✧ American Second Generation member Seijin Tranberg, cross-country bicycle trip.

For protesting Unification church members' kidnapping in Japan, American Second Generation member Seijin Tranberg embarked on a cross-country bicycle trip from Georgia to Los Angeles on December 15, 2011. The projected duration of this trip is about 45 days.

In April, 2011, Seijin was elected Chairman of Student Government of Gwinnett College in Georgia. He said, "There is no foundation of CARP in my college. I hope that my cross-country bicycle trip will be a good example in sharing CARP vision and making the peaceful generation."

✧ Woman Sense (Korean monthly magazine): Methods of reducing private education expenses threatening the financial support of the family (Self-education for blessed family 3rd generation)

Self-education for children of Inchun Hwang and Soonna Lee family was reported in Woman Sense Volume 11th for 2011. Without private education, one of their children ranked third place out of the whole school. His daughter Juhae Hwang's hobby is boxing and Guitar; and his son, Jinwoo Hwang wants to be a football player.

Juhae Hwang says, "I concentrate on class because I know that what I study in class is helpful in preparing for an exam. Among my friends, good students do not go to private educational institute." She is satisfied with self-education.
