“House of the Lord”

(DUE TO SOME TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES A PORTION OF THE SUNDAY SERVICE WAS UNRECOVERABLE.)

...Look at the rise of radical Islam, which is a very hyper masculine, dominating culture. Why? Because Mohamed himself was an actual warlord. Right? He conquered Meca and Medina and he then also beheaded 800 Jews, who he said betrayed him. So, it is a very radical, masculine religion, with an actual political system involved in it. That's where the whole 5 schools of Islamic jurisprudence comes in.

There's an actual polity behind this thing and trust me, it is not Cheon Il Guk. It's not Cheon Il Guk - it is tyranny. Are you with me, folks? (Yes)

True Father's prophesy of the problem of Islam and Jihadist

Remember, Father prophesied this in ninety... I'm sorry, in '79, Father prophesied this. That's the year I was born, so I remember that. In '79, Father prophesied. You think the gays and the family breakdown are the problem. Watch! Islam and the Jihadists will be the biggest. They will be an even bigger problem. And you got a huge influence in the modern period teaching the Zoomers, like Andrew Tate, who is a world champion kickboxer. He's a good fighter. I can't beat him in kickboxing, I'm pretty sure of that. Okay, but he's a world champion kickboxer, good-looking guy, very wealthy - his net worth is near a billion dollars now because he became one of the most go-to people. And he's spot on when he talks about how weak the males have become in the West; how feminized males have become, they've been cocked and betas, how feminism has killed women's hope in their lives in the West. It's made them arrogant, narcissistic. It's made them selfish; it's made them monstrous to live with. They don't know how to serve or sacrifice for anybody - everybody's got to serve me. This kind of demonic, satanic, selfish culture runs through feminism. By the way, the matriarchs of feminism, if you study them, they literally said, "Marriage is the enslavement of women." Oh, okay, so Christian marriage, where a man does not sleep around and is loyal to you, works and provides for you day in and day out - that's slavery for you, huh? Okay, that makes a lot of sense. That makes a lot of sense.

What would you like as an alternative? Would you like to be in an Islamic marriage? Well, you've got 4 women to deal with then. But you also got mut'ah wives, which is endless divorce, and you can have temporary wives. When I was in Harvard there were people were doing papers on this, on the road to Mecca. Pilgrims going for prayer, but on the road to the prayer sites there were brothels - effectively what in the West we call brothels because the guys go in, they rent a woman, they quote "marry her" legally for an hour. Then they have sex with them and legally divorce them. And that's legal. That's called a mut'ah wife.

Feminism demonizes men and promotes hedonism

So, you gave up Christianity saying that a loyal husband that will work and slave away for you to make you happy as long as you give him a little bit of respect, that's all, you said that was slavery. What do you have now? You have boys that don't even know if they're a boy or a girl, they can't even tell the difference. They can't even find out what a man or woman is. You have mentally deranged everything, and now the women are not attracted to the males because they are so cocked and so beta and so weak! They're not men! Do you see what I'm saying?

Well, you made them that way! Are you with me, folks? (Yes) You demonized strong men and if they're loyal to you, you said that they're boring because you wanted adulterers! You got into the dramas and the soap operas. In the west you have the soap operas, in Korea you have the K-dramas, Korean dramas. Oh, my gosh. This is archangel love triangles - that is literally the core of every soap opera, right? Adam loves Eve, but then there's the handsome Luciel who wants to come in and woo Eve. That's literally the story of every, stupid soap opera and K-drama on T.V. And the women in the west... The men have been consuming porn so that's been killing the men; but then the women have been consuming this, women's porn, because it's romantic porn, basically fantasizing about adultery. They've been consuming this, and what happened now? You've wrecked all you... you have women who aren't thankful for having a loyal, hardworking, loving husband who doesn't beat them 5 times a day. You're not happy about that, he's too boring! What do you want, what do you want, then, baby? What do you want? Do you see how this works? It's ridiculous. It's insanity.

You get the breakdown of the marriage, breakdown of the nations, breakdown of male and female, breakdown of all this and at the same time you've been brainwashing girls that babies are a liability and children are a damnable, burden and baggage upon your life and you will never flourish as a woman because your children will sink you into the pits of hell because they will be whining and nagging at you all day and they will cost you a million dollars per head. This is the propaganda they've been feeding women in the west! One million dollars per child, are you kidding me?! Not even close, but they've been telling these girls these lies - demonizing having children. And what has happened?

The west and countries that have been following this, Korea and Japan as well, they have a 1.2 population replacement rate, right now. You're committing suicide. Because why? You don't value children; you don't value marriage. You value hedonism, materialism. You value just living for pleasure. You don't care about the next generation of human beings. You don't care about the people who will actually have your back through your 30's, 40's, 50's, 60's, 70's. That's, by the way, your husband or your wife. Notice, I said "husband and wife," not "husband and wives," because we are supposed to be in a Christian culture, Amen? (Amen) Are you with me folks?

Christianity traditional prohibited fornication

So, we're supposed to be... According to the secular world marriage is oppressive, it stultifies and takes away the dreams of women. It suffocates them under the chains of loyalty to one man. So, what do you want? Okay, so then free those chains and let's have the women have all this licentious sex and debauchery, which is what America did. Christianity went along with it with the fornication culture and dating culture, which is satanic culture. It's not in the Bible. There is no generation in Christianity where they allowed their children to fornicate with everything that moves and have all these dating cultures and go dating and have sex on the first date. This is ridiculous. Even just one generation ago, grandpa and grandma... Grandpa would have a shotgun waiting for you, if you were going to take out the daughter. Okay? He's going to remind you, "Boy, I'm watching you and so is Mr. Benelli." Is that true?

You wouldn't have this, "Oh, do what makes you happy. Just bang like little rabbits." Are you kidding me? This is demonic culture. It's what Father called the "free sex culture" and it's killed Christianity. Why? Because one the church has left the sexual discipline of keeping celibacy before marriage, of being a monk and being a virgin, which is a huge...

Rise of conservatism and virginity in Zoomers

By the way, this is great. One good thing about all this insanity of the left, is that they're making the young Zoomers, like 18 year olds, they're making the young Zoomer more conservative. Right? Because they've seen the earlier generation; maybe their moms were feminists, maybe they slept around with 50 different men, you know what I'm saying. Maybe they lived in open relationships; maybe they grew up in a lesbian... Whatever it is, you know what I'm saying? They grew up in all this craziness and now they're saying, "wait a minute, and the world telling me, 'just, sleep, sleep around.'" So, now it's no longer special for a man or woman to... It's normal that they have all these partners. It's now become a huge commodity for some young people who have moral discipline and train their mind and body and have dominion over the members of their body and they control their sexual desire and they train and they remain a virgin until marriage. This trend is now becoming more and more popular among the conservative males. (Applause) Why? Because they've seen what the other stuff gives them. It gives them angry, fornicating, adulterous, broken marriages, families, etc. That's what it gives you and it goes all the way back to the Fall with Lucifer, wanting that peach, wanting that peach. It goes all the way back to the Fall.

So, for TPUSA (Turning Point USA), the biggest conservative, young people's organization, now, the biggest in the country... Charlie Kirk, who is awesome, amazing. He's an incredible orator, he's smart, he's incredibly good looking. He was a virgin before marriage and he's got a super model wife. Just like me, the Queen is a super model. I was a virgin, baby. I was a Shaolin monk, baby, before marriage, do you understand? (Applause) That's called training, right? It used to be a virtue to do training and be a virgin before marriage. Now, for 60 years you've been laughed at if you were a virgin. Now, the tide is shifting. Now, you have all these women who are total sluts who actually want a man who has sexual discipline. Now, the men who have sexual discipline are becoming more sexually desirable in the sexual marketplace. Oh, my gosh, isn't that an interesting change in pace? You have Charlie Kirk, the biggest organization, TPUSA, he is pushing what? "Boys, be a virgin before marriage. Look at my wife, she's a super model. I did very well."

Sexual relationship only in the furnace of marriage

Great sex life in marriage; not outside. Because outside is illness, fornication, disease, deceit, mistrust, impurity, decadence and debauchery, right? In marriage, your sexual life is filled with joy; it's filled with glory to God. That's the proper place, like a fire that is lit in a furnace and not a fire that's jumping on the wall and jumping on the couch and jumping on your car and jumping on your mom's sweater. Are you with me folks? The fire is supposed to be in the furnace. That's where it's safe. That's where the fire of sexuality has to be, in the furnace of marriage, because then it warms the whole house. It warms the whole civilization. It strengthens the mommy and daddy; it gives children a vision of successful marriage of mom and dad. They want to get married and they want to be loyal, right?

So, it's interesting, the young Zoomer era now, 18 to 25 year olds, you see a trend not only towards conservatism, but now ultra-conservatism. It's not even ultra-conservatism. This is crazy that we have to call this "ultra-conservatism." This is traditional Christian culture. It's not ultra-conservatism. It's foundational to Christian culture. The Bible tells us that fornicators will not inherit the Kingdom of God. It rails against fornication as an abomination, okay? So, it's not an extreme part of conservatism. It's normal in conservatism, in Christian culture, Christian civilization, to encourage every generation to have sexual discipline before marriage and don't be sluts, and hoes, and prostitutes. Save what is precious for marriage.

That's why Father said you have to DEFEND your sexual organ; you have to keep it PURE. When you do that before marriage and then you consummate absolute sex and romance in marriage. That is so incredibly beautiful – it's unbelievable. From the heartistic realm, the spiritual realm, the physical realm, everything is there. Right? There's no: "Oh, you weren't as good as boyfriend number 1, or boyfriend number 10, or boyfriend number 20. I remember when this boyfriend did that to me." That's something you don't want to be hearing, Amen? No, that's not what you want. Amen?

So, now you have a whole generation of young boys that are at least on the conservative side. The liberals, they're licentious little rabbits; they run around with no brain. They're trying to bang whatever moves. But at least on the conservative side the young Zoomers are turning more quote "ultra-conservative," which is ridiculous, they're just becoming more traditional Christian. They're saying, "I'm going to become a monk before marriage." That means you're going to guard your sexual purity; there's something very valuable about this discipline. It's like fasting. There's something very powerful about that discipline; something very attractive. That's why in the marketplace where everybody is a slut, these young men who are saying, "nope, I'm going to be a virgin before marriage," now, all of a sudden, all the girls want that boy. See how that works? Why? Because it was so rare.

True Father's Kingdom Culture

But guess what – that's the culture of Cheon Il Guk that is coming, right? Father is moving the culture towards the Kingdom culture. (Applause) Strong males, females, sexual discipline. When you get married, great sex life, romance life, awesome, wonderful, flourishing, being fruitful, multiply and having dominion over the earth. Kingdom culture is also... All the young kings and queens, what are they deciding? You have to give your youth to somebody, okay? What does the world tell you to give your youth to? You have to give your youth to some professor, some ideology, some feminist, you have to give your youth to the friends that won't care about you in 20 years; they won't even be there. You have to give your youth to these boys that want to rape you and then throw you in the trash bin. That's what you were told to give your youth to. "Give your youth to alcohol and drugs and free sex culture, and be a licentious whore." That's what you've been taught. You have to give your youth to somebody. And these young, dumb bums will decide, unfortunately because they are brainwashed and they're psyoped... They're propagandized and psyoped so they will decide to give their youth to these demonic (?). But thank God for True Father's Kingdom culture, because the young people who are getting Blessed are investing in King and Queenship.

Kingdom people invest in their spouse and children

You have to give your youth to somebody. Are you going to give it to your stupid Marxist professor? Are you going to give it to your boss or are you going to give it to you quote "career". You have to give it to somebody. But God's people are deciding... God's children are deciding to go that way. What are they deciding? "I'm going to give my youth..." To what? "invest in my husband, my wife," and what? "my children." I have to give my youth to somebody, right? You're going to give it to your career boss. You're going to give it to your Marxist professor. You're going to give it to some CEO. You're going to give it to some job that you have. You have to give it to somebody. But the Kingdom people, especially the girls, are deciding, "I'm going to give it to my husband. I'm going to invest my youth in my husband, having great dates with him.” Right? “I’m going to invest my youth in having awesome, romantic and sexual life with my husband.”

So, we can do all the fun stuff that young people do, but it’s in the confines of marriage and we’re building each other up, thanking God for the covenant of marriage and doing it for the glory of God. At the same time, when we have children, we don’t demonize the children and see them as baggage and appendages that need to be cast off and they are burdensome. NO! The Bible says children are BLESSING from the Lord – blessing. You don’t lose a million per child, you make a billion per child if you invest properly. You make a billion because you have people who have got your back when you start getting hyper arthritis and cancer and diabetes and all those kinds of things as your body breaks down and everything. The people who have your back are your close circle, your wife and children, that’s it. That’s all you got. Your friends are too busy with their lives. Your coworkers are too busy with their lives. They have families to deal with. All you have, in the end, is your spouse and your children and, of course, God. Those relationships are given to us by God. So, it makes sense, if you have a brain, to invest in those relationships. Hello. Because if you invested your youth, your 20’s and 30’s, into having a great relationship with your husband, respecting him; conversely the husband loving the wife. Have a great date life. In the Cheon Il Guk culture, we always have to be training, right? Even when we get married, we always have to be dating our queen, investing in that marriage. Praying over our queen, right? Once a week you have to be training. So, you are investing in your date life not with multiple hordes of men, but with ONE man, who is your husband. How amazing is that? You’re investing your date life not into multiple hordes of whores. NO, in ONE woman who is pure and who is godly and who respects God and you.

You’re giving your youth to somebody and this covenant that will be there for you when you start aging, when you hit your 40’s and your joints start blowing up and you start getting injured while you sleep. You all know what I’m talking about when you’re 40 plus. After you’re 40, you get injured while you sleep. You don’t know what happened. You had an MMA fight during your freaking sleep. You wake up with a bulging disk and a displace hip, for some reason. I don’t know. What is the queen doing to me at night? I don’t know.

Queen’s Gift

I’m just joking. She bought me this beautiful watch. Look at this. It’s a Stührling Christmas gift. Isn’t that pretty? It’s German. I think it’s German. It’s called Stührling with two dots over the “u,” so I assume it’s Germon. But on the packaging, I cannot find “made in Germany” anywhere. So, it might be from China. I’m not sure. I just don’t know. It doesn’t say “made in Germany.” I’m hoping; I’m wishing.

King’s injuries

Do you understand? Your body starts breaking down after 40. I trained these young people in my 30’s, doing JiuJitsu and all that, wrestling and choking them out. So, they see the 2nd King; I know how to scrap. But as soon as I get in my 40’s, my knee blew out. “Boom” it exploded out. “Kaboom!” The left knee popped out, exploded. And my right shoulder exploded out. I said, “What the heck is going on?” I’ve been doing combat arts since I was in high school, but as my body gets older, now I’m seeing... Oh, man, I didn’t believe when I was in my teens and 20’s.

“Nah, nah, nah, that’s just the old people saying that. They’re making an excuse. You old people are just lazy; you’re just making an excuse.”

I know I’m still not old; I’m still a whippersnapper. After I got to be 40, because I’ve been putting a lot of pressure on these joints for a long time, 20 plus years. It started blowing up, man. My knee blew out; my shoulder blew out. Now, this one (touching left shoulder) is going out. This one (touching right shoulder) I couldn’t use for over one year, so I overcompensated on this one. So, this one (left shoulder) is going out now. Ah, it’s like, I’m just getting back to pushups, right now – it’s ridiculous. I’m literally just getting back to pushups, in a year. It’s insane! I just started some bag work again, where I’m Thai clinching so I can do my knee training, but that’s about it. I’m not doing any upper body striking yet. I’m going to start on Monday, this week. I’ll be working that slowly. Do you understand? It’s insane; I’ve never delt with this. But that’s what happens. It is what happen; it’s the reality.

Pain in old age is to remind us to train up the next generation

The Queen asked one of the sisters in her 60’s: “How is it in the 60’s? How do you feel in the 60’s?” One of the sisters said, “Well, if I have a little pain, it’s a good day.” That’s what she said, so, I’m taking your word on it, Okay? So, in the 60’s, your body is not only blowing up, like in the 40’s, and you start getting injured during sleep time, what they’re telling me about the 60’s is that you’re always getting injured. Always in pain; always getting injured. But this is, of course, natural. It’s natural; it’s not bad. Like Job, we don’t curse God about it. No, of course not. It’s a natural way for Him to remind us that we have to train up the next generation. The culture of the Father must be transmitted to the next generation. And that’s the difference in Christianity – it’s not the culture of the mother or the goddess, but the culture of the father. Because, why? The father will give us boundaries and discipline us in the way that only the father can do. He won’t just understand just understand us for all our demonic thinking and desires and actions. He will whip us into shape, too. He will discipline us, right? So, that’s the difference between Christianity and other religions. That’s way the worship of goddesses is highly forbidden in the Christian worldview. Why? Because it’s not the mother goddess. God is the Father – Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is that masculine influence in our lives, especially as a civilization, that curbs male violence, because 99% of all violence is done by young males. What is the power that stops them? Not moms. They are saying, “Please, please, no. We understand.”

NO! “You’d better not do that or I’ll whup and take your dang head off. If you touch mom, you are going to die.”

Dad in the home brings discipline, keeps the home together

That’s what stops a young blood from doing something stupid. But, if you have no daddy in the home, then you don’t have a good male influence, who loves you, but disciplines you and makes boundaries for you because he loves you. You have no example of that. So, of course, you’re going to be constantly breaking mom’s heart and you’re going to become hyper male that will gravitate towards other dangerous males, with no fathers and no boundaries, which is the reason why you have higher criminality if you don’t have dad in the home. Right? You have higher criminality, you have higher jail/incarceration rates, you have higher high school drop-out rates, you have lower income rates, you have higher divorce rates. All, from what? Dad is not in the home. You see how fundamental...

And that's not even the microcosm. The macrocosm is, "We need the daddy of Christ in our civilization." If we don't have that, the house falls apart. It doesn't matter how much the kids or mom try to hold it together, it won't hold together. It can only be held together by the father. Are you with me, folks? That's the only way. Look at the West. It's dilapidating, it's disintegrating. Why? The kids and the moms are ruling it and there are no dads. Everybody needs the father. That's why human beings were designed with the need to commune with the father. In the theological sense, the wife is like the bride of Christ to the husband, the bridegroom, Christ, and the husband is like a son to the Father. But we all need that masculine influence in our lives - that we can only get away with wrong for so far. At some point, God is going to come and get us. Amen. At some point, we're going to pay.

Shin Joon Nim and Shin Duk Nim's video on Christ

As the western civilization loses this belief in Christ... Look at what Christ did. Even though there are 80 prophecies prophesying the King of Israel coming, during Jesus time. There are three prophecies prophesying the suffering servant. The 3rd King, Shin Joon, did a great video on that. Everybody check that out. Wow! His latest video. Have you all seen his latest video? Shin Duk did the editing on that - phenomenal. It looks incredible; it's excellent, really good!

But anyways, the point is, 80 plus prophecies of Jesus as the reigning Messiah, King of Israel. 80 prophecies in the Old Testament; three of them are of the suffering servant. So, there is a big contrast. He shows very clearly that God obviously has, depending on the interaction with the people, depending on how the people choose... They can go one way where they support Jesus and make him the King of the world and support him and submit to him. Or, he has to go the way of the suffering servant, which is those three, right. Even though this was the alternative path that God allowed Christ to go on, and, of course, salvation spiritually, spiritual salvation to come... Not physically, now, because Jesus' physical body would be destroyed, taken up. His physical body would no longer be here with us and there's no lineage. The inheritors of Christ's message and Kingdom would be spiritual, so the Holy Spirit would come and then you would be inheritors of what? The spiritual Kingdom, which was considered to be the church in the church age.

Christ at his return will take physical dominion over the earth

But the point is that Jesus said that he was going to come back and then he's going to have dominion over the earth, he is going to physical rule. So, it doesn't matter what denomination of Christianity you are, you have to believe that at some point Jesus Christ will come back and he will rule PHYSICALLY on the earth; it will not be a spiritual Kingdom anymore. It will actually be a phyyyyyysical kingdom and he will have dominion and he will punish. That means he will kill the wicked. So, there's going to be a lot of judgement coming, too. I don't care what denomination you are from; you have to believe that in any denomination in Christianity - basically, the majority, right? So, it's physical in the end, but God allowed for the spiritual, the church age, the age of spiritual salvation. Look what Christ had to do. He had to sacrifice his life in face of the tyrants and communists of his age - he had to give his life. That's what the cross represents. It represents: "Okay, I'll obey what the Father says and I will go die, like a good soldier." So, then what becomes the center of Christian civilization? It doesn't become power, because he had no power. Jesus had no power. He was a fugitive; he was a federal felon of the Roman empire, being executed. So, he had no power, right? He had no clout; he didn't have a lot of followers

- he only had 12. Oh, yeah, he had less than that. At the end he had (?) of followers, whatever the case may be, but a few followers - not that big of a ministry. Yet Christendom is based on this image of him dying. So, you would think that's a very negative image. Wow, that's such a negative picture. That's going to really build a negative society. Guess what. No, it doesn't; it builds the opposite. He's like the ultimate combat veteran. He's the ultimate man who had no sins, right? All of us, we all have sins. He had no sins. He was totally innocent. He never committed a sin even in his mind, towards God. He was completely united with the Father. And that innocent man was killed as a federal felon, fugitive, executed by the State. He was an innocent man that was killed unjustly, unjustly. And he didn't complain about it. He prayed: "Father, let this cup pass from me, if it is thy will." And he wept. The Bible says he wept blood. So, it was painful, and the burden that he's going to carry is going to hurt. But if it's the Father's will, he said, "I will do it."

Father-son relationship is commitment to do violence against evil

And there are many layers to this, many layers. Why? Father always said the center of civilization is the father-son relationship. Why didn't he say the mother-daughter relationship? Why didn't he say the mother-son relationship? Why did he say father-son relationship? Do you know why? What is the difference between the relationship between moms and the children, and fathers and the children, especially boys? What is the relationship? What is the difference there? Huh? Okay, that's a nice way of putting it: "vertical." What is the difference? When you think about it, what is it? Okay, lineage. It's the promise of violence. It's the promise of violence. My father's enemies - I will fight.

Remember that song? The kid who won the incredible American Idol - Iam Tongi, the Hawaiian kid, the islander kid. He sang that incredible song about his dad that just died. Yeah, he's called monsters. His dad just died; he had cancer, or something like that. For one year, he did videos with his dad singing. His dad was also a great singer. But Iam Tongi, a young kid, 18-year old, a high school student. He went to the audition and he sang a song called "Monsters." The song called monster was... Basically, the father is on the death bed; the son is now a grown man and he's looking at his father and he says, in this moment, metaphorically speaking, "You're not just my Dad and I'm not just your son." This is one man saying goodbye to another man. And then he says, "Daddy, whatever's my problem, don't worry, because now, it's now my time to fight those monsters." See, this is the big difference between the father and son relationship and the father-daughter, mother-daughter relationships. Mother-daughter relationships, you are protected by the fathers who have committed and made the promise that I will die if evil men come to hurt my wife and children, I will die. That's the commitment that males have made. Is that true? (Yes) It's a commitment of violence, if we are ransacked. And the next generation of sons have to make that commitment to fight the same monsters - not to let them in. Not to let them in. Not to let them in and devour our families and civilization. That is the difference. It is a commitment that I will fight to the death. THAT'S the difference between the father-son relationship and the moms and their children.

That's why it's the center, so that if you lose that, and the sons don't fight the monsters of the fathers, you will lose your civilization. If they let the monsters in, that civilization will die. 100% - do you understand, folks? So, the compact, the contract between the father and the son... Why did Father say that is the center of civilization? Because if that is broken, there's nobody to guard the females and nobody to guard the children and they will be taken over by the hordes – whether they be the Genghis Kan hordes, whether they be the Jihadist hordes, whatever they are – whatever they are, the psychotic males will come and they will devour our women and children.

Kingdom peace police/peace militia defend God's ideal

Do you see that? It's very different. That's why Kingdom moms, you all understand. Because Father has put all of us, both males and females, into the Peace Police/Peace Militia. We understand that we all have to be law-enforcement; and we all have to be militia. We are all part of it, because in the Kingdom there are no centralized military and no centralized police. It's illegal. Everybody in the Kingdom has to take responsibility of protecting one another. That means that when bad guys come, we will fight them. That's a very important commitment. Do you understand? And it comes from the Father because the Father has to make that commitment, right? When Jesus went on the cross, he made the commitment: "Father in Heaven, I will fight all the beasts that You have fought and anybody who follows me, I call them to fight those beasts, too."

Do you see how that works? (Yes) Those monsters of the Father, who is one with the son, become our monsters that we must fight. That sense of responsibility, we talk about the vertical, that vertical sense of responsibility to not only to stand up for your civilization, not only to defend your family and the people you love, NO, to defend God's IDEAL! Even if it costs getting imprisoned, jailed, executed at the stake for being federal felons, it doesn't matter. Jesus was a federal felon, folks, right? They were scaring all the patriots, making them all federal felons. Well, Trump is a federal felon. Jesus was a federal felon. It looks like a lot of people that the satanic, political satanism doesn't like become federal felons. Huh? All the innocent people of January 6 who were walking around and being lured in by the capitol police doing entrapment, which is a federal crime, they became federal felons without due process and are rotting away (in prison) for 500 days. Do you see how that works?

BBC ITV interview of 2nd King

ITV was asking me... You will see them when we release the whole video with the BBC ITV folks, you will see they just kept asking me the same question: "So, Pastor Moon... So, Pastor Moon... Let me ask you another way... So, Pastor Moon, what will you do if Biden wins?" (Laughter)

And I go: "Well, we'll leave it up to Congress, then."

"Let me ask you another way. Excuse me King (?), so, Pastor Moon, what will you do if Biden is victorious?"

"Uh, I guess we'll leave it in God's hands."

"Okay, cue, cue, cut. Let me try that again. Okay, Pastor Moon, what will you do if Biden wins in 2024?"

"Bro, you asked me the same question, do you understand?" (Laughter)

I will release the whole video; you will see it. Watch, folks. Even my boys who were filming, they were like: "That dude just kept asking Daddy the same dang question. It's ridiculous."

I said, "that's how the game is played, boys. Do you understand?"

Houghton County militia

Then I said, "Look, what's happening in America, right now, during the usurpation of the Biden administration, you have a case in Michigan, Houghton County I believe is the county's name, they have officially started the Houghton Country militia - officially started a county militia. Any person, any adult, can join the militia simply by saying online, "I am part of the Houghton County Militia." So, they have made a formal government body, the militia of Houghton County, in Michigan, of all states. My gosh, it's such a heavily leftists dominated state, at least in the cities. They have made a formal militia. And what does it do? It now says that any gun control law, because we know that the commies will come in, if Biden wins again, they will try to come in and do what? Take away the... They don't want the Rod of Iron Kingdom. That's why they want to kill Pastor Moon, right? They don't want the Rod of Iron Kingdom, right? That's why they want me executed. They don't want the Rod of Iron Kingdom. So, what do the Democrats always try to do when they are in power and they do more? They will try to do what? They will confiscate. If they steal the election again, which they will try to do, and they get away with it, the next phase of it will be disarmament. So, as they go for disarmament, Houghton County has already formalized an official militia and it says, "No federal gun control law will affect any militia member from this date forward." (Applause) Praise the Lord Almighty! So, now you have a whole country, where it is Okay, everybody can just joint the militia, if you're an adult, by saying, "I'm part of the militia," and your gun rights are protected.

Now, what we want to see... Let's pray. This is great; let's pray for this to expand more. We want this to expand all over the country. I told ITV that this is probably what you're going to see. You're going to see conservative areas coming together, because they know these people are criminals.

And they said: "Ah, oh, Pastor Moon, are you saying that the president of the United States is a criminal?"

I said that the Senate Judiciary Committee is saying that, Redcoat!" I said, "Look, we defeated you guys a couple times, do you understand? There's a reason why we beat you guys up a little, okay?"

They're playing too many games. The Senate Judiciary Committee has come out with the Hunter Biden bank accounts going directly to Joe Biden! They are in complete pay-for-play, politically running with China, and of course Ukraine with Burisma and all that. But China, the evidence is coming out for China. And that's not me making stuff up, pulling it out of my bullet crown. (Laughter)

Where did that come from? I'm going to lean over and "pow, pow, pow, pow," shoot. (2nd King motions shooting off the bullets in his bullet crown.)

I'm not pulling that out of thin air. It's the Senate Judiciary Committee that has found that. So, yes, he is a criminal, crime body and he's doing criminal acts against the United States. And of course, these weak-kneed Neocons won't do a thing. They might not even impeach him - it's absurd. It's so pathetic.

Anyways, the point is, I told them, "Look, yes, he is a criminal organization gang, yes, they stole the election."

"Oh, so you are perpetuating the myth that the 2020 election was stolen."

“Dude, bro, we saw it with our eyes. Do you understand? These eyes saw it. We saw the jumps. We saw we were winning at night; we got up a few hours later and we saw the vertical jumps. The mail-in ballot system and the Corona lunacy that you all were saying that we should all be put in a gulag and we should be forced vaccinated. Remember that? You were saying that we should all be imprisoned and all the rights be stripped away and force vaccinated, when it is not even a vaccine, it’s a gene therapy mRNA death shot. You were the ones who were calling us to be Gulagged. That’s why we don’t like the mask, because we are not going to wear the symbol of being your slave. Do you understand? That’s a symbol.”

“That’s why you all lost, okay?”

Center of civilization is the sacrificial love of the Father

Do you understand folks? Our whole civilization, we are teetering on the edge, teetering on the edge. So, at Christmas time, getting back to the point, at Christmas time it’s so important to come back to that central element, right? The center of civilization is the sacrificial love of the Father. So, when we see Father in the airplane torture... that’s why we have that competition coming up. I’m going to engrave that on some of my guns.

Oh, my gosh, did you see the Kahr X9 come out? We just saw it in display in the Shot Show. Finally, Kahr has a double stack that is coming out. Thank the Lord. We need to compete with that gun, by the way. Our whole team’s going to have X9’s. We’re going to tear it up, hopefully. Pray for us, please. We have to train. The point is... What was I talking about? I got tangential with the Kahr X9; I got too excited about that.

Sacrificial... Yes, thank you. It’s the sacrificial love of the Father deciding to die for the sake of his... Even on the cross, to forgive for his enemies. You know, this is a big thing, because once you defeat the enemy, you don’t want to just rape, pillage, and plunder like the enemy. You don’t want to become the enemy. So, that’s what the Christian culture does. Once you defeat the enemy, which you have to defeat, God willing, and America has to defeat the communists and get this country back on track and save the world, really, through Christ... But the point is, once you defeat the enemy, you also have to love the enemy – you don’t rape, pillage, and plunder.

After defeating the enemy, Christian culture gives it freedom and responsibility

So, when did this happen? In the Civil War period, the North beat the South. Yes, I know that Abraham Lincoln federalized powers and he made a big increase in the power of government, but put that all aside for now. The fact that the North beat the South; they conquered the South. They could have said: “All right, now since you southerners were bad boys and girls, you don’t get to have guns.” They could have done that. Do you see what I mean?

“We’re not going to trust you with that power anymore because you literally tried to kill us.” You see how that works? But what did they do? Not immediately, but incrementally they slowly allowed the southerners to exercise their Second Amendment, again. So, a couple of decades, a hundred years later, etc., now the South has stronger gun rights than the North, right? You see how that works?

That is a type of... "Okay, we conquered you, but we're not going to rape, pillage, and plunder you. We're actually going to give you real power back, but we're going to do it in phases and let's do it peacefully."

You see how that is? That's a very big mindset, because once... Think about it, because the natural instinct of males after you conquer and destroy a civilization is to TAKE IT for yourself. Is that true? It's not your instinct to say: "Alright, we just slaughtered and conquered all these people and we can do whatever we want with them, but hey, let's forgive them and give them guns."

Uhh, that's usually not how it happens. You see, it doesn't happen that way, usually. You have to be pretty high level to decide that, as a group. Are you with me? That's a pretty big act of trust. I mean, we just conquered you all and we could disarm you and have you as our slave. We could do that. But they brought back their rights, in phases, obviously. The ones that were considered to be treasonous, they probably got rid of those people. Anyway, the point is that the south now has more gun rights than the north.

Where is this coming from? Why this type of moral imperative? You won. You conquered. The standard procedure for all of human history was that if I defeated you and destroyed and conquered your kingdom, it's now mine. That's how it was. It's always been like that. But why do people who love Jesus, armies and civilizations that love Jesus, why is their conclusion different after they conquer you? It's different. It's not like: "Okay, what you have is now mine, bye. You're going to die. We're going to rape, pillage, and plunder your civilization."

The conclusion is: "Okay, we want to raise you up to be a successful nation. We want you to have freedom." Do you see what I'm saying? How are you arriving at this conclusion? Do you know why? Because of Christ. Because he said: "Love God and love your neighbor." People don't understand that.

"Love God and love your neighbor" is prohibition against tyranny

When he said, "love God and love your neighbor," loving your neighbor is not only being nice to them, folks. Loving your neighbor is the single most, biggest prohibition against tyranny in the history of mankind, history of mankind. "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." That forbids a tyrant from bring a tyrant. Do you understand? It forbids the tyrant from being a tyrant and it forces... It forbids the tyrant from doing what? What tyrants always do. "I like what you have and I'm going to take what you have because I'm more powerful. Do you understand, folks? It's the single most, biggest prohibition against tyranny. Tyrants don't like that because if they like what you have and they like your wife, they will take her and they will take your land, right? They will take your land; they will take what they want. But when they say, "Love God and love your neighbor," now, the tyrant is like: "Oh." He has to love his neighbor. He has to respect his neighbor's property and his wife. You see how that works, folks? It's a massive, sociological prohibition of the act of tyranny. It's an unbelievable commandment and it saves civilizations. It's foundational to civilization.

That's why Christian cultures behave differently after they conquer. If they win a war, traditionally, a nation would take everything. But Christian countries, at least they try to. I'm not saying they're perfect. America certainly is not perfect. There's a lot of wars they've been in, but they have a moral imperative, at least it's popular in their culture to say: "Wait a minute. We should try to have them be free. We should try let them have human rights." Could they have gone one step further? Yes, they could have given South Korea the Second Amendment; they could have given Japan the Second Amendment. I wish they had, honestly speaking, so then I wouldn't have to become nakedly disarmed when I go there. You know what I mean? But the point is, I wish they had all throughout Europe, too, and given people the actual...

Cheon Il Guk Constitution will cover the earth and people will have that freedom, they will have that right and all the satanic kingdoms will fall because of that. The point is that the Christian imperative of love God and love your neighbor, by the way, which is the motto of the Peace Police/Peace Militia... That's the reason we train for anything, which is to become the better lovers of God and better protectors of people. That's the reason we carry 5 pounds of (?) on our body every day, it's for that purpose. As a community, if everybody does that, because there's always more good people than bad people, good people always win - always win. Always, will win.

That is the reason why crazy psychopaths on psychotropics and SSRI's don't go shoot at the NRA convention and the Shot Show. And they don't come here and shoot our church up, because they know there will be a lot of lead slinging. You want to sling lead; we sling some back. We invest in God's money. What is it? God's assets; lead is one of them. God's metals; precious metals. Are you with me, folks. So, "love God, love your neighbor" is not just being nice to your neighbor, you don't get to conquer your neighbor. You have to respect their sovereignty. You have to respect their family and their wife and their land. You see what I'm saying? It's a prohibition against tyranny.

So, the more we stray from Jesus and these things, the more crazy our civilization becomes. We lose everything. We don't have any more sovereignty; we have no more structure; homes are all broken. It's normal now to be divorced; normal now to have a messed up structure. It's normal for children, they're trying to make it normal, for children to believe that you can change genders on women and steal... Oh, my gosh, it's insanity. This is what you get - you go spiraling off quickly when you lose the center of the civilization, which is what? Sacrificial love. Christmas is about sacrificial love, right? I know we celebrate the birth of Jesus, but it's tied to his whole life and ministry and eventual death. Sacrificial love, that's the center of western, our civilization. It's not power; it's not intelligence; it's not technology. It's sacrificial love. It's bleeding on the cross, even for your enemies. Right? (Yes) That is the commitment that every person who is to be a Peace Police/Peace Militia man or woman is committing to.

I will not live only for myself. The reason I am putting my body under all this stress by carrying all this protective gear around is not for myself, for my family, but if something happens to any person, then we will fight back. That is a different mindset. It's a mindset of sacrificial, fatherly love.

God's fundamental nature is the good shepherd

In John chapter 10, we're going to get into that, but we're going quite over today. I'm going to wrap it up, okay? John chapter 10 talks about being the good shepherd. That is one of the fundamental characteristics, nature of God, as the Father, is that He is the good shepherd.

Psalm 23, of course, talks about that. "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He leads me to green pastures and beside still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me on paths of righteousness for His name sake. Yea, even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointed my head with oil. My cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever." (Amen, applause)

That's the Father, folks, that's the Father. We have to get back to that on Christmas, amen? So, we say "Merry Christmas." We have a right to say "Merry Christmas." Don't be scared to say "Merry Christmas, Merry Christmas, Merry Christmas." It's not "Merry Xmas." It's "Merry Christmas." Don't let them take out Christ and put in an X in there. X means "No." They're saying, "No Christmas." Christmas, Christ-mass, Merry Christ-mass.

Merry Christ-mass. If you're offended by that, God bless you, okay fine. Be offended. I'm going to say "Merry Christmas." Let's pray

(Second King's Prayer)

Father God, we thank you for the Christmas Season that is upon us. We thank you for all the incredible things that you are doing across this world. We thank you for all the patriots, now, that you are touching across this land and across the world. There is now a stronger yearning for Your Kingdom; a stronger yearning to be one with the Father, one with His Spirit, one with Adam culture to protect the women and children, to protect our civilization, to protect that which you have given to us, the human rights based on the Creator of the universe who has given us those things, Father God. We thank you because we know that You are moving with the spirit in all the different places You are opening doors, right now, that we cannot see. You have the 20,000-foot view; you have the million-foot view, You have the one billion-foot view. You can see all the pieces of the puzzle moving toward the eventual compilation and coming together of the Kingdom that is coming quickly to this earth.

And we are grateful because even in the midst of this tribulation where we feel that the enemy is so powerful, and the devil is more powerful, we must always remember that we are standing on the right side of history. We are standing on the side of defending Christ and Christendom. And we are standing on the side of loving You, the Father, and being made in Your image, resembling you, walking, picking up our crosses and following you to the end. Thy Kingdom is coming. We are so grateful for all the kingship lines gathered here, today. We want to give you praise and glory and honor, today. In Your precious name we pray. Amen and Aju. Let's all rise, folks.

END
