, it's like "How can you even buy this? This is so ridiculous!" But that's how brainwashed the young people are! They HAVE to applaud this; they HAVE to clap.

It proves the social programming and the social engineering POWER of what? The public education, the state and government education. They can literally make you believe two plus two equal five. By the way in George Orwell's 1984, if you didn't say that two plus two was four, it was a sign that you were brainwashed, that you were a part of the system. They have a whole generation of young kids that are applauding this big boy. By the way he's in a red dress and he's dragged out; he's wearing exaggerated sexual women's makeup. Do you understand? And he wins the beauty pageant, folks! This is incredible!

The Eshdam

But if we look at ancient history, this is not weird. That's what we're going to study today, so let's get into that. We explained that Ishtar the goddess, the Fallen Eve is the goddess of the harimtu, which is the prostitute, and also, she is the goddess of what? The eshdam. What is that? That is the tavern; it's the alehouse, it's the bar, it's the pub. You understand?

In the Bible in Corinthians, Paul was telling us how in Corinth, the temple of Aphrodite existed with great power. Any of the female goddesses or temples would be associated with prostitution. Corinth was a port city so a lot of sailors were coming in. What happens when there are a lot of sailors? There are a lot of bars, taverns along the harbors, and then what? Who's hanging out in the bars trying to tempt the men? The harimtus, the prostitutes.

That's why of course Father said, "Don't drink! Don't smoke! Don't do drugs!" Why? Because they compromise your moral value so that you are more likely to engage and be united with Satan. It's interesting because in ancient times, she was the goddess of the eshdam, the tavern; it was referred to as her home. This was the place in which she would have her priestesses and she would have her followers or supplicants be lured in. But not only that, it wasn't only an alehouse; she was associated with beer, she was the goddess of beer. Isn't that interesting?

We know from modern science that beer increases the estrogenic mimickers in your body so if you're drinking beer, you will grow man boobies. The more beer you drink the more feminine you become because it actually mimics estrogen, as soy does for example. Did you know that? <https://pubs.niaaa.nih.gov/publications/arh22-3/220.pdf>

So, it's the house of altered gender, with estrogen being produced by this beer which she is the patron goddess of. She's the goddess of beer! Isn't it interesting? Not only just of any alcoholic beverage. She's not the goddess of wine; Dionysus may be associated with wine. But Ishtar was known for one beverage in particular, i. e. beer or the alehouse; the goddess dwelled in a house of beer. Isn't that interesting?

Jonathan Cahn didn't write about this but as beer creates estrogen mimickers in the male body, it makes them more and more altered. And Ishtar's whole diabolology as a demonic goddess is what? To alter, to BEND that which should be male, now bending it towards female. What is beer doing? Beer is doing what to you? It's making you inebriated but also making you more feminine by adding estrogen mimickers to your body. So, it's bending your gender; it's altering what you normally are as a male.

For the priests and priestesses of Ishtar, Asherah, Aphrodite, the alehouse was the place where people would come and the girls would then come and try to seduce them, because they were prostitutes. What else happened? The males? Did the males look like burly bearded battle gnomes and dwarfs? No! They dressed as women. What is that called? That's called transvestite. In the modern world a lot of people are doing the drag shows. You have the males dressing as drag trying to lure the men. Can a drunk man know that an effeminate skinny man dressed as a woman is not a woman? Can he decipher? No, he can't; he has no ability to decipher. So, now you will fall not only with the prostitute and the harimtu, but you will follow with the assinnu or the male-woman prostitute, the transvestite. And now you will have done a homosexual act and there's no return.

The Stonewall Inn

People don't know that: in 1969 there was a gay bar that was known for what? Altered gender. It was like a transvestite gay bar where boys would dress up as girls; they would drag it. And then the girls would drag it; they called themselves drag kings- you see in mockery of God's kings and priests. Are you with me folks?

So, in 1969, there was this alehouse in New York City Greenwich Village called The Stonewall Inn. By the way that's right before Father came on the scene in the United States. Literally right before, Satan was already attacking America and trying to kill it. So, a riot took place in this gay bar called Stonewall Inn in 1969.

Let me just give you the general thing first and then we'll go deeper.

<https://www.history.com/news/stonewall-riots-timeline>

Police conducted an evening raid on the Stonewall, and were trying to shut things down but it got so bad, something popped off and a riot ensued. Then what? The cops got scared and barricaded themselves inside the Stonewall Inn, and the rioters started burning the place down to kill the cops. That is known as "the Riot at Stonewall." Have you heard of this? You may have heard of this; that's when they were going crazy with the hippies and all that. But the Stonewall Riot took place, and we're going to get back to that because it's incredible; it's unbelievable! Satan is real, folks.

Ishtar and the Stone Wall

It's interesting because it's called The Stonewall Inn. Ishtar or Asherah also is known as the goddess who sits on the stone wall; she's known in the ancient texts as the goddess who sits on the wall.

(Reading from the book The Return of the Gods by Jonathan Cahn)

"In the Epic of Gilgamesh, Gilgamesh and his associate, Enkidu, slay the bull. Ishtar then mounts the Great Wall of Uruk."

She is known as the goddess that mounts the stone wall.

"Woe unto Gilgamesh who slandered me!"

"The goddess, he said, is a stone that buckles out the stone wall."

Hello! So, she's associated with what? The stone wall. There is a gay bar with male transvestites harintus and assinnus, gathering there; a gay bar, house of beer - she's the patron of beer - and then there's a big riot.

The Lion's Head

Let's keep going. Ishtar's main symbology in terms of animals - a lot of the deities have symbols in terms of animals - is what? The head of the lion; the Lioness is her symbol. It shows that she's bending her gender and she's becoming more powerful than the males; she's becoming a woman warrior while her male priests all worship her. They are all betaized; they're all weakened feminized men. The men don't engage in combat, they become feminized. But the women of Ishtar they engage in combat. They stand above the men. They take on traits of manhood, which is what? To be a PROTECTOR! Christ is the Shepherd; but the females take that role. The females take that role of being the shepherds or the protectors and the males become what? The sheep. They become the sheep!

"Her symbology is the Labbatu or the Lioness. This is from several ancient prayers and poems to Inanna: 'Oh, Ishtar, great lioness of heaven... My lady, lioness of battles who challenges foreign lands... In heaven and earth, you roar like a lion, devastate the people... Like a fearsome lion you pacify the insubordinate and unsubmitable with your gall... on harnessed lions, she cuts to pieces him who shows no respect'."

You see, this is from ancient texts. So, she's the one who rides on the lion. Remember, she's also the one on the stone wall. Guess what building is right next to Stonewall? It is another building called "The Lion's Head." The other building on Christopher Street in Greenwich Village was also "The Lion's Head!" Isn't that interesting?

"After the Stonewall uprising, one of the leading organizations of gay advocacy set up offices in Greenwich Village directly above The Lion's Head."

Right next to what? Stonewall! Oh Lord! Well, we keep going.

The Avatars

"Now she has avatars; they are messengers of the goddess."

That means people who basically become demon-possessed. In the pagan world you'll see people get demon-possessed; they will take on the spirit, they will become the spirit and they start going crazy.

So, you have the warrior woman. Remember, in her processions she makes the males feminized and the women what? Masculinized. All wars have been fought by men; in her mythology she turns that around and all the women become the mythological warriors. Obviously, that's not going to happen in reality by the way; that's not happening anytime soon. But, in her mythology and in the culture that she creates, she sets up the women to be the strong ones and the males to be the subservient ones.

The Bible says in Ephesians 5, "Wives must submit to their husband as the husband submits to Christ." God created order; the husband is to be the head priest of the home. Amen! Flip this around! Now, the WOMAN is the head; the man is the OBJECT; he's under her. Obviously, another reversal.

Ishtar & Fire

"Asherah/Ishtar is also associated with fire."

Why? Because her consort is Baal who is the god of lightning and rain. So, sometimes Ishtar will wield lightning bolts, and of course when lightning hits the earth what happens? FIRE! Fire comes.

In the Stonewall Inn, big riots started following some incident. It was right next to the Lion's Head; both these are symbols of Ishtar and the goddess Fallen Eve. At the same time a fire started. What happened in the fire? Let's see:

"The police report shows that there was somebody who started the riot."

Who was that person? Was it a male dressed as a woman? No, it was a woman impersonating a man who starts the riots.

"Her profile is striking. Like the goddess she had masculine attributes. She was a male impersonator in her normal job. Like the goddess, she was a fierce fighter. The goddess was the patron of the eshdam, the protector of the alehouse. So, the woman believed to have sparked the Stonewall uprising would become known for serving as a protector of the alehouse. She would work as a bouncer for the lesbian bars of Greenwich Village."

She was a woman bouncer. You notice the masculinized female? And what is a lesbian? A lesbian says, "I don't need a man!" What did Jesus say? "Have you not read that He who made them at the beginning made them male and female?" But the lesbian woman says, "No, I don't need a man." She basically says, "I will become a man. I will bend myself to become a man." This is the woman that begins the riots; she is actually a bouncer for the lesbian bars in Greenwich VILLAGE.

Ishtar & the Storms

Also, Asherah or Ishtar is the goddess of the storms. She's the consort of Baal and their union creates storms and rain. There are ancient texts talking about her; let's read a couple of those for example, "Ancient Sumerian and Akkadian writings joining the goddess to the storm are numerous: 'You charge forward like a charging storm. You roar with the roaring storm, you continually thunder... She brought out magnificent battle and called up a great storm... Covered in storm and flood, great lady Inanna (Ishtar)... you destroy mighty lands with arrow and strength and overpower lands... You kept on attacking like an attacking storm. Kept on blowing louder than the howling storm. Kept on thundering..." So, she's also associated with the storm

The Dance of the Goddess

Now, mythologically how does she perpetuate the storm? She DANCES. So, the imagery is almost like the dancing Shiva in Hindu indigenous religion where she's the god of destruction but she's dancing. She's dancing and her dance is creating a storm as she dances. There is mythological power and she's creating a storm. The point is there's a dance. So, what is up with the dance? Well, there's something called the kezertu.

"An ancient Sumerian tablet speaks of a girl who acted like a kezertu, sang songs and played games. One writer observes that she would be involved in a variety of tasks including singing, playing instruments and dancing. The kezertus - listen to this - the women have distinctive hairdos, sing songs and dance. The etymology of the word kezertu comes from the word kezertu which means to curl one's hair." Isn't that interesting? "In the Epic of Gilgamesh, Ishtar summons the kezertus. It says, 'Ishtar called together her people, the dancing and singing girls.'"

Remember that: she called her people the dancing and singing girls.

So, what happened? Fast forward now to 1969 Stonewall again; we're back at Stonewall. We're not in the ancient Mesopotamian world any more, we're back at Stonewall. What happened? This inn is going down; riot, fires. Then what happens? All these drag queens start DANCING in the midst of this destruction. You understand, they start dancing; they start getting possessed by the spirit that's coming down. They start dancing, and then they start chanting; they start singing a song. What do they start singing?

"Their song was a lewd taunt at the police officers there but the lyrics were most significant. They began with, 'We are the Stonewall girls... We wear our hair in curls.'"

Are you kidding me? Did you just hear that, folks? What they're basically saying is what? "We are the kezertus. We are the dancing girls who also can be males." Remember, they can be males; 90% of the patrons were males. So, they're mostly men but they're calling themselves girls, which is the gender-bending nature of Ishtar. Everybody's still with me?

The kezertus also means they have curly hair. Now, in the midst of this pandemonium and the fires and the freaking police officers running and them trying to kill the cops in his bloody ceremony- they want blood, they want blood, they want BLOOD- there's a spirit that possesses them. They start DANCING and they start SINGING. What are they singing? "We are the Stonewall girls; we wear our hair in curls."

<https://www.facebook.com/PrideRunGame/posts/49-years-ago-we-are-the-stonewall-girlswe-wear-our-hair-in-curlswear-no-under/1393181284114768/>

They start singing that, which is another sign that Ishtar's demons and the demon of Fallen Eve was POSSESSING that place. You got to be kidding me!

"Lady of Fire: an ancient hymn of the goddess Inanna Ishtar celebrates her use of the element to bring destruction in battle: 'Raining blazing fire down upon the land... Lady who rides upon a beast... Destroyer of the foreign lands, you confer strength on the storm... Their great gateways are set afire.'"

These gods had become foreign to the Judeo-Christian world. Now, they had come back in 1969 at Stonewall. Wait a minute, that probably was an isolated incident or something like that. What's all this focus on Stonewall? I'm glad you asked.

The Moon, the Sun and the Spell

In the ancient Mesopotamian calendar, the month of June is called Tammuz. Who is Tammuz? Tammuz is the adulterous lover of Inanna Ishtar. She's the consort of Baal the sky God, but she got other lovers on the side as all these demonic demons always have. One of her main lovers is Tammuz; his month is June. That's the month where she was angry because he offended her and she killed him with her bow. This is mythology; it's not real. This is all fake demons. In that mythology she kills Tammuz with a bow. Tammuz descends to the underworld and she regrets killing him because "she loved him so much." Now it's the month of "unfulfilled longings, unanswered passions, desires denied." All this ridiculousness; all this romance stuff that girls fall in for the satanic culture. That's how they tempt you girls in; through satanic romance, not love of your husband, not love of Christ. They tempt you in by satanic romance. That's why Korean dramas are women's porn.

"The month of Tammuz is June. In the month of June there is the tenth of Tammuz."

That's the tenth day of the month of Tammuz, which is what? That is the summer solstice; when the sun is the highest, the day is the longest and the night is the shortest of the year. Pagan cultures center most of their energetic rituals around summer solstice and winter solstice. That's why for example the winter solstice December 25th is not Jesus' birthday; the Bible shows that he was born in the spring. But the pagans celebrated their god on December 25th; that's the winter solstice. In the early Christian period, you were killed if you didn't worship the Greek deities, so on that day, the Christians would pretend that they were worshipping the false deity, but really, they were worshipping Jesus.

The point is: winter solstice and summer solstice are major places of solar distance from the earth. These pagan cultures believe that in the summer when the night is the shortest and the day is the longest there is a certain energetic power. What is that energetic power? Well, let's look at what spell is cast on the tenth of Tammuz. What spell would that be?

"An ancient Babylonian text reveals that the day of the tenth of Tammuz was given to perform the spell to cause A MAN TO LOVE A MAN!"

It's a gay spell that is cast on the tenth of Tammuz summer solstice!

Now, WHEN DID the STONEWALL RIOTS happen? On the EXACT date of the tenth of TAMMUZ, with all the drag queens and the dancing and calling themselves the curly-hair girls of Stonewall, and with the lion's head and with the fires and the storms. All on the day when the gay spell is cast for a man to love a man. Hello! The gay spell is cast on that day. WHEN did the RIOTS HAPPEN? Well, it just so happened to be on the gay-spell day. Are you kidding me folks? Huh?

The Stonewall Parade

There certainly can't be any more to that! So, we have the Stonewall riots which seem like some kind of a random story. There's some incredible line up with certain days and ancient summer solstices and energetic power of gay spell casting on that particular day when these riots happened. All that ties to Ishtar and her being the stone wall goddess, and the Lion's Head is right there, and the gay activist groups are right there in the biggest gay town of New York. That all seems like coincidence.

What happened after the Stonewall riots?

"Five months after Stonewall, gay activists met in Philadelphia and planned a march to commemorate the Stonewall uprising to take place the following summer in New York City. It was to be repeated every year on the last Sunday of June." Remember, June is the month of Tammuz. "There was supposed to be one in New York City, and one in San Francisco, one in Chicago, one in Los Angeles on Hollywood Boulevard. There were to be protest marches and parades at the same time... On June 28 1970 the one-year anniversary of the Stonewall riots, the participants gathered in Greenwich Village near Stonewall to begin what was called the Christopher Street Liberation Day March... As planned, the parade would be repeated every summer as an annual observance. ...The parades would be called Gay Liberation Marches, then Gay Pride Parades and then simply Pride Parades..."

Do you understand? The gay parades that we see and that have now become the symbol of Western DEBAUCHERY started at Stonewall under the dance of Ishtar.

"The first march in Los Angeles down Hollywood Boulevard was called the Christopher Street West Association Parade, to identify it as Stonewall western extension. Many of the Pride Parades and festivities in Europe were also part of what was called the Christopher Street Day celebration."

It didn't only cover America it started crossing the sea and started covering Europe.

"All the Pride Parades, marches, processions and festivities had their BIRTHPLACE at Stonewall," the gate of Ishtar's vengeance.

Are you kidding me folks? Did you know that the gay parades started at the ALEHOUSE of which she was the goddess, with all that ancient symbology and the demon actually possessing the gay supplicants who were her servants? Come on! It's ridiculous!

Parade of the Goddess

Well certainly there can't be any more than that!

"The ancient writings of Mesopotamia described them: 'The people of Sumer parade you. I say "Hail!" to Inanna (Ishtar), Great Lady of Heaven! They beat the holy drum and timpani before you... They play the holy harp and timpani before you... The people of Sumer parade before you.' The parades of the goddess featured men dressed as women, women dressed as men, each dressed as both, male priests parading as women and cultic women acting as men."

Carnivals of Pride

Uh-huh! Well, what else Mr. Mesopotamian scholar?

"It was a carnival-like procession". The writer is now describing the ancient processions; listen to this. "Not only do the people parade playing musical instruments but also costumed asexual or hermaphrodite personnel, transvestites, wearing male attire on their right side and female attire on their left... One of her hymns addresses Inanna as the impetuous lady, PROUD amongst the Anuna gods... full of - what? Pride..."

Muddy Paints, Artful Eyes, and Purple Stripes

"In his novel Metamorphoses the second-century Roman writer Apuleius gives a glimpse into the spectacle that would attend the goddess's parade." The second century Apuleius is writing: "The following day they went out, wearing various colored undergarments with turbans and saffron robes and linen garments thrown over them, and everyone hideously made up their faces crazy with muddy paints and their eyes artfully lined." Do men artfully line their eyes? Hello? No! "Some wore tunics, fastened with belts, with purple stripes flowing in every direction like spears and yellow shoes on their feet."

So, we see the spectacle of the men dressing as women, putting on what? Heavy makeup, which is the cornerstone of what? The Pride Parades! It's gay men doing what? Dressing up in DRAG! Is that true or not, folks? That is LITERALLY the symbol of the Gay Pride. It's men, or female lesbians dressed as men and they're usually wearing leather or something like that. But the men are dressed up as girls and they have HEAVY, HEAVY drag makeup as the SECOND-century Apuleius in the Roman period was writing about. It's not new folks; this parade is Ishtar's parade from the second century.

It's one of the anti-gods of the Bible; the consort of the main god, the Fallen Eve. Baal would be the Lucifer figure, the Archangel figure, and Inanna (Ishtar) would be what? Fallen Eve that fell with Satan, gave herself to Satan instead of to her husband and to God.

Sign of the Two Ishtars

So, there is a sign of Ishtar which is the sign of the woman. In the modern day the sign of the woman is what? It is a cross with a circle on top. The circle is the sun of this or that god, but also in ancient symbology the circle was what? The womb. So, WHO's sitting on top of Jesus? Is it God the Father? No! The symbol of woman is sitting on top of Jesus' crucified body; it's the womb of the woman, the Fallen Eve. Are you kidding me?

“The first to use that sign of the woman was the Swedish botanist Carl Linnaeus in the 18th century. He used it to represent female flowers. Linnaeus took the symbol from the Greeks, who used it to represent the metal copper, which was associated with the planet Venus.”

Venus was who? Aphrodite. Aphrodite was who? She was the Greek incarnation of Ishtar. So, that female symbol LITERALLY is a symbol of Ishtar, which is the Fallen Eve, the demonic goddess.

Now remember, all these gay parades which are now a HALLMARK of New York and the big cities, they do them in what month? In JUNE, which is Ishtar's and Tammuz's month of longing, of frustration, of CHAOS, from the month when it took place. Those marches are organized every year, bigger and bigger, in more and more cities with more and more people; millions of people take part in them in the Western World, and they have now literally become the symbol of the West. We don't do big Christian processions with massive crosses in the streets anymore; we don't do that anymore. The West is known worldwide for what? The flamboyant licentious lewd-body parades, which all started at the Stonewall Alehouse Inn of the goddess.

Sappho and the Terrible Enchantress

Another hallmark of the gay parades is what? The lesbians. Now what about this modern revival of lesbianism?

“The modern revival of lesbianism takes inspiration from the Greek poet Sappho. Sappho led a thiasos, a community of young women for which she served as a teacher. Her sexuality is to this day a matter of debate, but her writings appear to indicate a romantic or erotic attraction to women... Sappho was born on the Greek island of Lesbos. From the name of that island comes the word lesbian. Thus, behind the word lesbian is the island of Lesbos. Behind Lesbos is Sappho. Behind Sappho is Aphrodite. And behind Aphrodite is Ishtar Inanna.”

So, another trademark of the gay parades is the male drags AND the women lesbians, and even their name “lesbian” traces back to the worship of Ishtar, the Fallen Eve.

The Double-Edged Axe

“In the 1970s a symbol was adopted by the emerging lesbian movement.”

What was the symbol? Was it a rose or a flower; a violet, an orchid? NO! It was not that. Why? Because women are not supposed to be women; they're supposed to be what? MEN! So, now we're going to assume that it's some type of masculine thing. It was a double-edged AXE on a purple flag! That was the symbol of the revival of lesbianism. The double-edged axe was the symbol of lesbianism that started getting paraded around.

Weapon of the Priestess

“It is found in the writings of ancient Mesopotamia, in the city of Sumer: ‘The people of Sumer parade before you... The young men, who carry hoops, sing to you’...”

Do you see? So, do the young men carry weapons? Or what do they carry? They carry hoops, which is the symbol of the womb, symbol of the woman. At the same time what are they doing? Are they just carrying these hoops? They're also dressing up as women. The men are dressed up as women carrying hoops; the young men are feminized.

“The maidens and coiffured priestesses walk before you; they carry the sword.”

These are the priestesses. The women are carrying the sword, and what? “They carry the ...double-edged AXE!” In the processions of the ancient Mesopotamia for the goddess Ishtar (Inanna), Fallen Eve, it was the symbol that the women who were masculinized had to bear; meaning that they didn't abide by the traditional gender role of male and female. They're masculinized. And what do men want? You want a woman or a man? A woman. So, now the masculinized women want what? A woman. The lesbian wants a woman; the woman wants a woman.

Little did they know that the symbol of the double-edged axe was the symbol that the female priestesses carried in the satanic prostitute cult of Inanna, showing that they were the warriors and the men were the girls. This became the flag of the feminist lesbian movement in the West. Are you kidding me? This is crazy! Come on!

The Sacred Month

“In the wake of Stonewall, the gay activists established marches and parades to celebrate homosexuality, and then an entire week, Gay Pride Week. But in ancient times the goddess laid claim to entire MONTH of observance and parades. So, Gay Pride Week was then transformed into Gay Pride Month; later shortened to Pride Month... It was a strange phenomenon. The celebrating of that which once occupied the forbidden corners of society had come to PERMEATE and DOMINATE American and Western culture. America and other nations of the West were now devoting an entire month to honor, praise and celebrate a form of sexuality that a little while earlier had nearly universally been viewed as a form of immorality. Now it was being treated as sacred.” And hating God.

Holy shmita! Are you kidding me folks? They're now treating the Pride Month as the SACRED month of their worship, of debauchery and immorality.

Junium

“Saint Jerome, who lived in the Roman Empire -in the early part of the Christian history- was most famous for producing the Vulgate, the Latin translation of the Bible. But he was also known for writing biblical commentaries. One of these was on the Book of Ezekiel. It was that book that contained the description of the Hebrew women, in the spirit of Ishtar, weeping for Tammuz. In commenting on the passage in Ezekiel, Jerome drew from his knowledge of the observances, rituals and practices that were still being performed at the time of his writing.

His original words in Latin read: ‘Quem nos Adonidem interpretati sumus, et Hebraeus et Syrus sermo Thamuz vocat...’ Adonis is called Tammuz both in Hebrew and Syria...” Then he writes of the god's death... that in the month of June is killed. So, Jerome identifies the time of Tammuz 's death as the month of June. He continues “They call this month of June by the same name, and keep an annual festival in his honor.”

It's incredible that 2,000 years later a Judeo-Christian land is dedicating the entire month of June to sexual debauchery, celebrating it bigger than the Fourth of July!

Festival of Inversion

But there surely cannot be more!

“The modern observance was not a lamentation over the separation of male and female - but a celebration.”

Because now male desires male; female desires female. They don't want “male desires female”, so they don't lament over separating male and female. They actually celebrate it; they actually celebrate male after male. Remember this is the month when the summer solstice rises on the tenth of the Tammuz month. And what happens? The spell is cast. What is that spell? The gay spell where a man wants love with a man. Remember that song, “When a man loves a woman?” (Singing) Now it doesn't go like that; he goes “When a man loves a man.” Okay, you get the point. That's what they turned that into. It's crazy!

The Licentious Rites of Midsummer

“The early church historian Eusebius writes of the same Temple of Venus/ Aphrodite/ Ishtar in Phoenicia, on which the rights and processions of June were centered. ‘...the votaries of impurity ... destroyed their bodies with effeminacy...”

You hear that? The men destroyed their bodies with what? Effeminacy. They became effeminate and betaized.

“Here men undeserving of the name forgot the dignity of their sex ...here too unlawful commerce of women and adulterous intercourse, with other horrible and infamous practices...”

The Temple of Venus

That's the early church historian Eusebius writing about this temple.

“Thus, one of the most overlooked signs of the conversion of Western civilization to Christianity was the ENDING of the monthlong celebrations of mid-summer with its June parades and gender-crossing spectacles.”

Did you hear that? The hallmark of a Christian nation was getting RID of these June mid-summer debauchery parades. That's what Christian nations did; they got rid of that because it destroyed and poisoned the next generation.

“And thus, the return of the monthlong celebration of midsummer, the revival of the June parades, and reappearance of the gender-crossing spectacles were not an accident. It was a sign of the de-Christianization of Western civilization and its subsequent re-paganization.”

It became the month of apostasy where Christians would participate or stand by or just stay quiet while the apostasy spread across the once Christian West.

The Rainbow Flag

Well, surely there can't be more! What was the major sign of the gay parade? It was the sign of the rainbow as everybody knows; the Pride Flag as they call it.

“The rainbow flag was designed by Gilbert Baker an openly gay man and drag queen.”

You see how that goes together gay and drag queen? What does that mean? He's dressing up in costume women's makeup and clothing.

“The rainbow flag was first flown on June 25th 1978.”

Again, in the mid-summer of? June; in the month of? Tammuz; in the month-long celebration of debauchery, and the spell of what? Gay!

“In 1994, it became the official symbol of gay pride. It soon became the ubiquitous symbol of the movement and was flown and recognized all over the world.”

<https://www.businessinsider.com/biden-to-allow-us-embassies-to-fly-pride-flag-reversing-a-trump-decision-2021-4?IR=T>

The crazy thing is that even governments started flying this flag under their flags; the U.S embassy for one. In the United States embassy, NEVER can you fly another flag because you're representing the United States. You cannot fly another flag with it. NEVER has anything been flown in the U.S embassies which are our representatives in different countries; except the Pride flag. We're going to get back to that because it doesn't end there; I'm sorry it doesn't end there.

Pink: “The first color of the original rainbow was pink; it represented sex.

Yellow: The fourth color of the rainbow flag was yellow. It represented the light of the sun.

Green: The fifth color of the rainbow flag was green. It represented the vital forces of nature, the fruitfulness of the earth, the rain, thunder... It represented nature.

Turquoise: The sixth color of the rainbow was turquoise. Ishtar was deeply connected to the realm and practice of magic. It represented magic."

Indigo: The seventh color of the rainbow flag was indigo. It represented serenity.

Violet: Violet represents spirit, and is especially connected with Aphrodite."

And of course, it is the color of the Harlot of Babylon as well, that we see in Revelation.

Rainbow Ishtar

"Ishtar was the goddess of the sky, queen of heaven, master of tempest, hurler of lightning bolts, giver of rain. The ancient hymn praises her for it: 'Loud Thundering Storm, you pour your rain over all the lands and all the people.' She controlled the storm. There is an ancient Elamite inscription that reads 'Manzat Ishtar.'"

Manzat Ishtar, which means what? RAINBOW Ishtar. The color of the goddess Fallen Eve was Manzat Ishtar; the color of her pride, the color of her separation from God's cause and purpose. The color was rainbow! Are you kidding me?

The Jewels of Heaven

"The Epic of Gilgamesh, in the wake of the colossal rain and deluge, 'Ishtar also came. She lifted her necklace with the jewels of heaven. -the rainbow.

The Goddess with the Rainbow Eyes

There is the strange description of the goddess as contained in an ancient Babylonian hymn of her praise: '...her eyes are multicolored and iridescent.'"

As a Rainbow

"And then there's the myth of the goddess and the gardener. A gardener plants a tree under which the goddess lies down and she falls asleep. While the goddess is asleep, the gardener rapes her."

In this mythological tale obviously, she gets angry.

"When she awakes... she flies into a rage and begins sending down plagues on the earth. She then goes to her father to seek his help. He tells her where the gardener is hiding. She sets out to find him. How she sets out on her mission of vengeance is striking."

So, now she's going to kill that man. How does she embody herself?

"The ancient tablet said 'she stretched herself like a rainbow across the sky and reached thereby as far as the earth'."

Are you freaking kidding me? According to the ancient tablet, the rainbow, the Manzat Ishtar, was the color and the symbol of her vengeance. Oh my gosh! So, then the Pride Flag comes in as what? It becomes a war flag for the gays; their Pride Flag becomes their war flag in all their parades, all there this and that. The Rainbow Flag becomes the flag of vengeance, "we're going to get after all of you Christians who persecute us, and we're going to get all your children to fly this rainbow flag!" The power of vengeance!

Days of the Goddess

"According to ancient mystery, it took place in the month of Tammuz and in Western calendar, in the month of June. It was set in motion with days of the summer solstice and centered on the full moon of Tammuz, all linked to the goddess. It was all sealed on June 26 1969, the tenth of Tammuz; the day that in the Babylonian calendar, was ordained for the casting of spells. What spells? To cause a man to love a man."

The first Door: Legalization of Homosexuality

It certainly can't go any deeper! No way! What happened to our country after the Stonewall Riots and after forty years of Gay Pride parades etc. Well, let's see:

*"One door for Ishtar was open; that was the legalization of homosexuality. The case that legalized it was Lawrence v. Texas in 2003. It resulted in the Supreme Court decision that legalized homosexuality throughout the United States... When was the Supreme Court decision handed down? It happened in the summer, in the month of JUNE. It came toward the end of June at the specific time set aside for the ceremonies of worship of Tammuz and Ishtar.*

June 26, 2003

More specifically the ruling that legalized homosexuality across America was handed down on June 26 2003. June 26th was the same exact date that the Stonewall uprising was sealed, when its warrant was issued, and the legal authorization was given to set everything else in motion."

The same date! The same exact day as the Stonewall uprising and the start of all the gay parades, the start of the gay movement, the revival of lesbianism; all that stuff that led to the repaganization of America and the West and the celebration of debauchery.

"The legalization of homosexuality actually was made into LAW the same day!" Are you kidding me?

The Second Door: Overturning the Defense of Marriage

Well, it certainly can't go any deeper than that!

*"The second door was forced open in a landmark Supreme Court case of the United States v. Windsor in 2013; it resulted in the ruling that would overturn the Defense of Marriage Act. It would lead to a federal government's recognition of same-sex marriage performed in states where it had at that point been legalized. It would also open the door to an even more momentous Supreme Court ruling that would come two years later. When was the ruling that overturned the Defense of Marriage Act handed down? It happened in the summer of 2013, in the month of JUNE, within days of the summer solstice towards the end of June, the days especially identifying with the Festival of Tammuz.*

June 26th 2013

On what exact date did the ruling come? The Defense of Marriage Act was overturned on June 26th 2013; ten years to the same exact day the Supreme Court legalizing homosexuality in 2003!" The same day!

The Third Door: The Overturning of Marriage

"The third door was forced open in the Supreme Court case Obergefell v. Hodges. This is the Supreme Court ruling which legalized same-sex marriage all across America." This was the third door.

June 26, 2015

*"When exactly did same-sex marriage get legalized across America? Marriage as the covenant of man and woman was struck down on June 26, 2015!

The same exact date that the Defense of Marriage Act was overturned in 2013

The same exact date that homosexuality was legalized in 2003, and

The same exact date that Stonewall was sealed in 1969."

Causing riots that led to gay parades that spread over the world! That's kind of crazy isn't? Are you happy I shared this with you today? This is pretty creepy. Oh my gosh!

"And so, all three landmark events that pushed open the ancient door took place on the exact same day!"

That cannot happen by coincidence folks! It's not possible. That's clearly the work of Satan.

Fingerprints of the Gods

"...All three Supreme Court rulings on the exact day, and the day Stonewall was sealed. They all converged at a same time of special import and intensity on the ancient pagan calendar. They all took place at a time specifically connected to an ancient spirit- Ishtar- and the spirit is especially connected with the bending of gender and the altering of sexuality."

Night of the Rainbow

So, what happened on those days, folks, when America became further and further destroyed and killed? It was known as the night of the rainbow:" It was the sign of the goddess, the Manzat Ishtar, the Rainbow. That night the sign of the goddess the colors of the rainbow lit up the Empire State Building. It lit up waters of the Niagara Falls. It lit up the iconic castle at Disney World. And most dramatically, it lit up the building from which America was governed the White House."

All lit up by the iridescent colors of Manzat Ishtar, Rainbow Ishtar, the Fallen Eve harlot! America was now symbolized by the harlot!

Night of the Ancient Spell

In the biblical calendar you have to know that the day starts at sundown, so the night the rainbow lit up the White House this was a new day. So, after all those landmark victories what do they do? At night, which is the new day in biblical times, they put up the Manzat Ishtar rainbow flags, the colors. That is a new day in the biblical calendar, you understand?

“The night the rainbow lit up the White House, it was a new day of the ancient calendar.” What was the new day? “It was the tenth of Tammuz, the day appointed from ancient times for the spell to be cast- for what? - to cause a man to love a man.”

The gay spell would be cast, LEGALIZED, set in stone, made into law, and its supplicants and patrons would be praised and worshiped as heroes of the new culture of hell. Isn't it crazy? Let's give God a big, big shout of glory, because amidst all this craziness God is still alive. Amen! Come on! Let's praise God! Let's praise God! Big praise! (Applause) Because even amidst all this, they can never win; they never can win. God wins! Winning, winning, winning; God wins, wins, wins, wins, wins.

The Altering of Memory

“One's identity is rooted in one's past... America would be given an altered memory, an altered history. Old landmarks and monuments would be reinterpreted and removed... The Stonewall Inn, the site of the uprising against the police would now become a national landmark.”

Crosses into Rainbows

“While crosses and other symbols representing God, Scripture and the Christian faith were being removed from public property and public square, the sign of the goddess was brought in to be displayed in their place.”

In public schools, classrooms, courthouses, in yards of government buildings and U.S. EMBASSIES, the cross could never be flown. But they flew the Manzat Ishtar flag symbolizing DEBAUCHERY and lewdness, as America, as our identity, and they did it all over the world. Woah! Truly the re-paganization of a once Christian nation.

“Police officers would march in her processions. And the rainbow now began appearing on police cars. The war flag of the rainbow would be blown by government officials, embassies, Feds, everyone.”

Even churches, dang-on-it, even churches! You understand, folks? And they say we're a cult. Huh? Yeah, we're a cult because we stand against Manzat Ishtar and Baal, and Moloch.

So unbelievable folks! Can anyone believe all that crazy history? Did you know that it all started at Stonewall? It all started with her procession and the dance of the goddess, the riots, the dancing, the curled hair, the men dressing as women, the bending of the genders, the Ninshuburs, the assinnus, the prostitutes; the war flags of the Manzat Ishtar, stretching herself as a rainbow across the sky, bringing debauchery to the world. This has now become the symbol of the West. We are now known for the crazy debauchery and licentious gay parades that are broadcasted across the globe for tolerance and liberal progressiveness and to increase state power.

The Cult of Ishtar and Children

Jonathan Cahn doesn't attach one more reversal. They reverse man to woman and woman to man. They reverse marriage into gay marriage. See how they reverse everything; everything is flipped over. But he forgot this: they reverse adult to child and child to adult. This is the transgenderism system. The transgenderism system seeks to what? Give adult rights to children. That's a reversal. That's probably the biggest reversal because now you're reversing the entire reality of the civilization; the least competent and not able to make decisions are now the ones that will be making decision. That's why the Left is trying to say, "Well, we need to LOWER the voting age limit MORE." What are they saying? What is AOC saying? 16 years old now? Maybe they should not be voting until 30 or 40, or until they own land, seriously speaking. You have to have a stake in understanding what the vote means. But anyways they're trying to LOWER it to 16.

They flip not only male to female and female to male, but now adult to child. We see it in this generation; the adults are like children. They're addicted on sports, they're addicted on video games, they don't take care of their children, they divorce like it means nothing, they have multiple children out of wedlock, they're slaves of the state receiving welfare; they're total losers, they're not serious about parenting. The parents, the adults are becoming children. Are you with me folks?

Then what are they trying to do? They're trying to give LEGAL rights to children to become what? ADULTS! We know where that leads. It doesn't just lead to mutilating themselves at 12-13 years old, so that the Pharmaceuticals and the doctors make a lot of money; doing these massively expensive surgeries with complications of up to eight or ten surgeries PER mutilation. They're trying to get those kids without parental consent to agree and try to pretend that they're a girl or a boy, the opposite gender.

WHY? They're trying to create a legal precedence. If you can decide at 5 or 10 years old that you're going to permanently mutilate your body, and if society is going to say, "Okay, you have the capacity to think long-term like an adult and you can make that decision at 5 years old"; if society gets down there, guess what society has to do? It has to say, "Well, if that 5-year-old can make legal decisions for mutilating their body, getting any type of surgery they want, that 5-year-old should also have the right to what? Choose its sexual partner!"

By the way, the UN has been trying to push down the age of consent to the age of 10.

<https://www.ageofconsent.net/world>

In Germany it's 14. So, 14-year-old girls can date 40, 50, 60, 70-year-old men who can have sex with them, and the men don't get in trouble. The cabal connected with Epstein Island, and all the pedophiles on the list hidden and covered up by the FBI, they want the children. Why? Because that's another secret part of the cult of Ishtar which Cahn didn't write about; he should have written about it.

The real cult of Ishtar was not the male prostitute and the female prostitute. What was it? They were CHILDREN! That was the reality of Ishtar's prostitutes; they were children. They were being sold into prostitution as they are for example in India in the common day to another goddess demonic Fallen Eve goddess in the cult of Yellamma. Girls are being sold at 3 or 5 years old to be raped, pillaged and plundered.

See, that's what he did not write; he should have exposed that. In the end the devil Satan is after the children not only defiling but raping, killing, devouring, eating, destroying, blood rituals, everything. All these ancient practices which are thought to have disappeared? No! They reappeared in the gateways; bringing in the culture of Baal, Ishtar and Moloch back to where? To the center of the most powerful Christian nation that ever has walked the earth: the United States of America. To de-Christianize it and re-paganize it. Because if America fell, the whole world would be the slaves, the supplicants of the anti-gods and Satan.

God is Listening to our Prayers

So, is all hope lost? Is it all done? Well, remember just a few weeks ago, (September 18, "Ripening of the Fig Tree") we were praying together. And we were preaching on the fact that we have a thermonuclear war on the horizon, but that we should pray for something very important to happen in China, and that is that a revolution may start inside the country. Remember this? Everybody was on a prayer list and praying for China to start breaking up from within.

What is happening in China right now folks? GOD is answering the prayers of His people and now not only are there protests in China but riots are now happening as they continue new lockdowns; CHINA is starting to unfurl. This is a SIGN that GOD is listening to the PRAYERS of the faithful. He is LISTENING to the microcosm. FATHER in HEAVEN is LISTENING to our prayers! Potentially that itself may reduce the risk of thermonuclear war by an incredible amount. PLEASE PRAY for the patriots in China that they KEEP it UP and they don't give up, because they're going to get killed anyway. They're going to die anyway.

<https://www.instagram.com/p/ClgidPbgaH5/>

They're freaking picking up the metal barricades that the cops put up; they're picking them up and they're whacking the cops with them. What they're doing is assault with a deadly weapon; they're actually fighting. They're going to die for this. You understand? They're going to die; those people will be arrested and killed. But they are doing it. This is China. Let's give God some praise! We got to give God some praise. Come on, let's give God some praise! (Applause)

Pray for the people of the world! It's starting to happen. Remember that? We specifically asked everybody to pray for China to have internal struggles and revolts or uprising; for people rising up against tyranny. Now, they're going to clamp down harder, they're going to do more lockdowns. Obviously, it's going to get worse, before it gets better. It's not going to get easier; it's going to get worse. But this situation may slow down the potential for thermonuclear war a lot as long as it keeps happening; this is actually essential.

God, Father in Heaven, Jesus, True Father are listening to our prayers, folks! Let's give them some praise! (Applause) Come on! Let's give them some praise this day! Oh, my Lord, have mercy!

But we got to keep praying. We got to keep righteous folks.

“Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.”

(Matthew 6:33) We've got to keep the path. Amen! We've got to keep strong on that path and we can never lose hope, never lose faith, because when the darkness gets darker, what happens? The light becomes brighter even though it's small. Even though it's small, “the small light passed out ten thousand years of darkness” is the old phrase, right?

God has called us to be a light on the hill. God has called us to be His light in this world. Not the light of Lucifer, that's a fake light. NO! The light of Christ, the light of SACRIFICIAL love, LAYING down your life for people who don't deserve it. That's what Christ grace did for anybody who receives him, and that is the beginning point of the culture of freedom. It's knowing that you've been freed; you're no longer a SLAVE of your master Satan. Amen! You've been freed from him. That's why the Blessing is so important for your lineage, the fruit of your loins, your seed, to be freed. Amen! Spiritual and physical salvation!

So, we must stand strong in this time of darkness, strong in this critical hour but there are signs that we can see, because remember, we were praying DIRECTLY for this issue. Is that true or not? Remember, I announced it here that China had to erupt. God is hearing our prayers. So, we have to pray for the people in China, Taiwan and all those places, that those people remain strong at this time. Japan and Korea could be under attack. There are now new leaked battle plans from Russia that they're strategically looking to attack Japan.

So, it's a dangerous, dangerous period right now, BUT at the same time, we have confidence and we have hope; we know what God is doing. God is bringing down the satanic kingdoms. The Han mother's failures can't stop God; they only delay the Providence. But they can't stop God's Providence. WHY? Because she's NOT God! She's one with Manzat Ishtar. That's why she wears the heretic apostasy violet robes praising herself with the scepter and the garland around herself. You see that folks? Oh my God! Becoming the Harlot of Babylon, bringing a curse from the micro to the macro. We see it; it's happening, unfolding before our eyes.

So, we must stay vigilant and stay STRONG and be of good COURAGE at this critical time, because ONLY GOD, ONLY God can lead and bring in the Kingdom that is coming.

Join me in prayer.

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father God, we thank You for this beautiful day. We thank You for this incredible Word that You've given us today. We thank You for Matthew chapter 19 where You teach us the value of the little ones and how society must protect them and feed them.

At the same time, You teach us how in the beginning You created them male and female and for that cause they would leave their father and mother and they would be joined into one flesh. You had the purpose of creation centered of the covenant of marriage to further the FRUITS of the marriage which is Your LINEAGE, Your lineage on this earth, YOUR Kingship.

Dear God, You have done SO much, and now things are opening up, things are being revealed at this critical time. We pray that the fog be lifted from people's eyes, that they be made whole and that they may be seeing anew.

Let those who have ears to hear and eyes to see, SEE the coming of the Kingdom, see the establishment of the Kingdom of God that has been released into the atmosphere!

Let the demons and the anti-gods with their minds on Ishtar FAIL and plummet from the skies into the fiery furnace!

Let all the satanic demons VOMIT as they try to destroy the Judeo-Christian HEART of America!

Let that heart begin to once again beat for YOU, dear Lord!

Let it be COVERED by the blood of Jesus and by the blood of the Blessing!

Let it be SHIELDED from the iniquities of the wicked!

Let it FLOURISH once again, come BACK to You once again and STAND against unrighteousness once again; EXORCIZING the demonic anti-gods from this land forevermore, to WORSHIP You, to praise You and to give You joy as YOUR people, as YOUR children, as Your heirs and representatives in this Kingdom, in this world, with our families and as kings and priests STANDING with Your Three Generation Kingship.

We pray and offer these things in Your precious name. Amen! Amen! Aju!

Let's all rise folks to praise the Lord! Amen!
