A Just Rule

2023. 05. 21

(Applause) Thank you! Thank you, King Gregg! Praise God!... Praise God! It's very important in the Cheon Il Guk culture and Kingdom culture to pray for one another. Amen! We got to pray for one another. You want to do something fun right now? Turn to your neighbors and tell them, "I'm praying for you." Go ahead! Tell them, "I'm praying for you." Now, half of you are lying! [Laughter] Don't lie now, don't lie! We're supposed to be praying for one another. That culture of praying for another and rooting for one another is a very, very, important Kingdom culture. Amen!

Especially when the couples are doing the date training, that's Kingdom investment training. When couples are doing the Kingdom date culture and the training and all that, they're making Satan, the Devil cry. We have to be rooting for one another and especially for the young couples that are making that commitment to the Kingdom culture, raising their kids centering on God, True Parents and the Constitution etc. It's so beautiful, so wonderful!

Memorial Day Weekend

Folks, next week is Memorial Day weekend. That's the day we all should remember, as we honor the fallen heroes, the people who died for freedom so that we can be free in this country and not live in a commie Nazi state which the federal government is becoming. Memorial Day is very important and Memorial Day is coming up next week.

Everybody's been praying for evangelism and outreach and sharing; we're just getting some flyers and material ready so people can hand them out, invite people to church, etc. Of course, we're not totally set here because we still got no bathroom here; it's coming soon. This is just the Welcome Center.

The large sanctuary there will have a road straight from the main road; an actual asphalt-paved road into the main sanctuary parking lot. It will be much easier access and a much larger building for probably 200-300 people in the main sanctuary. This is the Welcome Center and it can be used as an overflow hall and also as a dojo B hall, because there will also be full kitchen and dormitories in the basement of the new sanctuary. That's where the Academy will be held; there will be a classroom down there and all this kind of stuff. But it will be much easier access.

The point is: remember Memorial Day weekend. Everybody's been praying especially in Tennessee to make a good conditional offering of twelve new blessed couples; it's a very important foundation. Twelve new blessed couples that understand the Principle, that understand blood lineage, that understand coming under Father's authority, etc., and then become new tribes and lineages under Christ; twelve lines as a conditional offering foundation stage here in Tennessee. A lot of people have been praying for that and if not, please pray for that, and keep that on your heart in terms of sharing the Gospel and bringing people to the Kingdom.

Christianity vs. Islam

Everybody's been praying like this especially for the Abel-type Christians, the Abel-type patriots, the gun owners, the alpha males and females that still exist in this land; the patriots that are really the last remnant and the last hope, as Christianity in the West has become feminized, "sissified," weakened and taken over.

Then you have more dangerous ideologies that are alpha-male oriented like Islam that is TAKING over Europe, completely swallowing up Europe and now famous influencers like Andrew Tate who are very popular even amongst the Tennessee young boys apparently. The young kids love Andrew Tate. He's a Romanian world champion kickboxer; young guy in his mid-30s. He flaunts his millions; he has private jets and all that and he loves having sex with umpteen number of women. He's always bragging about how alpha he is, etc., and how he can get endless women; not just normal girls but he can get the hottest chicks on the block and lines of girls in any country, etc.

The point is: Andrew Tate is very influential with the young boys like five years old and up in Generation Z, and he has just converted to Islam. He doesn't know a lot about it obviously; he's only heard what the apologists have told him, but an analytical thinker like him should really be able to learn more about Islam before converting. Because by the way if you apostasize, they can kill you according to Sharia Law.

Since Christianity has become emasculated and all the men have been chased out of church, the churches have become feminized; the alpha males are not allowed to thrive in Christian churches because the beta males and the feminazis have taken over etc. Christianity has become so weak, and it no longer is a cultural buttress and barrier against the degradation of morals and Marxist and Leftist ideology, communism and basically the worship of the state.

Even Christianity now is going with the progressive trans lunacy, degeneracy and mutilation and all this kind of stuff; the mainland churches won't even touch this issue, which is ridiculous. It's absolutely ridiculous! It's become so weak, so politically correct, that they only care about how many people are in their churches, how big their churches seem and feel, instead of actually telling the truth and being a buttress against the wolves.

So, what happens? ISLAM! Since there's no Christianity, Christianity being dead like in Europe, Islam now becomes the place for young males to be alpha males who "can serve" God. The only problem is that with Islam the morals are totally different. You can have endless women, you have four wives, endless divorce; you can have mut'ah wives which are prostitute wives. You can marry them for an hour or whatever and then divorce them legally; it's all legal. This is the real secret why these men and these alpha males like Islam. Not to mention that Muhammad was a pedophile, marrying his favorite wife Aisha at six years old. That's a kindergarten student; that's a KINDERGARTEN student! Are you with me, folks?

It's going to be the majority culture, and it has taken over white Europe. White Christian Europe which has left Christianity and has become white Marxist Europe is now being absorbed and eaten up by Islam. Guess who's going to suffer the most after the Western culture attacked the male and chased the male Christians out of the churches and out of the society? Guess who now is going to suffer under the alpha males of Islam? Women and children.

The women were coaxed into this social engineering to accept feminism, to kick out the alpha males and to force males to see being strong men and protectors as toxic; to see that as toxic, yet to not see as toxic relying on the STATE and political professional liars like politicians to take care of you and take care of your every need. As Europe has done this, look at what's happened; America now is the next prey for that. This is a big, big, problem.

3,000 Bikers Near Our Cheongpyeong Mountain

Thank God, in America you have a Protestant remnant that is pretty strong; there are smaller churches that are very strong and have a very strong gun culture. Guns are weapons of war, right; guns are weapons of fighting; they're meant for that purpose. In America the whole country was founded not by the Red, White and Blue, but literally by the gun. America was literally secured by the gun, so it is a gun-culture country. That gun wasn't used to do mass shootings. No, it was used to fight tyrants. So, it was a tool with a power that allowed the American forefathers to fight the tyrants and to step away from their centralized organized crime families.

That being said, that's why it's so important; Memorial Day is coming up next weekend. Everybody's been praying for evangelism outreach and twelve new bloodlines from God in Tennessee and new kings and queens being birthed. Everybody's been praying for that, but of course we don't know how God is going to work. So, just in the last week we found out that on Memorial Day weekend, there's a pretty big bike run in Tennessee, one of the biggest in the country, motorcycle run, Harley guys motorcycle run, 3,000 bikers. 3 000 bikers! And they've been doing this for twenty-two years, since the year 2,000, I guess. 3 000 bikers and they do a 65-mile run.

So, we said, “Okay, that's pretty cool; maybe we should join up with them and just pray with them and bless them.” We said, “Okay, well, let's look into this. It'd be good for us to go. Who knows where they go; they're probably going to beautiful Smoky Mountains.” Smoky Mountains is such a beautiful Park; it's the most visited national park in the entire country by the way- entire country. More than Yosemite in California, Sedona and Grand Canyon in Arizona, Smoky Mountains National Park is the most visited park in the COUNTRY. Isn't that incredible? That's crazy!

So, we were thinking, “All right, they're going to do some beautiful runs through the Smokies and it's just going to be on the Smoky highways or whatever it is, and it's going to be a nice time. So maybe we have to go there but we have to probably plan on camping, sleeping over a night and then coming back in.” This is what we were thinking.

We were looking up the thing; okay let's look at a couple of past years. Man, they're taking us out real far. It starts in Sevierville. How many beautiful mountain parks are there in the Smoky Mountains? Probably hundreds of beautiful overlooks etc. Folks, you won't even believe it! This thing goes from the Smoky Mountains from 65 miles and where does it go to? It comes to CHEONGPEONG folks! (Applause) It comes right up the hill to Veterans Memorial Outlook in Thorn Hill Tennessee! Are you freaking kidding me? Are you kidding me? God is sending 3,000 bikers to Cheongpyeong next weekend. <https://www.wvlt.tv/2022/05/30/smoky-mountain-thunder-memorial-ride-draws-thousands/>

We didn't even know about it; we had no clue but 3,000 bikers/ Abel-type Christians and the remnant people, strong honorable men, women and families; 3 000 are literally coming to our mountain. That's the same mountain; we're on the same hill. We're just on the bottom of it, up there is the same hill. Can you believe that folks? (Laughter) Out of all the mountains in the Smoky Mountains these people come to Thorn Hill Tennessee!!! Oh my gosh, you can't make this up folk; you cannot make this up!

Every Harley Davidson in Tennessee sponsors this. Black Rifle coffee sponsors this. They're neocons by the way, there are definitely neocons; Jacob Beach has a whole thing on them. Big, big, sponsors, nationwide sponsors etc. So, we contacted them immediately after we found out last week, “Hey, hey, what can we do, etc.?” It's too late now because it's only a week out, and all their stuff is shut down, all their sponsors, so we can't do anything now.

But they said, “Oh yeah, please come on the ride.” We'll talk on the day and hopefully next year Kahr Arms and Rod of Iron Riders Motorcycle Ministry can be a sponsor and maybe have a booth up there, have a tent and feed EVERYBODY; feed ALL the BIKERS that come. (Applause) We're going to throw them a BIG Memorial Day 3,000 BARBECUE! Oh, my goodness! Praise God! How crazy is that? How insane! Richard, can you make this up? Come on! How insane is that? We're probably going to get like ten hogs, ten full pigs and feed EVERYBODY. How awesome would that be!

To Thank the Fallen Heroes

Just to thank everybody for Memorial Day, and that's something Father ABSOLUTELY always did, especially with the different services, with the Little Angels Ballet. Remember? Every time he had that the Ballet and the celebrations for the fallen vets. We would go to DC or wherever they were held. The Little Angels would come from Korea and they would do the performances for the vets. This is part of our Father's heritage.

But, my God! They're not even on a different park! It's literally our Cheongpyeong Mountain they're coming to! It's just totally insane, totally insane! This can only be by the work of God!

We just found out about it this last week. So, probably next year in Tennessee we're fixing to be big sponsors. Just to support that ride and thank all the fallen heroes and all those who served. Let's give up for all our vets who served! Come on, give it up for them! (Applause) Let's get our vets to stand up. Let's acknowledge them today. On Memorial Day we're going to honor the fallen heroes.

If you want to come you don't have to be on a bike; that's a good thing, you don't have to be on a bike. I injured my back; we did a test run with the Rod of Iron Riders yesterday just to Morristown; we went to Tommy Gun Warehouse and prayed there. We went to get some bite to eat and then came back here. Just to test my back. Oh, man! I was in big trouble. Last night I was icing it every hour again. Oh, my Lord! I'm going to see if I can make that 65-mile run. I probably have to do it anyway; I'll just bring a couple of packs of ice. If you are not on a bike, you could still come to support, you can still come to pray. You can still come in a car, no problem. If a cage is all you've got, that's fine; you can come in a cage.

At 6 30 in the morning, we'll be gathering here at the Welcome Center. Queen Elke is in the kitchen today; she will be making beautiful organic carrot cake for breakfast and coffee. We'll feed everybody and then we'll be heading out; probably at 7- 7: 15-ish we'll be kickstands up and we'll be heading into Sevierville. We encourage everybody to come, but if you can't come there will still be service here; we're going to still have a team that will be turning on the video and the service will be here. We'll be heading to Sevierville and hook up with all the Riders around 10 am, get to know people, etc. I think they're leaving around 11am from there and probably be back arriving at Thorn Hill at 2- 3:00-ish pm -that kind of thing.

By the way, the whole way there's police escort. When you're going with 3,000 bikers down the highway there's like a stack of bikes to the horizon. It's a sight to see. THOUSANDS of bikers just coming out for Memorial Day weekend to thank the fallen heroes! That's the key. The key is not just a nice ride; the key is remembering that Memorial Day is blood. It's blood, blood, blood! Blood is paid to keep this country free. Sacrifices! Lives have to be lost to keep a nation free. That's what Memorial Day is. So, we have to absolutely remember that on that day. It's that sacred blood that has been spilled to keep the tyrants at bay and to have the protected place that is America; at least for the last 240 years even though we're now being infiltrated by commies, but that's another issue. But Memorial Day is a very important holiday and it's very important to stand with those who serve et cetera. So, please come on the ride with us. Again, if you need more info talk to Gregg or Elke; Shiggy will know as well.

But that's incredible! It's just incredible! That is purely by the work of the Holy Spirit! 3,000 Abel-type Christian remnant bikers, Second Amendment gun-toting patriots are coming to Cheongpyeong Mountain! Hopefully next year we'll do the Bullets & BBQ. Some of the groups that we know like CVMA- Combats Veterans Motorcycle Association - <https://www.combatvet.us/> we'll hook up with them this year. But next year we could even bring a couple of those bike groups down here and do a Bullets & BBQ right after the event. You know they could camp here with us and shoot with us and basically do that wonderful Bullets & BBQ program to celebrate the vets; let them have a good time and let them know that there are still people in this country that will defend the Constitution and stand for America. Amen! God is so good folks! (Applause) God is so good! God is so good! So, join us this weekend if you can. If not, there is still service here at the same time and we'll be turning on the pre-recorded service and message.

King Bullethead Cast Down.

By the way, shout out to all the folks who like, share and comment on the King Bullethead "Cast Down." <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=laZs7LTV5DE> Did you all enjoy that song Cast Down? When I was younger the Devil tried to make me commit suicide; get suicidal and try to kill myself, all this kind of stuff. This is very common for young people; they just don't talk about it. But Satan wants you to believe that you're literally the center of the world and if you kill yourself everything will change; which is total baloney. Nothing will change AND you've committed a massive grave sin which is murdering yourself, destroying the life that God gave you.

Suicide is a massively, massively, heinous crime; it's a massively heinous sin against the Creator. But the Devil will try to get you to feel despair and to feel meaningless, and at the same time make you deluded to think that if you do that, you're going to catch everybody's attention and everybody's going to repent. It's total delusion! And now in the mass market and especially in Canada, they're doing government-assisted suicide and they're glorifying it; the Leftists glorify the cult of DEATH. They're now GLORIFYING suicide, they're GLORIFYING transgenderism, trans-sexism, general mutilation, and of course pedoism; they're glorifying all the evils, death-cult related things.

And yet they call us a cult because we stand up for the Creator, we fight the demons, we invest and build blessed families, we invest in community and have a strong culture; that's why we're a cult. They're into pedoism and raping children and sex trafficking, covering up and that's all fine. But if you're for traditional marriage and for keeping your sexuality pure before marriage and not fornicating and being a whore, then you're a cult. This is the crazy clown world that we live in, folks!

All right folks, let's get into it. We're in Luke chapter 18 today. Praise the Lord Almighty! Let's start with verse one. Let's read together.

Luke 18

The Parable of the Unjust Judge

"1 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;"
Men are to pray and not to faint.

I was deluded

When I was younger, that's what Satan had confused me to do. He wanted me to believe that I was so important that if I killed myself that would bring shock to the church and shock to the family and shock to everybody, and everybody would repent and everybody would stop fighting, and there would be no more politics. That's total baloney, total baloney! If I did that, people would be crying at the funeral and the very next day they'd ask, "Okay, what hamburger are we having today?" That's what would happen. "What are we having? Are we having tacos today or burritos," or, "Should we get burritos or should we get sushi?" Literally, the next day.

That's how deluded you can become in your belief of self-importance when the Devil is trying to coax you into another form of self-worship. That's another form of self-worship because you're saying, "I hate myself; I'll destroy myself. If I kill myself then everything will change." You're not the center of the universe. You see how that's sneakily putting yourself in the center of the universe? Do you see that? It's a very sneaky way the Devil gets you to think, "Oh, I'm doing such a great deed. I'm going to bring reform and I'm going to have people think about things better and they're going to stop fighting and they're going to stop trying to use the siblings against one another." You know True Family all had these different nannies, all different political lines so they were all fighting; they were trying to use each one of the children to create political leverage. All this insanity! Each one of the children was being tooled against one another.

I know that's the general nature of politics and you can't change it by the way; you won't be able to change it. There's nothing you can do. People try to get influence through those means. It may start innocuous at first but it gets worse over time, and if those things are unchecked more and more crazy psychopaths do it more intensely as time goes by. When we were raising our kids, I always warned them about that kind of political realities. Nobody warned us about it, we were just kind of born into it, but it made us go nuts; it made us go crazy. So that song was all about that inner battle; Satan trying to say, "Just do it! Just kill yourself and then you're going to change..." It's a total lie; he's totally lying.

My Kind Older Brother Young Jin Nim

But what does it say here? It says, "men ought always to pray, and not to faint." I remember having those kinds of deluded feelings. I got distracted a couple of years with martial arts so those went away. But then when I got older like twenty years old, that's when Young Jin Nim passed away; most likely he got possessed and jumped off a building. I don't know what mindset he was in at that time, but probably it was similar to what I was in a couple of years before. That was my older brother one year above me.

I was in the same room as him constantly; I always lived in the same room. We lived in the same bunk bed. I used to drive him nuts because he lived on the top; I lived on the bottom. So, I get to kick him from beneath all night long; if I'm bored my feet can go up and start knocking up on that bed and drive my older brother nuts. And you know, boys, we don't stop until we get some kind of physical consequence, so you can't just come down and say, "Stop it! Stop it!" That's just going to make us do it more. So, I knock him, I'm throwing stuff on the top. I'm bored anyway so I want him to jump down here and try to chase me around. That's a ritual, a daily occurrence. The nightly occurrence, the nightly ritual is, "My freaking younger brother's going to harass the crap out of me!"

Anyway, I repent Lord! I'm sorry about that. I was a stupid young boy; I did drive my older brother nuts. But actually, he didn't try to overly abuse me like beat me up physically; that was amazing. I was bigger than him and then I started combat art so he knew I could beat him up but before that he was always kind; he was always a kind older brother. The older brothers were whooping on the younger brothers, but he didn't want to continue that down towards his siblings. So, he was one of those kind older brothers.

He even left a whole year off of college to help me get straight A's through college. It's a long story. You know we're an Asian family and in an Asian family your merit and your worth are how much you do well in school and all this kind of crap. At least that's the general Korean culture; it doesn't mean it comes from Father, but it's in general with the nannies and all that. So, I'm at the low end of the gene pool, I don't have good genes. I'm distracted. I got ADHD; I got whatever. So, I can't do well and I'm going to only be a janitor. That's all I'm going to be. Everybody else is going to be a billionaire; I'm going to be a janitor!

After one year of college, he took a break. He said, "I'm going to teach you all the secrets of doing well in school." So, he trained me for one year. He asked me, "You know you're going to hear this for the rest of your life, that you're the dumb one, you're the stupid one, you got no brains, you got no head, you got the low end of the gene pool. Blah, blah, blah! You want to hear this for the rest of your life or just get the dang A's?" So yeah, he was quite a compassionate young man and he just wanted to do that for his younger brother who bothered the bejesus out of him every night and every day when we lived together before he went to Boston. God bless his heart!

He had that kind of really loving heart and he gave me a year; he came and he trained me into all the little secrets of how to do well in government testing and government schooling. Which is total baloney by the way; it doesn't show really how skillful you are. It teaches you how to memorize well and how to use a couple of hack systems, tell the teachers what they want to hear and then you get your A's. (Laughing) That's literally what it is; it's such a baloney. After he did that and he taught me all these little hack secrets that he used to get all his A's and all that, the very next year I went back to college -I was still at Fairfield then- the very next year, straight A's, straight A's, straight A's. Now, I wasn't doing bad; I was getting like B+, 3.0-3.3 so I wasn't terrible. It wasn't like in high school with 1.0. By the time I got to college, I was around 3.0-3.3. That's not bad; that's still honors.

But when I got back with Young J-Hyung's training 4.0. A, A, A, A. Everything A! I didn't get smarter; I just learned how to break the stupid system because the system of government schooling is such a joke. If you know the system you can easily get A's. He taught me that system and that's the first time I got all straight A's. And that's the first time when from some of my brothers who always said, "You're always dumb, you're the dumb one, you're stupid, you don't have any head," I heard, "Whoa! You actually got straight A's! I can't believe it. I can't believe you got straight A's. You're lying. You're straight A's?"

He was a very compassionate older brother; he was that kind of brother. But at the end of his life then something happened, he got possessed and his life ended early. That was devastating for us, for me and Kook J-Hyung particularly because I was close with him. Even though he moved to Boston, his room still had his bunk bed, so whenever he came down, he would be living with me. I couldn't get into any of the schools in Boston because my grades were so bad. I flunked out of all the different schools that they were trying to get me in, in Boston, but that ended up being a huge protection. I ended up not going to Boston and becoming a liberal lunatic; everybody who went to Boston basically became a liberal lunatic, they became commies. So, in the end God's hand was there.

During that time when Young J-Hyung passed, Kook Jin Nim, our General Inspector, woah! First time I saw him like that. He's always a strong businessman and strong older brother. He broke down on the ground in fetal position, crying. That was his FAVORITE! That was like his son, his favorite, favorite, favorite younger brother; no question about it. Oh my gosh! For me, Young J-Hyung was right above me, so we were tight, we were pretty close.

He was so supportive! Even when I was doing martial arts, when he came home from Boston or if I went to Boston to visit him, he would hold mitts up for me so I could box. I'd say, "Okay, try to hit my head; come on!" He would try to whip my head. I'd be boxing with him; he would just help me. He didn't like boxing, he didn't like me to hit him, so I couldn't hit him but he could punch me. That was fine, I wanted to train; that was good training for me. I couldn't hit him but he could hit me in the face and that was just going to make my level go up. He used to do that kind of stuff for me, so he was a really giving older brother, and even though he was one year older, he wasn't jealous. He was very giving, very loving.

When he passed, Kook J-hyung and I were devastated. We were the closest brothers to him and when he died then God brought our relationship tighter. Because when you lose somebody at that young age, you know now it's no more joke; it's no longer just in your head. When you're into all this suicide and all this crap, everything's just in your head. You're young, you're dumb, you're stupid, everything's just in your head; nothing is tied to reality. You know what I mean? But now, this is real. My brother is dead, he's never coming back; he's done. We saw the body, the pictures and all that, so he's done; his life has ended. That's a twenty-year-old and boom! That's like seeing your closest buddy die. Then you get a real hit with mortality. Your life is not just in your brain; there's an actual external world here and there's an actual reality. After that I went on the whole seeking for God and those things.

But that song is kind of about that whole extended episode; Cast Down is about that kind of thing. And if anybody is going through that kind of feelings, you have to know the Devil is a liar. Tell your neighbor folks! Tell your neighbor, "The Devil is a liar." Come on! Tell your neighbor, "The Devil is a liar." The Devil is a liar. He is a liar; he is a liar. The Devil is a liar.

He wants you to feel like you have no purpose in your life, and he wants you to worship yourself. He wants you to believe that you're so important that if you suicide, or you do something stupid like that and basically curse God, you're going to be glorified. You're NOT going to be glorified! Everybody's going to be choosing McDonald's and Burger King the very next day. Don't do it! It's stupid. You have to find your purpose in relationship with God. Amen! Because the purpose that's real is with our Creator. It's not just in our mind; it's with the Creator of the universe. Really that's what that song is about.

Luke 18: 1-2. God Divides Cain & Abel

But getting back to the Parable of the Unrighteous Judge, "men ought always to pray, and not to faint." Why is that Jesus? Well, he's going to tell us.

<sup>2</sup> Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

Okay, there's a city and the judge doesn't fear God, probably laughs at God, scoffs at God and he doesn't fear man. So, the judge is enjoying his power, his status, his position. He doesn't care about God; he doesn't care about the people. He doesn't care about them.

And you really can't be a judge and just care about the people, because if there's no God then the people are just animals. You're an animal; you have no real purpose and meaning. If you don't fear God, you have no boundaries either. Whatever the state decides, whatever the mob decides, that's what you're going to do. Then, you just become a good Nazi; all you become is a good Nazi judge. So, for judges to fear God and to have a standard by which they could have to say, "NO!" to laws that are illegal or bad, as Nazis should have done or as the Deep State, CIA and all these lunatics and the federal government should have done, God is that buttress. He is the One, that buttress. The moral values of the Bible are the buttress to stop you from acquiescing to using state power for your status, your profit, your gain, which most of these liberal trained feds are doing.

That's why you see the weaponization of the DOJ, CIA, etc. Now, everyone's coming out admitting that JFK was killed by the CIA, folks. That's a Third World country by the way. You're saying that the intelligence agency has come out and they killed an elected president! That's not supposed to happen in a First World country. Huh? Are you with me folks? It's now admitted that the CIA was involved in the assassination of JFK who was an American president, and that they lied to the public for how many years? Well, for half a century they lied, lied, lied, lied, lied, lied, lied, lied. Anybody who questioned it was a conspiracy theorist. Did these people fear God? NO! All they did is worship power.

So, it is very important to have judges that fear God more than they fear for example the backlash that the public will give them. That's something we love about Trump or Lauren Boebert, etc. <https://boebert.house.gov/> They're not perfect but Lauren Boebert, she doesn't care about the backlash she gets politically; she gets called, "white racist, Nazi, etc." She's the congresswoman from Rifle, Colorado with the Shooters Grill, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fCHfnFGuFS4> Remember that? She's a big 2nd Amendment girl up there in DC. She gets all sorts of backlash. And Marjory Taylor Greene, <https://greene.house.gov/> she just put in the articles of impeachment for Biden. They get all sorts of backlash, and they're not perfect; they're certainly not perfect. But nobody else in those positions is perfect; nobody who's a politician is perfect but some are better than others, definitely.

From Principle we know that if Satan has taken over and has dominion, God will divide; He will choose an Abel and Cain side within their ranks. This is what's so important about the Principle view. It's not just that God will come and eradicate ALL the evil within the federal government for example. No! The Principle shows a very historically realistic view, that God will divide Cain and Abel sides within any organization, and it is important for the Abel sides even in the evil organizations, to start whistleblowing, to start connecting with Providence, and start connecting with God's work and connecting with God's Will.

So, God will split EVIL organizations; He will create division, He will create Cain and Abel sides to DIVIDE good from evil, "I have not come to bring peace but a sword." (Matthew 10:34)

For example, there are those whistleblowers and folks like in the FBI that just came out; their lives have been ruined by the FBI, they've been all put on leave. But they're the ones coming out whistle-blowing against the FBI, and they're testifying right now. These kinds of people are important. The people who go now to James O'Keefe OMG and whistle-blow, these people are heroes. They're INSIDE those organizations. You see what I'm saying? God is dividing those organizations.

That's how Providence moves. It doesn't move by Jesus coming on a cloud and magically waving his wand; EVERYBODY now is pure and good people are inside the government. That's not how God works, EVER, because He has to use human free will. It's about the changing of the hearts and the tapping of the conscience. Even within evil organizations, God can turn people's hearts to repentance and they become the Abel people within those organizations. They become essential; they kind of become like the cells within that start bringing those organizations down to be accountable, to be transparent. Or to get rid of them ENTIRELY. Some of those people who're whistleblowers may run for Congress and be the very congressmen that are calling, "Let's DISBAND the CIA and the FBI," because these have been weaponized against the American people, particularly Republicans and Trump supporters.

This is how it happens; it doesn't happen by Jesus coming in and waving a magic wand! No! It comes by the Holy Spirit and Christ changing the HEARTS and the CONSCIENCE of evildoers. Why? Because before God everybody is evil, everybody is wicked, everybody is in sin; everybody! The Bible says, "There is none righteous, no, not one." (Romans 3:10) Yes, there are different levels. Well, let's look at that.

Luke 18: 10-14. The Pharisee and the Publican

Keep the judge in mind. We're going to jump to the next parable which is from verse 10. Now, he's speaking a different parable.

<sup>10</sup> Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

<sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

<sup>12</sup> I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

<sup>13</sup> And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

<sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

You see that, folks? The Pharisee came thinking, "I'm perfect. I follow all the laws. I do this and that." How many people in the body of Christ become like this? But it's the people that say, "No! Oh God, I can't even lift up my eyes to You," and they're doing it from a deep sense of reality in their heart; THOSE people God justifies, those people God saves; those people are actually the highest. Why? Because they're being honest; they're not hiding behind a veneer.

So, the federal government or any organization that has power over the nations, God is dividing these people, their hearts. Yes, the wicked are part of a Nazi regime and a Nazi operation to kill America, kill the patriots and genocide the white heterosexual males Christians gun owners in this country. Of course, they're planning genocide; that's what centralized governments, statistes and Nazis always do. ALWAYS! Always, always, always, genocide equals foreclosure. When the nation has borrowed too much money from the banks and they want the money back, they kill part of the population in genocide, take those assets and pay off the banks. That's what genocide is, and it always happens; it never fails to happen, especially when the people are disarmed.

That's why, if America gives up the guns, genocide 1,000% is coming. That's why America must never give up the guns. You understand? Isn't that a crazy thing? Well, it is what it is. But God moves and does miracles in the hearts and minds of the WICKED! Yes, He brings them to repentance. It gets so bad that even the wicked start turning on themselves. That's how it happens.

You see it on the micro level with Han Hakja and the Family Fraud organization too. Just two or three weeks ago, she had a "private" event with the leaders and she admitted her theological beliefs which I've been telling you for over ten years. That what? Father is NOT the Returning Christ; SHE is! Then she was upset that someone among the most trusted leaders, had leaked it. So, you can see what's happening. The organization is collapsing so much internally, the moral fabric is dying, that now even her top inner circle will not protect her. Because her politics, her mismanagement and her corruption have gone to such high levels and becomes so exposed that they're scared that, "Oh, if I support, if I stand up for her now, I'm going to be crucified."

Then, what are they doing? The rats are starting to jump, and this is in the inner circle. So, she did a whole "hire and fire." She put in all these new people into the high positions of power and who are they? They're all the people in her inner circle, in the inner sanctum. And those people, they'll all be hung and they'll be sent out to the crows to be eaten. She will do that; just in a couple of months probably she'll fire them, because they'll start giving her reports like

 - "Oh, you know this is a disaster, and oh, oh, we can't raise any more money in Japan." ---
 - "What did you say? FIRE! Off with your head!"

This is what happens to tyrants all the time; this is self-implosion. Now that no more money is flowing in, the inner circles that she once trusted and kept together by money are no longer willing to stand up. They're now hiding and they're openly leaking the audio.

She came out the other day saying how disappointed she was, "I trusted you, I trusted you!" What have we been saying for ten years? There's no honor in a den of thieves! How can she trust? SHE is the biggest thief; she is trying to steal Father's identity and of course she's trying to destroy Father's bloodline and Kingship. So, she's actually the biggest robber and bank robber and thief. How does she think that gathering a whole bunch of other thieves around her, there's going to be loyalty? There's a reason for that old phrase "There's no honor in a den of thieves," folks, and, "The wicked flee though none pursues them," because they destroy themselves. They destroy themselves. The hammer of judgment has fallen from the micro to the macro and we see that implosion happening.

Luke 18: 3-5 - The Bad Judge & Mob Rule

Now, let's jump back to the first parable. There's a bad judge. Let's see what happens with the bad judge.

<sup>3</sup> And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

<sup>4</sup> And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

<sup>5</sup> Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

Do you understand? "This crazy woman, this old hag is bothering the leaving crash out of me, so I'm just going to give her what she wants!" This is a case and example where the parable is being used to show you that this is exactly how God is NOT. When you come to God and say, "God, I'm bringing this. I need Your guidance before this," God is not that type of weak unrighteous judge that says, "Okay, you asked me so many times, you bother me; I'll give it to you because you just bother the heck out of me." This is a contrasting parable; this is showing how God is NOT.

The judge in this case doesn't care about the woman, he actually hates the woman; he just wants to get rid of her. This judge hates the woman and she nags him just too much, so he gives away. Okay, so if you're utilitarian you'll say, "oh well, it worked, didn't it? That's all that matters." No, it's not, because the content of the heart is very important for God and for the Christian community. The content of one's character is also connected to the state of one's heart and intentions.

That's why for example in Christian jurisprudence not only the actual deed but the INTENTION is taken into equation as well, with a crime for example. You have to look at what the intention was. Did the guy run over the other guy because he didn't see him? He was drunk and the guy ran out, "Oh! I killed him!" Oh yeah you killed a man with your car, but what was the INTENT? Or were you at the gas station, you got upset, you got in your car and you're trying to run over the guy? That's another thing. The intent is very important in the Christian jurisprudence --- (Break in recording)

--- But what is this all about? It's all about trying to understand the inner nature of human behavior, because God himself when He created the world, He had an inner reason for that; He had a purpose. We called it the "Purpose of Creation"; He had an intention behind that. God is a being of intention, purpose, reason; He has a certain reason why He's initiating His action.

Since His nature is such, then those who are made in His image should be judged in the similar way as much as possible by faulty human beings. That's what jurisprudence is about, at least in the beginnings of it; a fairness, exploring not only the crime, the nature of the crime, but also the nature of the intent; not only the letter of the law, but what? The spirit or the state of the heart. This is very important.

In this parable we see this evil unrighteous judge; he doesn't give a pooh-pooh about the woman and how she's aggravating him. She just does this easy action and he gives her what she wants to shoo her away. But what's the problem with that? If you do that, what does that create in actual political society? It creates mob rule, doesn't it? If the people just demand it, then you will have unrighteous judges just giving it. When the people demanded, "KILL JESUS! KILL him!" Oh, they were all demanding that, and what did they say, "I wash my hands clean of this. Go ahead, do what you will." And Jesus got killed; nobody righteous came up and said, "STOP it! This man has no sin." That's what happens; it becomes mob rule.

God is teaching us something very important here, very, very, important, and also, He's saying, "Pray and don't faint." When you pray to God, be encouraged.

Luke 18: 6-8

<sup>7</sup> And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

God is not like this evil judge who is going to acquiesce because of pressure; God is not going to bend to the pressure. In this case it's the pressure from a widow. It's not only a woman, it's a widow and in that ancient Israelite culture she has less status than a woman; she's a widow. The judge does not fear God, does not care about man and he's just using his power to hand out stuff to whoever bugs him the most. But Christ is saying, "No! God is not like that."

What does he say in verse 7? "And shall not God avenge his own elect?" What does being elected means? Those who are chosen. All of us whether we recognize it or not, we were CHOSEN to be in this place, to be under Father's authority, to have a bloodline under Christ; we were CHOSEN for this purpose. We have our five percent, we have to go through battles, we have to be victorious over struggles and fights with the Devil and all this kind of stuff, but we were chosen.

For those who stand strong what does God say? For those who "cry day and night unto him," what does He say? He says, "he bears long with them" He bears long with you. He tells you that, "he will avenge them speedily." What does that mean? That we must have a longing to see justice, but we must not get bitter. Just because it doesn't come in the next day, we must not get bitter, but we must always long for justice. That's why the nature of God's Kingdom is a kingdom that pursues justice.

And that's why in our spousal training and in our training with our children as well, we have to pursue justice. That doesn't mean you're perfect. You make mistakes, that's fine, and your kids will make billions more mistakes than you, trust me. They're definitely not perfect. But as parents, the exercise of training is to try to be just, even though at times you're dealing with spoiled ungrateful very imperfect children. Is that true, sometimes? Don't answer the question. (Laughing)

But you understand what I'm saying, right? God does not behave like this unrighteous judge. He has chosen you, your family, your wife, your spouse, your child, the baby you have in your arms; that's a baby God designed and He chose for you. Out of all the women of the world your wife is the one that God chose for you; out of all the men in the world your husband is the one that God chose for you; the Creator of the universe chose for YOU!

Arrogance vs. Humility Before God

We're not perfect, no, we're not perfect and certainly our kids are not perfect, but that's why we try to be Christ-like; we try to be. That's why training is so important, mind-and-body-unity training is so important; having control over our emotions and not being an emotional junkie is so important. These kinds of things are so wonderfully important in the Kingdom.

So, God is contrasting the unrighteous and the righteous judge. God also sees a crime, and that every single one of us has committed crimes before God, but He also looks at the INTENT. In the parable we saw that He looks at the intent. Are we coming to repentance? Are we admitting that we have sin and that we are not perfect before God? Or are we coming on, "I'm perfect. I'm this Pharisee. I do all this tithing and I do all these conditions." What did he say?

<sup>11</sup>God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. <sup>12</sup>I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

You see these kinds of "pharisaic" people, right? They exist in every church. God is warning us, "Don't be like that. Always have a mechanism to humble yourself and say, 'wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait! No, no, I'm still a sinner before God."

This is what drove the Family Frauders nuts! Not only was I a true child within Father's family that had status in the church; not only a true child but I was the ANOINTED son of Father. I was the world president of the whole entire church. I didn't choose myself by the way; Father appointed me. I was the world president; Father put me in charge of all those organizations, all major ones, Family Fed, UPF, CARP, Youth Federation for World Peace, everything, every single major organization.

And when I came out what did I do? Did I come out saying, "I AM appointed..." No, the first thing I did -and I was preaching this before that too- the first thing I did when I came out, I said "No, I'm a sinner before God." I may not have fornicated before marriage. I may have kept all the Commandments that all the (BCs) Blessed children who kept those Commandments brag about; I did them all too. I didn't fornicate before marriage, I didn't destroy the lineage, I didn't do drugs, I didn't drink, I didn't smoke.

They thought they were pure and that because of that they should be worshiped. Remember this, the arrogance of these "BC ministers"? They were pathetic; they were at a way-lower level than normal Christian pastors; I'll tell you that much, way-lower level. They were freaking Pharisees.

I'm the international president, I'm Father's heir and successor that he crowned, and I came out and said, "I've done all the things that you've done, you of all BCS who think you're good. I've done everything you've done. I obeyed all those laws, I didn't fornicate, I didn't drink or do drugs; I didn't do any of what Father said not to do. I also am a true child and I'm not only a true child of the Messiah, I am his chosen HEIR. And I admit that I am a sinner before God. Why? Because I hated God at times, I disbelieved in God at times, I ignored God at times, I resented God at times. Those are all sins, all sins." I wasn't sleeping with chicks, I wasn't drinking and doing bongos and marijuana and cocaine, but I was ignoring God at times, I was resenting Him; those are ALL SINS.

So, those arrogant BC "Blessed children" ministers, God, they HATED that! "AH! You're STEALING our moral superiority POWER away!" (Laughing) No, it's good for you. We shouldn't be worshiped as perfect beings. We should be humble enough to admit that we are sinful even though we haven't committed major crimes; not like what that Pharisee was saying. He's comparing, "I'm not as bad as those extortioners, unjust, adulterers." Look, this is what everybody does, "I'm not as bad as Hitler. I'm not as bad as Lenin and Mao. I'm not as bad as Muhammad or Andrew Tate, Dan Bilzerian, etc. I'm not as bad as THEM!" That's what everybody does, especially all these young bloods, they do that a lot; they play this game.

NO! You are dirty, dirty, dirty! The Bible says, that "all our righteous acts are like filthy rags." (Isaiah 64:6) Filthy rags means what? It means crap, poop, poop rags. Buddhism has a similar notion in a sense that all people are bags of feces. That's what they say. I guess in America you do, "You're a Sh-t bag!" They say that so they kind of got that metaphor now too.

This level of basic moral humility is very important to understand. "Okay yeah, yeah, I'm a crap bag sometimes and maybe more than I think, and I do sin before God and I do ignore Him and I do resent Him and I do hate Him at times. Oh, yeah!" Those are also sins; they're quite big sins too. They're not small. So, the game is not, "COMPARATIVELY to Lenin or Mao, I'm better." This is bad; that's what this Pharisee is doing. But Christ is saying, "No, no! None of you is good, none of you is good; not one of you, not one of you is good!"

We need CHRIST to become good. It's HIS sacrifice and HIS blood and HIS goodness that we wear. Put on the garment of Christ, and the Holy Spirit! This is very important because in a culture it prevents the Pharisaic culture from forming. It doesn't guarantee it, but it prevents it especially if it's emphasized.

And that's what I was doing. I was the world president, I had the highest position in the entire church under Father, and I was telling everybody, "I have this highest position. Father has anointed me higher than all of you; I'm the pope basically of the church. And still, I would admit I'm a sinner before God. This is what is expect of all of you ministers. Don't brag about yourself, don't idolize yourself as a perfect being. REPENT; as a good training, repent!"

This was something that really made them angry, aggravated them, because for years they had created a status quo of being these wonderful, "Oh these young blessed children going into ministry! Ministry is so hard and they're going in there! They're morally perfect beings and they have no sin!" Oh, give me a break! Are you kidding me? But that was their way to quickly get a group of people trying to pretend that they were perfect somehow, and that's no good.

CHOSEN but not Perfect

Right? So, don't do that! You won't be perfect when you're training with your kids; you won't be perfect. You don't need to be perfect; you just need to be training because when you're training then you will get better. It won't be perfect but you get better. Amen! Even though you're weak and you're not capable at it then, Christ will make you strong, through perseverance, through working and pushing, and through not giving up. This kind of perseverance is very important. Amen!

That's very important to know; this balance is very important. YES! We're chosen! When the Devil is trying to make you feel like you're junk, shout:

\"NO! I'm CHOSEN by GOD!"* You see what I'm saying? It's important to know that balance.

But at the same time

\" I'm CHOSEN by God, but I'm a sinner and I'm saved by grace."* I'm CHOSEN but I'm not perfect!

You see? That's good balance; you see how that's balanced?

*I'm CHOSEN by God, I'm not perfect!

I need Him.

I need to rely on Him.

I need to come to Him in prayer.

I must not faint,

I must keep pushing,

I must drive,

I must keep approaching Him. Not like this crazy lady but I must keep approaching Him.

I must keep running after His Will EVEN though I'm not perfect, EVEN though I do sin against Him!

See? This is the balanced and very mature spiritual atmosphere and attitude that we have to have. Again, we won't be perfect at it. But having this in our mental picture is very important, very important. CHOSEN but not perfect! (Someone suggests these are great words for a T-shirt) (Laughing) That's a nice t-shirt "I'm CHOSEN but I'm not perfect! God is working on me." Amen!

Something like that, right? God is good! God is good! This balance of understanding your purpose and significance in life, but not doing idolatry and worship and putting yourself at the center of the universe. No! You're nothing compared to God even though you're chosen; we're nothing compared to God. We're not going to put ourselves in that center; that's idolatry. So, Luke 18 is very deep. It's talking about the inner life, that inner prayer life.

2 Corinthians 10: 5

<sup>5</sup> Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

In 2 Corinthians 10: 5 it talks about this week's King Bullethead's song Cast Down. It's about casting down all imaginations against the knowledge of God, and bringing them into captivity until full obedience of Christ. That inner training is so important too.

When we are the king and the priest of our family kingdom, we have to be studying this spiritual life and training in this spiritual attitude, perspective and posture. We have to be training in this so we don't make emotional decisions. We are trying to think in terms of where God would want to lead our children.

(Reading the above quote) Amen! That's a real internal mind-body unity training. Again, you don't have to be perfect at it; nobody can be perfect at that except for God. But if we're aware of it, we can get BETTER at it! Whoo! Oh my gosh! Did you hear that? You can't be perfect at it but if you're aware of it you can become better at it! You can become better at it.

And that's one of the wonderful things about spiritual training; there's no end. That's why it's exciting. There's always something we can be training and getting better at; that's always a great thing, that's always an exciting thing. And that's exciting for people around us as well because as we grow, they have a better version of ourselves. There's a better, better atmosphere; better, better blessings around; better, better you that is there to bless your wife and your children, your husband and your children, your neighbors and your community etc.; it has a multi-level impact. And that's why our relationship with Christ is so important; in the end, it's so, so, so important.

Pressing Forward to His Kingdom

We pray for America to come back to that relationship. Memorial Day is coming around the corner, and we know that this freedom is not free, folks. The freedom that we enjoy here it's a glimpse into the Kingdom culture. But as Neil was praying in his beautiful words, he said, "this is surely the last days but the beginning as well." Praise God! Satan's kingdoms must end, folks. That's the one thing good about the quickening; it's scary because it quickly erodes and quickly goes nuts.

You heard about the new avian flu breaking out in the UK? Bill Gates is saying this is the next pandemic. They are salivating for more lockdown, folks; they're trying to grab at anything.

People are awake this time, but they just need something a little more deadly. The point is: even though it breaks down quickly, it's exposing Satan harder and faster. As Satan's kingdom collapses, they get desperate, they make terrible decisions, they get exposed; people wake up more, the AWARENESS kicks in. Once the awareness kicks in, guess what? Your eyes are no longer covered in shroud; you can SEE.

It's like what's happening with a lot of these Christian groups that have been calling the Moonies heretics. As the whole society is collapsing and Christianity is dying in the West and there are progressive TRANS churches, well, all of a sudden, all these Christians have their glasses off now, and they can see the Moonies and say, "Hey, y'all are not that bad anymore! You guys are actually... While we were sitting back waiting for Jesus, you were fighting these people over the last forty years." Now they can see, "Oh, there was a difference here with Rev. Moon's people. There was a difference. They weren't just sitting in the pews waiting for Jesus, thinking, 'He's going to come and make a beautiful socialist kingdom; I'm going to have free stuff all day long and pina colada, angels and harps.'" None of that is in the Bible! It's all mythology; it's all superstition that has developed in the church.

But Satan's kingdoms must fall and God's Kingdom must rise. We see now that God's Kingdom, God's lineage and God's Constitution are established on earth; God's kingship lines are now connected to Christ's Kingship line, and more and more spreading. Everyone is praying for those twelve conditional new blessed lines in Tennessee. Memorial Day weekend comes with 3,000 bikers making it to Cheongpyeong Mountain! Oh my gosh! Lord, have mercy! God is moving, folks; He's moving and this relationship is going to grow. I'm excited to see our tent at that next rally next year once we have a little more time to organize with them. It's going to be incredible.

Anyway folks, don't despair! Know that you are chosen; even though we're not perfect we are chosen. Your family, your children, your community, this community, look at this! How precious! How precious! Root for one another. We pray for one another. You told each other that you prayed for each other, right? Okay, you told each other. We pray for one another, root for another, we lift up the Living God, we STAND up against the evil and we press forward to His Kingdom.

Please join me in prayer.

Pastor Sean's Reporting Prayer

Father God, we thank You for this beautiful day that You are blessing us with today. Such beautiful gifts from Heaven exploring the inner workings of our hearts today with scripture from Luke 18 and 2. Corinthians chapter 10 and verse 5, and how we must keep up the good fight of faith on the inside as well.

Dear God, how critical! How important! Even though we do external training and we do the Rod of Iron training and Colorado training and all these wonderful hard challenges and training, at the same time we must also be training the internal nature of the spirit.

Let us be stimulated by Your word and GROW in the inner man so that it can reflect and emanate and be MANIFEST in the actions that we take in this world and with our family kingdom and community kingdom, growing and EXPANDING to the macrocosmic realm.

Father, we know that ALL these things are happening because it is the time for Satan's kingdoms to perish and for YOUR Kingdom to come. At the time of great EXTREMES, at the time of great chaos and confusion, at the time of POLARIZATION and GALVANIZATION, at the same time when we feel everything is being divided and torn to SHREDS, SOMETHING else is being REBORN and recreated in Your image and You're starting here from the micro.

We are so grateful. We don't deserve to be in this place but You have chosen us even though we're not perfect. EVERY day we want to work on both the internal and external aspects of our nature and our character and our habits and our actions and our words and our thoughts etc.

Let us be better manifestations of Your WILL on earth, hands and feet of Your will, and let us JOYOUSLY and happily and with enthusiasm and energy participate in Your glorious Kingdom that is COMING to this world.

We give You praise; we give You glory; we give You honor with all the kingship lines that are gathered here with Your Three Kingship, and we pray in Your precious name. Amen! Amen! And Aju! Hallelujah! Praise God! (Applause)

Let's all rise and give Him the glory! Amen! Praise God!
