創立趣旨文

人類는 오직 世界平和를 바탕으로真正한 幸福을 누릴 수 있으며 人間에게 주어진 崇高한 精神과 無限한 知能도 어디까지나 平和와 福祉를 위하여 寄與되어야 할 것이다.

비록 各者の 專攻分野는 다를지언정 學問의 終局의인 目的是 世界平和와 人類福祉에 归一하는 바, 온 世界的 教授들은 共同의 廣場인 본 「아카데미」를 中心으로 넓게 交流하며 緊密히 協同하고 誠實하게 學術活動을 展開해 나갈 것을 다짐함과 동시에 우리는 世界 人類에게 學問에 대한 投資가 가장 有益하고 바람직하고 알찬 結實을 招來할 것임을 實踐의으로 보여주고자 한다.

•A general view of the Founding General Meeting •

On May 6, 1973, in Seoul, at the New Korea Hotel-Cosmos Hall, the Founding General Meeting of P.W.P.A was held by 163 Professors who came together from all over the country.

1972年(7. 28, 8. 8) 國際勝共聯合 및 原理研究會 周旋으로 開催된 第2, 3次「韓日教授親善세미나」에 參席했던 兩國 教授間에 世界平和를 為한 知性의 役割과 新로운指導理念의 必要性이 強調되었으며 이를 為한 世界的 學術研究協議體의 構成이 論議되었다.

이러한 뜻에 對하여 平素 平和世界의 具顯에 力盡해 온 文鮮明先生의 깊은 理解와 協助를 얻게되어 그 뜻을 더욱 具體化 시키게 되었다. 그리고 純粹하게 學問研究에 精進하여 平和世界建設에 積極 寄與할 良心의 學者들의 活動에 뜻을 같이하는 國内外 여러 教授들의 呼應을 받아 그 發起의 첫 모임을 갖게 되었다. 그後 2次(73. 2. 27, 4. 7)에 걸친 發起委員會와 七次(73. 3. 1, 3. 5, 3. 10, 3. 29, 4. 15, 4. 16, 5. 3)의 創立準備委員會에서 定款草案, 事業計劃 등 諸般 基礎事項이 審議決定되어 創立總會를 開催하게 되었다.

The Promoting Prospectus

In spite of our highly developed scientific civilization, due to a lack of moral sense, the people of the world are now perplexed and are in confusion and darkness. Hereby we professors came to promote The Professors World Peace Academy to contribute to the creation of a new culture, and to the peace and welfare of all mankind through the realization of one truth and of sovereign good.

Promoting Professors
April 7, 1973

Motive and Progress

At the 2nd and 3rd Korean-Japanese Professors Goodwill Seminars in July and August in 1972(7. 28, 8. 8), sponsored by the International Federation for Victory over Communism(IFVC), and the Korean Collegiate Association for the Research of Principle(K-CAR P), the role of intellectuals in establishing world peace, and the necessity of a new guiding idea among the professors of these countries were emphasised.

Therefore the organization of a worldwide conference for academic research was discussed.

With the deep understanding and cooperation of Mr. Sun Myung Moon, who has devoted his life to the establishment of a peaceful world, this idea came to be further actualized. Thus the first promotional meeting was brought about through the response of conscientious professors, at home and overseas, agreeing to make a positive contribution to the establishment of a peaceful world through genuine academic research.

There were two promotional meetings and seven(7) founding preparatory meetings, and the draft of the Articles of Association and plans for initial undertakings were examined and adopted in the preparatory committees.

On this basis this founding general meeting of the academy came about.

Jack Anderson Visits Korea

Nationally-known columnist Jack Anderson, during a stay of several days in South Korea, reported that "democracy is not dead in South Korea," and that South Korea faces a real and formidable threat from North Korea, both from an arms build-up along the DMZ and subversion through infiltration from Japan.

Anderson came to Korea at the urging of Christian leaders who asked him to make a "personal appeal" to South Korean President Chung Hee Park for clemency on behalf of twelve religious leaders who had been jailed for anti-government activities under a set of "emergency decrees" established by Park last year.

In the meeting with President Park, Anderson reported that Park responded affirmatively to his appeal, saying that he would give it "careful consideration." However, the South Korean president stressed that the imprisoned Christians had not been arrested for criticizing the government but for violating the law. "Many vocal critics openly denounce his regime, he said, yet they are not sent to jail," Anderson reported.

Anderson said that Park "vigorously denied" charges that the emergency decrees were imposed "for the sole purpose of stifling dissent."

Anderson reported that Park showed him "documentary evidence" of "an alarming North Korean military buildup, the discovery of an infiltration tunnel under the demilitarized zone, almost daily incidents along the truce line, and acts of subversion within his country." Park added that many countries had to adopt emergency measures when their security was threatened. "Even the United States suspended the civil rights of Japanese-Americans on the West coast and threw them into concentration camps after the bombing of Pearl Harbor."

The evidence shown to Anderson indicated that "North Korea has been amassing men and weapons for a possible resumption of the Korean War. A total of 813 fortified gun positions have been spotted inside the North Korean half of the demilitarized zone in outright violation of the truce agreement. Some of the larger guns could bombard Seoul itself."

Anderson mentioned a "propaganda barrage," which has now reached 800 hours of broadcasting against South Korea, which is "designed to support an underground effort to overthrow the Park regime and replace it with a government that would be acceptable to North Korea."

Anderson reported, based on his own sources, that "U.S. intelligence not only has confirmed the military buildup but the underground operation to subvert the Park regime. Unquestionably North Korea is developing and directing an underground organization inside South Korea. Communist agents are infiltrating into the country, some by secret landings on the long coast line, but most through the large Korean community in Japan."

Anderson was assured by South Korean Christians that the jailed Christians were anti-Communist, but also admittedly anti-Park. The jailed Christians contend that Park "has turned South Korea into a dictatorship and that they are fighting for elementary freedom," Anderson reported. The religious leaders conceded, however, that the Church has far more freedom in South Korea than in North Korea.

Kim Joon Gon, president of the Korean Campus Crusade for Christ, told Anderson, "in the United States you have 100 per cent religious freedom, in South Korea we have 80 per cent religious freedom. In North Korea, they have zero percentage."

The Korean Christian leaders also told Anderson that the jailed Christians represented a "minority" of "Liberation Christians who believe the church must side with the oppressed and work to change society." He said the majority of Korean Christians "agree that the church must side with the oppressed, but believe it must keep out of politics."

In another dispatch from Seoul, Anderson reported his impressions of life in South Korea, based on a four-day trip around the country with non-governmental friends as guides, compared with reports about life in North Korea from people who had visited there. Anderson reported:

"The intelligence reports depict North Korea as perhaps the world's most oppressive, monolithic society. Although dissidents tried early this year to challenge the absolute authority of Kim Il Sung, they were ruthlessly cut down on Feb. 15.

"The cruel Kim keeps his subjects in line through the National Political Security Bureau, which conducts secret surveillance on all branches of government and walks of life. NPSB advisers exercise political control, serving as Kim's eyes and ears, over the army down to the company level and over the bureaucracy down to the section level. They also reach into every neighborhood in North Korea.

"Most able-bodied men who work in the factories and fields, are pressed into a labor-peasant military reserve, which is given intensive, mandatory training to keep it combat-ready. Another 700,000 youths likewise must drill five hours each week, with a full month of active duty each year.

"The visitors to Pyongyang describe the North Korean capital as bleak and cheerless. The people on the streets had a haunted look, reported the visitor. There was little traffic except for government cars."

In contrast, Anderson found opposition leaders fearful of the Korean Central Intelligence Agency, but that "no one was the least afraid to criticize the government in their homes and offices. And even the harshest critics agreed that the KCIA was by no means as omnipresent as the NPSD."

Anderson described further evidence of freedom and prosperity in South Korea that he saw during his travels:

"Outside of Seoul, I found people seemingly oblivious of the government. South Korea's major cities are bustling, prosperous places, the people friendly and cheerful, the streets jammed with honking, careening civilian auto traffic."

He also mentioned seeing well-stocked department stores, electric lines strung to homes in even the poorest villages, and a modern shipyard and a huge steel mill producing high-quality ships and steel for export.

"South Korea's growth rate, now at an astonishing 15 per cent, is the highest in the world. The people, clearly, are more free, more prosperous and altogether better off than their cousins north of the 38th Parallel," Anderson observed.

He concluded by saying, "The democratic processes clearly have been curtailed, but democracy is not dead in South Korea. And economically, the country has made astonishing progress under President Park!"

A significant victory was won at the United Nations as the U.N.'s powerful Political and Security Committee voted 61 to 42 with 32 abstentions to endorse a U.S.-sponsored resolution which would maintain U.N. troops in South Korea. The General Assembly was expected to follow the Committee's recommendation before the break for the Christmas holidays.

The action of the Political and Security Committee followed a heated debate and procedural battle to determine whether the U.S.-backed resolution or a Communist sponsored one calling for the withdrawal of U.N. forces in Korea would receive priority.

The U.S.-backed proposal holds open the possibility that U.N. forces in Korea will be dissolved, but puts responsibility for such action on the U.N. Security Council, "pending negotiations and conciliation between the two Korean governments." The U.S. maintains veto power on the Security Council, thus assuring no precipitous withdrawal without U.S. consent.

Human Rights Committee Scores Success

Informed diplomatic sources in Washington gave credit to the American Committee for Human Rights of Japanese Repatriates for influencing a number of third-world nations to side with the U.S. on the issue. The Committee had conducted a 700-person 7-day fasting demonstration in front of the U.N. protesting North Korean refusal to give freedom of travel to thousands of Japanese women now living in North Korea with their repatriated Korean husbands.

The pro-U.S. vote represented a major shift in relation to other U.N. proceedings, where the U.S. and other western nations had been facing a series of serious setbacks, culminating in U.S. Ambassador John Scali's scathing denunciation of what he called the "tyranny of the majority" in the U.N. A vote against recognizing Cambodia's ousted Prince Sihanouk provided a similar victory for the U.S. Both votes were interpreted to demonstrate continuing fear of Communist Chinese dominance on the part of smaller third-world nations.

The Korea vote in particular signified a repudiation of Kim Il Sung's attempt to portray himself as the emerging leader of left-wing third-world nations through the "Juche" idea of independent Marxist-Leninist revolution.

Spokesmen for the Human Rights Committee, with which FLF is affiliated, told the Rising Tide that third-world delegates with whom they came in contact were often "shocked and surprised" at the documentation the Committee produced on the denial of human rights in North Korea. "Kim Il-Sung had passed himself off as a humanitarian among many third world nations," a Committee member said.

Priority Issue

The procedural struggle in the U.N. centered around a question of priority. A draft resolution by Bolivia had been introduced on September 3, followed by one by Algeria on September 16. The Bolivian resolution was later amended by the Saudi Arabians. Communist bloc countries argued that the Algerian question should be voted first.

Committee rule #131, however, states that "if two proposals relate to the same question, the committee shall, unless it decides otherwise, vote on the proposals in the order in which they were submitted."

The Netherlands representative argued that the Bolivian proposal retained priority according to precedents. Committee Chairman Carlos Ortiz de Rozas of Argentina, however, agreed to allow a vote on a Cuban proposal to vote on the Algerian resolution first. The Cuban proposal was defeated 48-50-33.

The procedural battle then shifted to whether or not the committee should vote on the Algerian resolution after passing on the Saudi-amended Bolivian proposal. Both the Soviet Union and China argued that the Algerian proposal could be voted on, even if the Bolivian one were passed. (The Algerian proposal would have the General Assembly go on record as saying it was "necessary to withdraw all foreign troops stationed in South Korea under the United Nations Flag.")

The committee then voted to pass the Saudi Arabian amendment by 57-43-35, and immediately went on to pass the Bolivian draft resolution 61-42-32.

A proposal by Barbados to table the Algerian motion was defeated 48-57-30, a minor defeat for the United States. However, the Algerian motion then failed to pass on a tie vote, 48-48-38.

According to U.N. sources, the General Assembly rarely rejects proposals by the Political Committee, which includes representatives of all U.N. nations. It thus appears that U.N. forces will be able to be maintained on the Korean peninsula for at least another year.

Summit Strengthens Ties

U.S. Reaffirms Defense Pledges

U.S. President Gerald R. Ford reaffirmed yesterday the American determination to render prompt and effective assistance to repel armed attack against the Republic of Korea in accordance with the Korea-U.S. mutual defense treaty of 1954.

At the same time, the U.S. Chief Executive assured the Korean government that the United States has no plan to reduce the present level of the U.S. military strength in Korea.

The U.S. reassurance to aid Korea at a time of armed invasion, which was combined with no U.S. troop withdrawal program, came in a joint communique issued at the conclusion of the first round of summit talks between President Park Chung-hee and his U.S. counterpart Ford at Chong Wa Dae.

In a rather lengthy communique, which covered wide areas of Korea-U.S. relations from such matters as defense to U.N. policies, and promotion of economic cooperation, the two top leaders agreed that implementation of the modernization program for the Korean armed forces "is of major importance to the security of the Republic of Korea and peace on the Korean peninsula."

The two Presidents agreed that the Republic of Korea forces and American forces stationed in Korea must maintain a high degree of strength and readiness in order to deter aggression," the communique said.

President Ford took note of the increasing share of the defense burden which Korea is able and willing to assume, affirming the readiness of the U.S. to continue to render appropriate support to the further development of defense industries in Korea.

According to the communique, in the Park-Ford summit, President Park explained in detail the current situation on the Korean peninsula, describing the threat to peace and stability of hostile acts by north Korea, which was exemplified most recently by the construction of an underground tunnel inside the southern sector of the Demilitarized Zone.

Discussing up-to-date developments of the overall situation on the Korean peninsula, including the stalled south-north dialogue, the President described constant efforts being made by the Republic of Korea to maintain a dialogue with north Korea designed to reduce tensions and establish peace on the Korean peninsula and to lead eventually to the peaceful unification of Korea.

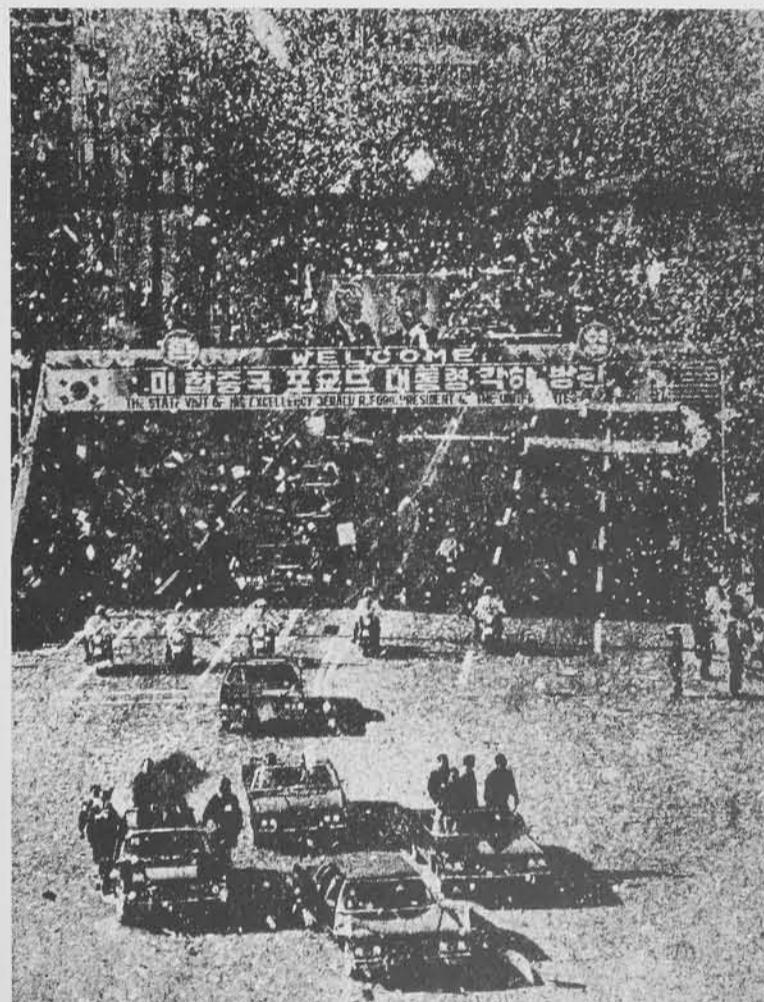

"President Park affirmed the intention of the Republic of Korea to continue to pursue the dialogue despite the failure of the north Korean authorities to respond with sincerity thus far."

The communique said, "President Ford gave assurance that the United States will continue to support these efforts by the Republic of Korea and expressed the hope that the constructive initiatives by the Republic of Korea would meet with positive responses by all concerned."

Touching on the current U.N. General Assembly consideration of the Korean question, the two Presidents agreed on the importance of favorable General Assembly action on the draft resolution introduced by the U.S. and other member countries.

"Both expressed the hope that the General Assembly would base its consideration of the Korean question on a recognition of the importance of the security arrangements which have preserved peace on the Korean peninsula for more than two decades," the communique said.

The two Presidents agreed to continue close cooperation and regular consultation on security matters and other subjects of mutual interest, taking note of significant political and economic changes in the situation in Asia in recent years.

President Ford explained that the U.S., as a Pacific power, is virtually interested in Asia and the Pacific and will continue its best efforts to ensure the peace and security of the region.

Examining the impact of recent international economic developments, they agreed that the two countries should continue to foster close economic cooperation for their mutual benefit, and that they should guide their economic policies toward each other in the spirit of closer interdependence among all nations.

They shared the view that coordination of their policies on new problems confronting the international community is necessary, expressing mutual satisfaction over the continuing growth of substantial bilateral economic relations beneficial to both countries.

"They agreed that continued private foreign investment in Korea by the United States and other foreign countries is desirable," the communique said.

It added, "It was agreed that international efforts should focus on the reduction of trade distortions, establishment of a framework for ensuring stable food supplies, and realization of stable supplies of energy at reasonable prices."

President Ford invited President Park to visit the United States and Park accepted the invitation, agreeing that his visit would take place at a time of mutual convenience.

Park, Ford Emphasize Need for ROK Security

President Park Chung-hee and U.S. President Gerald R. Ford discussed a wide range of problems yesterday covering measures to promote mutual friendship and cooperation with the focus on Korean national security in view of the persisting Communist provocations from the north.

After a two and a half hours' meeting, Chong Wa Dae spokesman Kim Sung-jin told reporters that the two Presidents also exchanged a wide range of views on the international situation as well as various internal problems of their respective countries.

According to spokesman Kim, President Park explained to his American counterpart the situation on the Korean peninsula and related security matters involving the construction of an underground tunnel system.

President Ford responded that his government would give "prompt and effective" assistance to Korea in case of armed attack on the south by the north Korean Communists, the presidential spokesman quoted him as saying.

Korea by the United States and other foreign countries is desirable," the communique said. It added, "It was agreed that international efforts should focus on the reduction of trade distortions, establishment of a framework for ensuring stable food supplies, and realization of stable supplies of energy at reasonable prices."

President Ford invited President Park to visit the United States and Park accepted the invitation, agreeing that his visit would take place at a time of mutual convenience.

President Park and his first daughter, Keun-hye, received President Ford and his party in front of the Chong Wa Dae main hall and took them inside the presidential mansion for talks.

Earlier in the airport ceremony, President Park said in his welcoming remarks that Ford's visit here would add strength to the traditional friendly relationship between the two countries and would lay the foundation for enduring peace and everlasting prosperity in Asia.

"Your country has given unfailing support to our endeavors for self-help, which have progressed in the face of many trials and challenges. As a result our two nations have further strengthened our cooperative ties in all fields of human endeavor," Park continued.

The American president responded in his arrival statement, "I am here to reaffirm our friendship and to give it new life and meaning."

"Nothing binds nations closer than to have fought side by side for the same cause. Two times we stood together, here and in Vietnam, to preserve the peace and stability of Asia and the world. We can never forget this," he stated.

Ford added: "Let us now join to preserve peace and prevent any recurrence of hostilities. That is our continuing commitment which I today reaffirm."

On hand at the airport were Prime Minister Kim Jong-pil, Speaker Chung Il-kwon, Chief Justice Min Pok-ki, and other Korean and foreign dignitaries as well as hundreds of citizens, including members of the foreign diplomatic corps in Seoul.

The summit talks were attended by Prime Minister Kim Jong-pil, Foreign Minister Kim Dong-jo, Korean Ambassador to the U.S. Hahn Pyung-choon and Chong Wa Dae secretary-general Kim Chung-yum.

From the U.S. side were Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, Assistant Secretary for East Asian and Pacific Affairs Philip Habib, American Ambassador to Korea Richard L. Sneider and Lt. Gen. Brent Scowcroft, deputy assistant to the president for national security affairs.

President Park was quoted as explaining Korea's efforts for the prevention of war on the peninsula and a series of steps taken for the settlement of peace in Korea and for unification of the country.

However, the Korean President assured President Ford of continued endeavor of the promotion of the stalled south-north dialogue, despite much difficulty in the face of the constant threats from the north, the spokesman said.

President Ford assured the Korean President of his government's continued assistance to such Korean endeavors.

The spokesman described their talks as being conducted in a most cordial and discreet atmosphere. He disclosed that

303 Alien Scribes Cover U.S. President Trip Here

A total of 303 journalists of foreign press organizations are covering J.S. President Gerald Ford's visit to Korea, the Culture-Information Ministry said yesterday.

They include 154 pressmen accredited to the White House who are accompanying President Ford from Washington.

Others are 93 foreign reporters based in Tokyo, Hongkong or other places who were specially assigned to cover Ford's tour, and 56 journalists working for foreign news media based in Seoul.

A press center was established in the Ballroom of the Chosun Hotel with 20 overseas telephone lines, 22 telexes, five reception desks for international telegrams and radio photo and facsimile services.

Communications facilities were also installed at Kimpo International Airport, the National Cemetery in Tong-jak-dong, and the 2nd U.S. Infantry Division Headquarters for the convenience of the newsmen.

Highlife State Dinner

The state dinner yesterday for visiting U.S. President Gerald R. Ford and his entourage was composed mostly of traditional Korean delicacies, such as "kujol pan," "sinsullo" and fried sliced fish.

Asked if he had seen similar crowds at Grand Rapids, Mich., when he visited his home town after his inauguration, Ford said: "Yes, but on a smaller scale."

The welcoming mood was highlighted when the motorcade reached Sosomun street near City Hall. Confetti showered from buildings over the passing motorcade.

When the motorcade arrived at City Hall Plaza, President Ford accompanied by President Park got out of the car again and walked some 100 meters toward the Chosun Hotel exchanging handshakes with students and citizens.

The two presidents got in the car near the entrance of the hotel. They arrived at the front door about 15 minutes behind schedule.

For the passage of the presidential motorcade, road traffic was totally cut off between the airport and the hotel. Many commuting citizens had to walk to their offices from 9 a.m. when the traffic cutoff took effect prematurely.

A Warm Welcome to U.S. President Gerald R. Ford

— STATEMENT —

Mankind faces a crisis today. Bewildered by terrible scientific techniques, man is engulfed in a vicious cycle of extreme egoistical materialism devoid of spirit and ethics.

We professors, in pursuit of the truth and goodness, should not be disappointed at nor remain indifferent to this situation, but should devote ourselves to the salvation of mankind, social salvation and world peace with good wisdom and brave action.

Man has his body, externally, and his spirit internally. Human life is comprised of the essential life of a being and its expression in life with all its particularities and divergences. All men are alike in the fact that they all live and all have spirits, but are different in their living styles and bodies.

Therefore, crises can be overcome and world peace achieved only if people look at their points of similarity.

Man should be saved. To do this, first of all, individuals should be complete by establishing harmony between their essential inner life and living styles and between their spirit and flesh. And then individuals should be united together to build families, societies, states and a world of truth, goodness and beauty.

In view of these facts we have found that the principle capable of bringing world peace on the basis of such a completion of mankind is the Divine Principle advocated by the Korean Rev. Sun Myung Moon.

His Divine Principle is a principle capable of leading from darkness and sorrow to "light and joy." At the same time, the principle is a peace principle capable of bringing together divided south and north Korea and our world divided into east and west, north and south. The principle also points out the Korean nation's historic mission and the mandate of the history of man.

The world should be united, but before this, religions would have to be unified. The Divine Principle is aimed at achieving this goal. The principle is a great one which has Christianity as its center and yet includes the essence of other religions such as Buddhism, Confucianism, and the truths of all ages and countries.

The principle which is pursuing world unification in the present reality of space and following the tradition of history is derived from the particularity of the Korean cultural heritage, and is also the nation's ideal as a way to achieve national unification. That means as a way to realize the 5,000-year inherited idea of worshiping the Heavenly God and expressing our consciousness of being one brethren.

The Divine Principle also represents a code of practical conduct adequate to the new time. In this respect, the Holy Spirit Association for the Unification of World Christianity is a cradle for making complete individual persons and families, and also the basis on which the unification of states and the world can be achieved.

The believers in this principle, through completion of their personal characters, become sincere and loyal to the observance of ethics and morality, and are prepared to sweat for the benefit of their people and states.

They also advocate freedom and democracy; reject Communist autocracy; are thorough in their respect for every human being, and devoting themselves to international cooperation and world peace.

Though it has been only 20 years since Rev. Moon founded the Holy Spirit Association for Unification of World Christianity, the history he has created in conjunction with God has thrived to the extent that the association has developed into a worldwide religious organization, which now has over two million believers in 41 countries.

Noteworthy, Rev. Moon has visited every state in the United States since 1972, proclaiming the "Day of Hope" and urging American citizens to awake and to return to God. Throughout this crusade, the Reverend received honorary citizenship certificates from 73 American cities. Also in response to his campaign, 136 state governors and mayors have proclaimed the days on which Rev. Moon visited a "Days of Hope and Unification."

On Sept. 18, 1974, the Reverend spoke on the "New Future of Christianity" to an enthusiastic audience of more than 40,000 who gathered at Madison Square Garden in New York City.

On Oct. 8 this year, he was invited to the U.S. Congress and delivered a speech titled "The Will of God and the United States" to more than 180 U.S. political figures including senators and representatives.

At present, Rev. Moon is continuing his evangelistic travel, visiting eight major cities in the U.S. Belief must be practiced. And the will and love of God must be spread throughout the world. Belief is a practice which realizes the very Divine Principle and unifies the world into harmony with truth, goodness and beauty.

The International Conference for Unified Science, the Collegiate Associations for Research of the Principles and the Institutes of Unification Thought are all academies of scholars inspired by the Divine Principle who search for truth and endeavor to bring forth peace.

The International Foundation for Victory over Communism, active in many nations, the medical service activities, Japan's Save-the-Nation League, the Japanese campaign to promote free travel for the Japanese wives who were repatriated with their Korean husbands to North Korea, the One World Crusade in the United States and the Freedom Leadership Foundation are all vanguard organizations striving to protect their peoples and states and also to unite the free democratic world.

The members are largely youths who work hard, even sacrificing themselves, to serve the will of God in all corners of the world. They are good workers participating in the construction of a unified world flourishing in "Light and Joy" by reaching out to people with the Divine Principle.

As intellectuals who are supposed to be well educated in academic fields and in virtue, we altogether deeply understand and appreciate the above-mentioned workers' sincere and enthusiastic desire and conduct, and would like to step toward a unified world and peace, along with them.

However, we cannot but deplore a handful of people who turn their faces away or intentionally slander and defame the Holy Spirit Association, which is spreading the light of this great principle and way of life, which has come out of Korea, to the world.

We hereby publish this statement, knowing that on the way we will have to do away with all our prejudices and biases and awaken once and for all to take the lead in the effort for national growth and world peace along the way of national consensus and cooperation among the entire world people.

"Proclamation" to Appear Nationwide

To appear in newspapers in all fifty states prior to the Directors Conference is the advertisement signed by one hundred Korean professors recently placed in Korean newspapers, "Proclamation on the activities being undertaken by the Unification Church." Says the ad (in part):

"Its members are truly ethical and moral through their perfection of character; and they offer themselves with full dedication and with blood and sweat for the cause of their nation and its people. They are consistent in respect for mankind, devoted in the safeguarding of democracy, adamant frontiersmen against communist totalitarianism, and they have dedicated themselves to the end of international cooperation and world peace.

"We, as intellectuals, knowledgeable of the world's great teachings and virtues, support these genuine and earnest ideals and activities with the deepest understanding, and we urge others to join us in pursuing a unified world and peace for mankind."

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1974

PROCLAMATION

on the activities being undertaken by the Unification Church

Today, mankind is in crisis. As a result of the high development of science and technology, man is inescapably locked in a vicious circle of an extremely self-centered and materialistic way of life that defies spirituality and morality. However, we professors and all academicians who are in constant pursuit of truth should not yield to disappointment; rather, we should participate in activity for the recovery of mankind, salvation of society, and the realization of world peace.

Man consists of "body" and "spirit" as his outer form and inner entity, respectively, and our life connotes both "life," which is universally common, and "lifestyle," which is the expression of varied circumstances. All men commonly share "life" and "spirit," but their "lifestyles" and "bodies" vary to some extent. Therefore, the surmounting of today's crises and the establishment of world peace can be achieved only at the common level of life and spirituality.

Mankind needs salvation. First, individuals must be perfected through harmony between "life" and "lifestyle," and between "spirit" and "body." Such individuals can meet and unite to form families of truth, goodness and beauty, which eventually will develop into such a society, nation and world. This consistent principle to attain world peace upon the foundation of individual perfection is the Divine Principle disclosed by the Reverend Sun Myung Moon.

Reverend Moon was born in Korea, a country that can well represent and indemnify the agonies and disasters of all mankind today. His Divine Principle has thus brought forth light and happiness out of darkness and sorrow. It is also the principle of peace which will enable the world, shattered and scattered in all directions, to unify once again. Thus, it contains both the historical mission of the nation of Korea and the goal and desire of all mankind.

The world must become unified; but before that can take place, all religions, which are the guiding principles in our "life," must become unified. Divine Principle is instrumental and essential to accomplish this purpose. Its scope is of the greatest magnitude in that it comprehensively contains the essence of the world's great religious, including Buddhism, Confucianism, and certainly Judaism and world Christianity, and also encompasses all non-religious truth.

This unified pursuit of the harmonization of space and the summation of all tradition of time is a manifestation of the awareness of ideological subjectivity, which can be attributed to the characteristics of the cultural tradition of Korea. It is also an explicit development of the essential "ideal of God" and the ideals of "reverence for Heaven" and "brotherly love," all of which we have cherished throughout our nation's five-thousand-year history.

Divine Principle is the working guide for effective practical action for this new age. Accordingly, the Unification Church is the cradle of individual and family perfection in the smaller sense, and it can then be viewed as the foundation of national and world unity in the larger sense.

Its members are truly ethical and moral through their perfection of character; and they offer themselves with full dedication and with blood and sweat for the cause of their nation and its people. They are consistent in respect for mankind, devoted in the safeguarding of democracy, adamant frontiersmen against communist totalitarianism, and they have dedicated themselves to the end of international cooperation and world peace.

It is a small wonder that after a mere 20 years since Reverend Moon established the Unification Church, the "work which is wrought together with God" has made truly remarkable progress, until today it embodies more than two million members in 41 countries worldwide.

Especially noteworthy is that Reverend Moon in 1972 launched a crusade to more than fifty cities throughout the United States, urging the once-great Christian nation to return to God. He has received honorary citizenships from 73 cities, and 153 governors and mayors have proclaimed the "Day of Hope and Unity," commemorating his efforts. On September 18, 1974, some 40,000 people overflowed Madison Square Garden, where he delivered his message on "The New Future of Christianity." On October 8, he was invited to Capitol Hill, where he spoke about "America in God's Providence" before an audience of 180 leaders of Congress. He is presently conducting a speaking tour in eight major cities across the American continent.

Faith is practice. It is to fill the world with God's "will" and His "love" in abundance. It is the practice of the Divine Principle to lead mankind into a harmony of oneness through truth, goodness and beauty. "The Little Angels," a Korean dance troupe that introduced the original beauty of Korea, was the fruit of this Divine Principle. The International Conference on the Unity of the Sciences, the Collegiate Association for the Research of Principles, and the Unification Thought Institute are true assemblies of scholars whose concern is to pursue truth and to realize peace.

The International Federation for Victory over Communism, with branch offices in almost every free nation, the International Cultural Foundation, the International One World Crusade, and the Freedom Leadership Foundation in the United States are bodies of activities that are forerunners for the safeguarding of the nation and the free democratic world.

Today many of their young members are scattered throughout the world, literally sacrificing themselves to bring salvation to the world and to build the unified world of "light and happiness."

We, as intellectuals, knowledgeable of the world's great teachings and virtues, support these genuine and earnest ideals and activities with the deepest understanding, and we urge others to join us in pursuing a unified world and peace for mankind.

It is regrettable that a small minority of Koreans have misinformedly or maliciously slandered the Unification Church, which was begun in their own country, born among their very own brethren, and is making this greatest truth available to all corners of the world. Reportedly, such slander also has been spread in America, misleading the honest public of this frontiersland. Malevolent false rumors, such as the one that the CIA influences the church, have been disseminated; yet it is highly improbable that the CIA of any government could exert influence on such a deeply religiously-oriented endeavor. These charges are truly senseless and are to be lamented.

We hereby proclaim this statement with the most sincere wish and appeal that all support be rendered to this most worthy cause, so that the prosperity of all nations and world peace may be brought into reality.

PROKLAMATION

über die Tätigkeit der Vereinigungskirche (Unification Church International, in Deutschland: Gesellschaft zur Vereinigung des Weltchristentums, e. V.)

Die Menschheit befindet sich heute in einer Krise. Als Resultat der hohen Entwicklung von Wissenschaft und Technik ist der Mensch in einer äußerst selbstdüchtigen und materialistischen Lebensweise gefangen, die jeder Geistigkeit und Moral widerspricht. Wir Professoren und Akademiker sollten uns bei unserer beständigen Suche nach Wahrheit nicht durch Enttäuschungen entmutigen lassen; vielmehr sollten wir teilnehmen an Bemühungen zur Rettung der Menschheit, zur Erlösung der Gesellschaft und zur Verwirklichung des Weltfriedens.

Der Mensch besteht aus „Körper“, der äußerer Gestalt, und „Geist“, dem inneren Wesen, und unser Leben bedeutet sowohl „Leben“, das allen gemeinsam ist, und „Lebensart“, die der Ausdruck individueller Lebensgestaltung ist. Alle Menschen haben das „Leben“ und den „Geist“ gemeinsam, aber ihre „Lebensart“ und ihre „Körper“ sind individuell verschieden. Die Lösung der heutigen Krise und der Weltfrieden können deshalb nur auf der allen gemeinsamen Ebene von „Leben“ und „Geist“ erreicht werden.

Die Menschheit braucht Erlösung. Zuerst müssen Einzelpersonen durch die Harmonie zwischen „Leben“ und „Lebensart“ und zwischen „Geist“ und „Körper“ vervollkommen werden.

Solche Menschen können sich zu Familien der Wahrheit, des Guten und der Schönheit verbinden, aus denen sich dann eine ebensolche Gesellschaft, Nation und Welt entwickeln. Diese logischen Prinzipien zur Erlangung des Weltfriedens auf der Grundlage der persönlichen Vollkommenheit sind die Göttlichen Prinzipien, die Reverend San Myung Mun offenbart hat.

Reverend Mun ist in Korea geboren, einem Land, das sehr wohl das Leid und das Unglück der ganzen Menschheit repräsentieren und wieder gutmachen kann. Seine Göttlichen Prinzipien haben Licht und Glück in die Finsternis und Sorge gebracht. Sie sind auch die Prinzipien des Friedens, durch die unsere zerschlagene und zerstörte Welt wieder vereinigt werden kann. Sie umschließen sowohl die historische Mission der Nation Korea als auch das Ziel und die Sehnsucht der gesamten Menschheit.

Die Welt muß vereint werden; ehe dies jedoch erreicht werden kann, müssen sich alle Religionen vereinigen, die uns die Prinzipien des „Lebens“ lehren. Die Göttlichen Prinzipien sind das einzige Mittel, diesen Zweck zu erfüllen. Ihr Anwendungsbereich ist außerordentlich groß, denn sie enthalten umfassend das Wesen der großen Weltreligionen, wie des Buddhismus, des Konfuzianismus und natürlich des Judentums und des Weltchristentums und begreifen jede andere, nicht religiöse Wahrheit ein.

Die Bestrebung, räumliche und zeitliche Entwicklungen zu harmonisieren und zusammenzufassen, drückt das Bewußtsein um die ideologische Subjektivität aus, die zu den Merkmalen der kulturellen Tradition Koreas gehört. Dies ist auch ein deutlicher Ausdruck des unentbehrlichen „Gottesideals“ und des Ideals der „Ehrfurcht vor dem Himmel“ und der „brüderlichen Liebe“, also der Ideale, die wir alle in den 5000 Jahren der Geschichte unserer Nation gepflegt haben.

Die Göttlichen Prinzipien sind die „Arbeitsanweisung“ für wirkungsvolles, praktisches Handeln in diesem neuen Zeitalter; deshalb ist die Vereinigungskirche die Wiege für die persönliche und familiäre Vollkommenheit im engeren Sinne und kann darauf aufbauend als die Grundlage der nationalen Einheit und der Einheit der Welt im weiteren Sinne angesehen werden.

Die Mitglieder der Vereinigungskirche sind durch die Vervollkommenung ihres Charakters ethisch und moralisch hochstehend; mit ganzer Hingabe, mit Blut und Schweiß opfern sie sich für ihre Nation und für ihr Volk. Sie sind beständig in ihrem Respekt für die Menschheit, hingebungsvoll in der Erhaltung der Demokratie, unerschütterliche Kämpfer gegen den kommunistischen Totalitarismus und haben sich dem Ziel der internationalen Zusammenarbeit und der Errreichung des Weltfriedens verschrieben. Es ist ein kleines Wunder, daß nur 20 Jahre nach der Gründung der Vereinigungskirche durch Rev. Mun die „Arbeit, die für Gott geleistet wird“, so erstaunliche Fortschritte gemacht hat, daß die Kirche heute mehr als zwei Millionen Mitglieder in 41 Ländern der Welt zählt.

Besonders bemerkenswert ist, daß Rev. Mun in den Jahren 1972 bis 1974 einen „Kreuzzug“ durch mehr als fünfzig Städte der Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika führte und damit die einst so große christliche Nation aufforderte, wieder zu Gott zurückzukehren. Er ist heute Ehrenbürger von 73 Städten, und 153 Gouverneure und Bürgermeister haben zum Gedenken seiner Bemühungen den „Tag der Hoffnung und Vereinigung“ proklamiert. Am 18. September 1974 überfluteten über 40 000 Personen den Madison Square Garden, New York, als Rev. Mun seine Botschaft über „Die neue Zukunft des Christentums“ brachte. Am 8. Oktober 1974 wurde er in das Kapitol eingeladen, wo er über das Thema „Amerika in der Vorsehung Gottes“ vor 180 führenden Persönlichkeiten des Kongresses sprach. Zur Zeit hält er Vorträge in acht großen Städten der USA.

Glaube heißt Handeln. Es bedeutet, die Welt mit dem „Willen“ Gottes und Seiner „Liebe“ im reichsten Maße zu erfüllen. Das Praktizieren dieser Göttlichen Prinzipien führt die Menschheit zur Harmonie in Einheit durch Wahrheit, Güte und Schönheit. Die „Kleinen Engel“ („The Little Angels“), eine koreanische Tanzgruppe, die die ursprüngliche Schönheit Koreas zeigt, entstand auf der Grundlage dieser Göttlichen Prinzipien. Die „Internationale Konferenz für die Einheit der Wissenschaften“ („International Conference for the Unity of the Sciences“, I.C.U.S.), die „Hochschulvereinigung für die Erforschung von Prinzipien“ („Collegiate Association for the Research of Principles“, C.A.R.P.) und das „Institut für Vereinigungsphilosophie“ („Unification Thought Institute“, U.T.I.) sind wahre Vereinigungen Gelehrter, deren Anliegen es ist, Wahrheit zu finden und Frieden zu verwirklichen.

Die „Internationale Föderation für den Sieg über den Kommunismus“ („International Federation for Victory over Communism“, I.F.V.C.), mit Zweigstellen in fast jeder freien Nation, die „Internationale Kulturstiftung“ („International Cultural Foundation“, I.C.F.), der internationale „Eine Welt Feldzug“ („International One World Crusade“, I.O.W.C.) und die „Stiftung Freedom Leadership“ („Freedom Leadership Foundation“, F.L.F., USA) sind aktive Vorläufer für den Schutz der Nationen und der freien demokratischen Welt.

Heute sind viele der jüngeren Mitglieder über die ganze Welt verstreut und opfern sich im wahren Sinne des Wortes, um der Welt die Erlösung zu bringen und eine vereinigte Welt des „Lichtes und des Glücks“ zu schaffen.

Wir als Intellektuelle und Kenner der großen Lehren und Tugenden der Welt unterstützen diese ehrlichen und ernsten Ideale und Tätigkeiten mit dem tiefsten Verständnis; wir rufen jeden dringend auf, sich mit uns in dem Streben zu vereinen, eine vereinigte Welt zu schaffen und den Frieden für die Menschheit zu erringen.

Es ist bedauerlich, daß eine kleine Gruppe von Koreanern die Vereinigungskirche auf Grund falscher Informationen oder aus Boshaftigkeit verleumdet hat, obwohl sie ihren Ursprung in ihrem eigenen Land hat, unter den eigenen Brüdern entstand und die größte Wahrheit der ganzen Welt zugänglich macht. Sogar in Amerika gab es Verleumdungen, die das ehrliche Volk dieses Landes irreführten. Böswillig falsche Gerüchte, wie etwa, daß die Kirche von der CIA beeinflußt wird, wurden verbreitet. Es ist aber sehr unwahrscheinlich, daß die CIA irgendeiner Regierung auf eine so tief religiöse Bewegung überhaupt einen Einfluß nehmen kann. Diese Behauptungen sind wirklich unsinnig und bedauerlich.

Wir proklamieren diese Erklärung mit dem ehrlichen Wunsch und der dringenden Bitte, daß diese äußerst edle Sache mit allen Kräften unterstützt wird, damit Wachstum für alle Nationen und der Frieden der Welt verwirklicht werden können.

gebunden werden. Wer wird dies tun? Wer wird die Herzen der Jugend Amerikas entflammen? Wird es der Präsident tun? Werden wohlhabende amerikanische Geschäftsleute es tun? Werden es die amerikanischen Kirchen tun?

Ich weiß, daß Gott mich hierher nach Amerika sandte. Ich kam nicht, um hier ein luxuriöses Leben zu führen. Keineswegs! Ich kam nicht nach Amerika, um meinen eigenen Vorteil zu suchen, sondern weil Gott mich sandte. Die Zukunft der ganzen Welt ist von Amerika abhängig und für Gott und die Welt steht eine Menge auf dem Spiel. Irgendjemand muß nach Amerika kommen und Gott davon abhalten, dieses Land zu verlassen.“

„Irgendjemand muß beginnen, und er muß jetzt beginnen.“

,Ich habe eine Jugendbewegung ins Leben gerufen, welche wahrscheinlich die einzige ihrer Art in der Geschichte der Vereinigten Staaten ist. Dies ist eine neue Pilgrim-Bewegung. Ist es nicht seltsam, daß ein Mann aus Korea eine amerikanische Jugendbewegung für Gott ins Leben ruft? Wenn ein Mitglied Ihrer Familie krank ist, kommt ein Arzt von außerhalb in Ihr Haus. Wenn Ihr Haus brennt, kommt die Feuerwehr aus der Umgebung. Gott geht oft eigenartige Wege, um Seinen Zweck zu verfolgen. Wenn in Amerika niemand ist, das Nötige zu tun, gibt es keinen Grund, warum nicht jemand von außerhalb diese Rolle übernehmen sollte. Amerika gehört denen, die es am meisten lieben.

Hunderte junger Leute aus Europa und Asien verließen ihr Land und ihre Familien, um in dieser neuen Pilgrim-Bewegung den Gründungsgeist Amerikas wieder wachzurufen. Sie möchten Gott nach Amerika zurückbringen, weil sie wissen, daß sie der Welt helfen, wenn sie Amerika retten. Diese Bewegung ist also nicht für Amerika allein entstanden, sondern für die ganze Welt. Mit anderen Worten: Die Bewegung für die Errettung der Welt muß in diesem Land beginnen.“

Aus Mitgliedern der Internationalen Vereinigungskirche bildeten sich die „New Hope Singers“ und die „Korean Dancing Angels“. Sie begleiteten Rev. Mun bei seinen „Day of Hope“-Touren.

FORTSETZUNG VON SEITE 1

Übergang zur internationalen Ebene

Heute sind überall deutliche Zerfallserscheinungen zu sehen. Wie steht es mit Amerikas jungen Leuten? Wie steht es mit dem Drogenproblem und der Jugendkriminalität? Was bedeutet der Zerfall der Familien? Ich hörte, daß drei von vier Ehen in Scheidung enden und die Regierung des Staates Kalifornien mehr Scheidungsurkunden als Heiratsurkunden ausstellt.“

„Die Zukunft Amerikas ist abhängig von ihren jungen Menschen, doch die Kirchen haben versagt, die Jugend Amerikas zu beleben. Wir brauchen in Amerika eine geistige Revolution – eine Revolution des Herzens. Der Individualismus muß an eine auf Gott ausgerichtete Ideologie
