

Life of Faith

Sun Myung Moon

March 1996

Exposition of the Divine Principle (2006 Translation) ; Part II; Chapter 1 The Providence to Lay the Foundation for Restoration; Section 3 The Providence of Restoration in Abraham's Family, 3.4 Some Lessons from Abraham's Course; Page 222

Photo date and location unknown

Each of us must divide our own self as an offering to separate good from evil.

A life of faith involves putting ourselves in the position of an offering.

Only by dividing good from evil in ourselves can we become living offerings pleasing to God.

We should constantly separate good from evil within ourselves, according to the standard of God's Will.

If we neglect to do this, a condition is set up for Satan to invade.