

The Assembly of International and Interreligious Federation for World Peace (IIFWP)

August 20, 2000 - Sunhak Institute of History - August 17, 2019

• Cheon Il Guk Providential History •

The assembly of the International and Interreligious Federation for World Peace (IIFWP)

August 17~20, 2000 the United Nations Headquarters in New York City

• Sunhak Institute of History •

A wide-angle photograph of a large, circular assembly hall. The room is filled with people seated at long, curved wooden desks arranged in a semi-circle. At the far end of the room, a raised platform or stage is visible, where several individuals are seated at a long table. The walls are covered in vertical wooden slats, and the overall atmosphere is formal and professional. The lighting is focused on the stage area.

On August 18, 2000, True Father spoke at the UN headquarters in New York City during an assembly of the International and Interreligious Federation for World Peace (IIFWP).

Through this assembly, the national leaders discuss the issue the UN has currently and remind the UN's role in the world. This discussion was held for the upcoming UN Millennium Meeting on September.

True Parents suggested the new UN system.

The UN should be reorganized an upper house and a lower house;

Lower House: representing each nation's profit

Higher House: representing all human being's profit

They also proposed the establishment of peace zones at the world's the most sensitive borders, including the Demilitarized Zone on the Korean peninsula.

“

The cease-fire line must be abolished. We must give the UN ownership of the DMZ, the buffer zone around the cease-fire line, and eventually abolish the line altogether. We must normalize North-South Korea relations by allowing the UN to step in between. When this happens, both Koreas can engage in direct exchanges and treat each other as one nation. The UN is the only organization that can make this possible. This is why we are purchasing land around the buffer zone, the border area, the mountainous area and the rivers, and passing the ownership to the UN. This gives hope to all Korean people. This has to be done quickly.

True Parents words [CBG 8.1.4:13]

천일국 섭리역사의 보고
Report of Cheong Il Guk Providential History

선학역사편찬원
Sunhak Institute Of History